QUICKER LEGAL REMEDY FOR INVESTORS COMING: DEA SECY

New BIT model to go before Cabinet soon

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 7

THE CENTRE IS finalising a revised Model Bilateral Investment Treaty (BIT) for the Cabinet's consideration soon. This revision is expected to shorten the timeframe for investors to exhaust domestic legal remedies before initiating international arbitration to resolve disputes, Economic Affairs Secretary Anuradha Thakur said on Friday.

The review seeks to balance stronger investor protection with India's sovereign interests while reflecting evolving global investment practices and the growing international footprint of Indian companies, she said, speaking at the NCAER India Policy Forum 2026. The revised BIT framework will also serve as a flexible basis for future negotiations, allowing India to tailor provisions based on the strategic importance of the partner country and the nature of the bilateral investment relationship.

"We've already reduced the period (for local remedies) to three years in our agreement with the UAE. The five-year requirement was introduced in the 2015 Model BIT, largely in response to a large number of investor-state disputes India was facing at the time," she said. FE reported recently that the domestic remedy timeframe may even be reduced to two years depending on the bilateral negotiations. "The Model BIT is currently under review. We're examining not only this

"At the same time, we also have to think about Indian investors investing abroad. As India's outward investment grows, our own companies will increasingly require treaty protection in foreign jurisdictions," she said.

Digital-first brands enter FMCG mainstream

● Top companies' acquired portfolios cross ₹4,500 crore in FY26

ASHUTOSH MISHRA & VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO
New Delhi/Mumbai, August 7

THE ACQUIRED DIGITAL-FIRST brands sitting inside India's biggest fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) companies are no longer experiments—they are fast becoming growth engines. Their combined annual revenue crossed ₹4,500 crore in FY26, as premium beauty, wellness and functional foods continued to outpace traditional categories.

Built largely through acquisitions over the past few years, these portfolios are expanding at more than 20% annually and now account for an increasingly material share of legacy players' topline growth. Marico leads the pack. Its digital-first stable—Beardo, Plix, True Elements, Just Herbs, Cosmix and 4700BC—has crossed an annual revenue run rate (ARR) of ₹1,500 crore, contributing over 11% of consolidated revenue. Hindustan Unilever (HUL) follows closely: its premium digital beauty portfolio, led by Minimalist, OZiva, Simple and Nexxus, reached an ARR of around ₹1,400 crore in FY26. ITC's future-ready brands, including Yoga Bar and Mother Sparsh, exceeded ₹1,350 crore.

The smaller players are scaling with intent. Emami's digital and strategic investment portfolio contributes around 6% of consolidated revenue—nearly ₹226 crore on FY26 revenue of ₹3,780 crore—and the company wants that share at about 25% by FY30. Godrej Consumer Products (GCP) is nurturing early-stage digital assets such as Muuchstac, which generates ₹80-90 crore annually, alongside newer premium brands.

The numbers point to a broader transformation underway in Indian FMCG, where incumbents are using acquisitions to buy their way into premium, wellness-oriented and digitally discovered consumer segments.

"We have the foundations of two strong digital platforms. One in beauty and personal care and another in foods. Both platforms offer significant growth opportunities," Marico Managing Director & CEO Saugata Gupta told FE this week, adding that the strategy is anchored in building scalable and profitable businesses in categories with a long runway for growth.

SBI net profit rises 10% in Q1

● Asset quality improves

MANJU AB
Mumbai, August 7

STATE BANK OF India (SBI) on Friday turned in a strong set of numbers, posting a 10.2% year-on-year (y-o-y) rise in net profit to ₹21,121 crore for the June quarter. Profit was driven by robust domestic loan growth of 18.15% y-o-y, higher core income and a significant drop in bad loan provisions.

The country's biggest lender saw its asset quality improve as it reported non-performing asset ratios (NPA) that were the lowest in over two decades.

Net interest income (NII), or the difference between interest earned on loans and interest paid on deposits, rose 14.88% y-o-y to ₹46,992 crore. Operating profit increased 9.77% y-o-y to ₹33,529 crore, while non-interest income fell 9.07% to ₹15,923 crore.

The results beat analysts' estimates and lifted the SBI stock 3.6% to an intra-day high of ₹1,124.50 apiece on the BSE. The stock closed 1.03% higher at ₹1,096.05.

SBI Chairman CS Setty said profits had come from good growth in advances and a healthy cost-to-income ratio. He guided for a credit growth of 14-15% and a deposit growth of 10-11% for the current year.

"We believe nominal GDP growth would be around 12-12.5% and SBI has always grown 2-3% more than that. That's the reason we have given the credit growth guidance of 14% to 15%," Setty said.

PLI for 10-GW polysilicon capacity soon

SAURAVANAND
New Delhi, August 7

INDIA IS WORKING on an incentive scheme to build more than 10 giga watt (GW) domestic polysilicon manufacturing capacity, seeking to plug a critical upstream gap in the solar supply chain and reduce complete dependence on China for the key raw material, Union New and Renewable Energy Secretary Santosh Kumar Sarangi said on Friday.

The move would extend India's domestic manufacturing push from modules and cells to the upstream solar value chain. The material is used to manufacture ingots and wafers, which are subsequently processed into solar cells and modules. It also has applications in semiconductor manufacturing.

"We are coming up with a support scheme for manufacturing of polysilicon in the country, and we should be able to come up with something which will support our manufacturers to dive deeper into polysilicon manufacturing," Sarangi said at the 7th CII International Energy Conference & Exhibition in New Delhi. The government has not yet disclosed the proposed outlay or launch timeline.

India has built more than 213 GW of solar module manufacturing capacity and around 32 GW of solar cell capacity.

IndiGo in talks with Embraer for jet order

BLOOMBERG
August 7

INTERGLOBE AVIATION, THE parent company of India's biggest airline IndiGo, is in talks with Embraer SA over a possible large regional jet order, according to people familiar with the matter. IndiGo is considering purchasing dozens of Embraer E2 aircraft to replace its fleet of turboprop-powered ATRs as well as to bolster capacity, said the people, who asked not to be identified because the information is confidential. The discussions are at an early stage and there's no guarantee of an order, they said.

A deal, which could be valued at billions of dollars before customary industry discounts are applied, would be the biggest for the Brazilian manufacturer in India and brings it closer to establishing a full aircraft assembly line in the country. Embraer CEO Francisco Gomes Neto has previously said the planemaker needs to win orders for at least 200 of its E175 regional jets before it considers an Indian assembly facility.

WE DON'T SEE THEATRES AS COMPETITION... WHAT WE COMPETE FOR IS SCREEN TIME: NETFLIX CO-CEO

‘India has a great storytelling culture, but under screened..’

TRISHA MUKHERJEE
New Delhi, August 7

CONTRARY TO POPULAR belief that streaming is in competition with theatres, Netflix co-CEO Ted Sarandos wants viewers to keep watching films on the big screen.

"We don't see it as a competition at all," Sarandos said Thursday at the Express Adda in New Delhi. "People on Netflix love movies, (they) love to go to movies and watch them at home. An individual watches an average of seven movies in a month and sees one or two in the theatre. We are not saying one (medium) is better than the other. It is a rich, beautiful ecosystem and I want our viewers to go to the theatres because it strengthens their relationship with movies. That's where we will benefit."

The Netflix co-CEO, who was in conversation with Anant Goenka, Executive Director, Indian Express Group, said, "What we compete for is screen time. We want to become the first place you check for something great to watch and the last place you would want to cancel."

Considered one of the architects of the streaming revolution, Sarandos has played a pivotal role in transforming Netflix into one of the world's leading entertainment companies. Expanding into all areas of entertainment programming, he led the company's transition into original content production with the launch of the series House of Cards, Arrested Development, and Orange Is the New Black, among others.

Named one of Time Magazine's 100 Most Influential People in 2013 and 2025, Sarandos led the platform in investing in diverse voices, reshaping the way audiences discover and experience films and series, and championing bold, innovative and engaging storytelling from around the globe.

Sarandos was in India to mark 10 years of Netflix in the country and for the premiere of one of its most ambitious Indian projects yet — Safed Sagar, which spotlights the Indian Air Force's role in the 1999 Kargil War. Headlined by actors Siddharth and Jimmy Shergill, the series was shot at 16,800 feet, "the highest altitude production we've ever been involved in".

The scale of the show, said Sarandos, speaks to the success Netflix has had in India, "one of the greatest storytelling cultures in the world but dramatically under screened." "In India, there are fewer movie theatre screens per person than in any country in the world and it is the country with the biggest appetite for movies," he said, adding, "We can solve that problem. We can tell those stories to audiences that want them and otherwise didn't have access to them." Netflix entered the Indian market with the thriller series, Sacred Games, and has since brought in productions that oscillate between classy and massy.

INDIA WEATHERED WEST ASIA CRISIS WITHOUT FUEL SHORTAGES: PURI

 INDIA SUCCESSFULLY SHIELDED consumers from supply disruptions triggered by the closure of the Strait of Hormuz earlier this year through diversified sourcing, expanded refining capacity and higher domestic production, Oil Minister Hardeep Singh Puri said on Friday, while outlining the government's broader strategy to strengthen the country's energy security. Addressing an industry event organised by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Puri said India had moved beyond viewing energy security solely through the lens of access to hydrocarbons, citing diversified imports, strategic partnerships, infrastructure expansion and alternative fuels as key pillars of its approach.

West Asia shock spares metals, supply risks rise

However, disruptions to half of the world's sulphur supply, weakening steel demand and mounting cost pressures threaten a more difficult second half of 2026, according to Wood Mackenzie.

BLOC ACCOUNTS FOR A SIGNIFICANT PART OF GLOBAL TRADE

Goyal: India not in favour of common BRICS currency

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 7

INDIA HAS FIRMLY ruled out supporting the creation of a common BRICS currency, reiterating its preference for trade settlements in national currencies over a unified monetary system.

Minister of Commerce and Industry Piyush Goyal announced the stance on Friday following the conclusion of a two-day meeting of BRICS trade and industry ministers in Jaipur.

“India is not in favour of a BRICS currency,” Goyal told reporters. “We do not support the introduction of any such currency scheme; India opposes it.”

The statement sets clear boundaries on how far New Delhi is willing to go regarding de-dollarisation within the bloc. While member states—most notably Russia and China—have aggressively pushed for a joint currency to bypass Western financial dominance and mitigate sanction risks, India remains reluctant to surrender its monetary sovereignty or adopt a shared currency with economically divergent partners.

Instead, New Delhi has consistently advocated for internationalising the Indian Rupee and conducting bilateral trade using local currencies—an approach that maintains national control while reducing exchange-rate friction.

The debate over alternative currency arrangements has intensified alongside the rapid expansion of the bloc. Originally comprising Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa (BRICS), the group has expanded to 11

Ministers make progress on 2030 road map

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 7

TRADE MINISTERS FROM the BRICS emerging economies have moved to finalise the strategy for BRICS Economic Partnership 2030, charting a road map for trade, digital economic expansion, and industrial collaboration across the Global South, a term used to describe countries in Africa, Latin America, Asia, and Oceania.

The consensus was reached at the 16th BRICS trade ministers' meeting held in Jaipur under India's chairship for 2026. Ministers from Brazil, China, Egypt, Ethiopia, Indonesia, Iran, Russia, South Africa, and the United Arab Emirates attended the gathering, chaired by Commerce and Industry Minister Piyush Goyal.

The BRICS summit is scheduled to be held on September 12-13.

The Strategy for BRICS Economic Partnership 2030—to be submitted to BRICS leaders for final endorsement—spans six key pillars. These include multilateral trading system and rules-based governance, trade in services and cross-border digital economy frameworks, trade and investment facilitation, supply chain resilience and sustainable development.

The ministers also issued the Jaipur Consensus to study a BRICS invoice discounting mechanism and adopted the guiding principles for credit assessment frameworks for export-oriented MSMEs, so that a firm is judged by its cash flow and not by its assets and collateral.

These instruments respond directly to the global trade finance gap of about $ 2.5 trillion which impacts smaller enterprises and therefore form part of the 'workplan on the internationalisation of MSMEs', a statement issued at the conclusion of the meeting said.

Consumers, small biz not likely to pay for using UPI

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 7

CONSUMERS AND SMALL merchants will continue to enjoy free Unified Payments Interface (UPI) services even as the Lok Sabha passed a Bill to amend the Payment and Settlement Systems Act, 2007, the Payments Council of India said on Friday.

The statement comes a day after the Lok Sabha passed a Bill to amend the Payment and Settlement Systems Act, 2007, which authorises the government to permit banks and other service providers to levy charges on payments through UPI and other notified electronic payment modes.

In a post on X, the association said, “UPI has always been free for consumers since its launch in 2016. Every Indian can continue making instant digital payments without paying any transaction charges.” Clarifying the ongoing debate around UPI charges, Payments Council of India said small merchants, including kirana stores, will also continue to accept UPI payments without paying the Merchant Discount Rate (MDR).

It said the recent discussions are centred on developing a sustainable financial model to support the infrastructure behind UPI, which has evolved into the world's largest real-time payment system, while ensuring that consumers and small businesses remain protected.

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, on Thursday, said that the MDR on digital transactions applies to merchants and not to customers, and the MDR charge would support banks and fintech to invest more in infrastructure and security.

Sitharaman, in a post on X, said the UPI and Services Steering Committee headed by NPCI is yet to decide on the MDR, which would happen only after Parliament passes the Taxation and Other Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2026.

Through the bill, the government has proposed that the central government can decide, via a notification, which electronic payment modes or transactions would remain free.

Payments Council of India said that banks, payment companies, fintech firms, the National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) have collectively invested for nearly a decade in technology, cybersecurity, fraud prevention, innovation and customer support to build and maintain the UPI ecosystem.

Operating a national digital payment infrastructure requires continuous spending on technology, cybersecurity, compliance, fraud prevention, customer support and innovation, it said.

CEA: Financial sector must build safeguards against AI risks

CHIEF ECONOMIC ADVISER V Anantha Nageswaran on Friday cautioned the financial sector against overlooking the security risks posed by artificial intelligence, saying recent instances of AI agents attempting to breach other AI systems underscore the need to prioritise safeguards before embracing the technology's benefits.

The financial sector cannot afford to ignore emerging AI-related threats until they become a reality, he said at an event organised by industry chamber ASSOCHAM in New Delhi. “Whether it is the Anthropic or Meta agents going and hacking other institutions' IT systems without being prompted to do so, the key aspect is that we generally do not pay attention to risks until after they have become a reality,” he said.

“I don't think we will have the luxury of time, particularly in the financial sector,” he added, stressing that institutions should first strengthen security frameworks to ensure “we don't lose what we already have” before leveraging AI at scale.

His remarks came amid growing concerns over the cybersecurity implications of increasingly autonomous AI systems.

In April, security concerns surfaced around Claude Myths Preview, an advanced AI model developed by Anthropic, accessed in an unauthorised manner, putting financial services at risk globally.

Era of cheap US gas may end on AI, LNG demand

● Prices may touch $5 per mmbtu

SAURAVANAND
New Delhi, August 7

THE DECADE OF cheap US natural gas may be nearing an end, with Wood Mackenzie forecasting Henry Hub prices to approach $5 per mmbtu in real terms by 2035, as AI-led data centre growth, gas-fired power demand and LNG exports tighten the market.

The forecast marks a significant reset for global gas markets as Henry Hub has been the pricing backbone for US LNG exports and long-term supply contracts. For most of the past decade, the benchmark remained in a $2-4 per mmbtu nominal range, aided by rapid shale development, near-zero-cost associated gas and steady productivity gains.

Wood Mackenzie said those conditions are no longer assured. Demand is rising at a sustained pace, while supply is becoming harder and costlier to grow. “The conditions that kept Henry Hub between $2 to $4/mmbtu for the best part of a decade are no longer all operating at full force,” said Kristy Kramer, head of LNG strategy and market development at Wood Mackenzie. “Rapid play development, near-zero-cost associated gas, and year-on-year productivity gains drove that era of cheap, stable prices. Those tailwinds have largely run their course.”

However, Rajesh Kumar Mediratta, MD & CEO, Indian Gas Exchange, said higher gas production and LNG liquefaction capacity could still cap prices despite rising data centre demand. “Under the same situation before the West Asia crisis, Henry Hub was around $4-7 per mmbtu and everyone believed it would remain heightened. But the situation reversed and during this crisis, Henry Hub was the cheapest benchmark even when Brent-linked LNG was costlier,” Mediratta said.

Govt set to exceed fundraising goal on PSU stake sales

REUTERS
New Delhi, August 7

THE UNION GOVERNMENT expects to exceed this fiscal year's goal of raising ₹80,000 crore ($8.4 billion) through the sale of stakes in state-run firms and other asset monetisation methods, sources said, helping public finances strained by the West Asia conflict.

The US-Israeli war on Iran has driven up fertiliser import costs and fuel subsidies, sparking concern that the government could fall short of its budget goals. The government has often missed its target for divestments and asset monetisation in recent years.

The government this week completed the sale of shares worth ₹31,550 crore ($3.3 billion) in Life Insurance Corporation (LIC), its biggest divestment in years. Combined with sales of shares in firms such as Coal India and Indian Railway Finance Corp, more than $5.5 billion has been raised to date. According to one of the sources, the sale of the government's stake in IDBI Bank should also conclude this fiscal year, potentially adding $2.5 billion to state coffers.

Moreover, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman has given quarterly targets to the ministry's divestment department to boost stake-sale receipts, the second source said.

What 99 Budget speeches reveal about economic journey

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 7

ANEW STUDY by the Economic Advisory Council to the PM (EACPM) showed that while stronger economic growth is associated with a more positive Budget narrative, Budget speeches are better understood as a record of how governments diagnose challenges, justify policy choices and articulate national ambition than as predictors of future growth.

In a first-of-its-kind study, the EACPM paper by EACPM part-time member and SBI Chief Economist Soumya Kanti Ghosh and SBI Economist Shashidharan Sharma, traced India's changing economic priorities by analysing 99 Union Budget speeches delivered between 1947-48 and 2026-27.

The paper showed that average real GDP growth rose from

CLEAR SHIFT

■ The paper showed that average real GDP growth rose from 4.1% during 1950-64 to 7.4% in the post-2014 period

■ The tone of Budget speeches has become steadily more confident over time

■ The mean net Budget tone rose from -0.04 during 1950-64 to 0.65 in the post-2014 period

4.1% during 1950-64 to 7.4% in the post-2014 period (excluding the pandemic contraction year), while econometric analysis finds that each one-percentage-point increase in inherited real GDP growth is associated with a 0.057-standard-deviation increase in Budget tone.

Titled Union Budget Speeches as India's Economic

Narrative, 1950-2026: From Planning to Viksit Bharat, the paper combined a transparent dictionary-based analysis of Budget speeches with official macroeconomic data and an institutional chronology to examine how India's development narrative has evolved over nearly eight decades. It used NLP and AI-based analysis and uses it

■ Stronger economic growth is consistently associated with a more positive Budget narrative

■ Budget speeches now increasingly revolve around public capital expenditure, digital public infra, domestic manufacturing, ambition of Viksit Bharat, etc extensively.

The evidence points to a clear shift—from the language of planning, public investment and resource mobilisation in the early decades to an increasing emphasis on public capital expenditure, digital public infrastructure, domestic manufacturing, implementation, accountability and national vision in recent years, it said.

One of its most striking findings is that the tone of Budget speeches has become steadily more confident over time. The study finds that the mean net Budget tone rose from -0.04 during 1950-64 to 0.65 in the post-2014 period, while stronger economic growth is consistently associated with a more positive Budget narrative. Importantly, the authors caution that this does not mean Budget speeches predict future growth. Instead, they argue that “the speech works principally as diagnosis, justification, and agenda setting rather than as a short-horizon forecast.”

Every Finance Minister inherits an economy shaped by earlier reforms, crises and institutional choices. The Budget speech explains what the government sees as the key constraints, why it believes certain policy instruments will work, and how it intends to move the economy from present challenges to future growth.

Read individually, these speeches may appear ceremonial. Read together, they become what the paper calls “a contemporaneous history of how the Indian state has understood development,” it noted.

AI startup Wonderful announces India entry

POULOMI CHATTERJEE

Bengaluru, August 7

ENTERPRISE AI STARTUP Wonderful on Friday announced its India entry with plans to open an office in Mumbai and hire an initial 150 forward deployed engineers (FDE), targeting large enterprises that are moving from AI pilots to production deployments.

The Amsterdam-headquartered company said hiring is already underway across go-to-market, deployment strategy and FDE roles. These engineers will work alongside customers to build, deploy and continuously improve AI agents across enterprise functions. The company expects the India team to expand to a few hundred FDEs within a year and eventually scale up to thousands as demand grows.

"India has shown the biggest appetite for building AI among the more than 30 countries where we have expanded over the past year," Roey Lalazar, chief technology officer at Wonderful, told FE. "We will start with 150 FDEs in the near future, but as we scale, this could potentially run into thousands," he added.

NOVELIS PROFITABILITY IMPROVES IN Q1

Hindalco net up 75% on record India show

URVI MALYANIA

Mumbai, August 7

HINDALCO INDUSTRIES POSTED an increase of 75.1% year-on-year in net profit to ₹7,013 crore for the first quarter of FY27, beating Bloomberg estimates of ₹5,809 crore. The aluminium and copper major posted a net profit of ₹4,004 crore in the year-ago quarter.

Its revenue from operations jumped 32.1% to ₹84,825 crore in the June quarter from ₹64,232 crore a year ago. The figure, however, lagged Street estimates of ₹86,688 crore. Earnings before interest, tax, depreciation, and amortisation (Ebitda) for the quarter was ₹13,932 crore, ahead of Bloomberg estimates of ₹11,011 crore and a rise of 76.2% from ₹7,906 crore a year ago, benefiting from lower cost on account of change in inventories of finished goods, work in progress and stock in trade.

"Hindalco has started FY27 on a strong note, delivering record revenue, Ebitda and PAT, with every business segment contributing meaningfully to this performance. Our India business delivered another record quarterly performance while Novelis reported improved profitability supported by the successful restart of Oswego and continued benefits from cost optimisation measures,"

India business PAT was ₹5,301 crore, showing a jump of 86%, the company said. Revenues at ₹35,985 crore were up 24% year-on-year, while Ebitda at ₹8,606 crore was up 73%. The increase in PAT was aided by the firm's transition to the new tax regime effective April 1, it said. Consequently, effective tax rate reduced to 26% in Q1FY27 versus 30% in Q1FY26 and 34% in Q4FY26.

The company's US subsidiary, Novelis, reported revenue of $5.8 billion, up 23% from the year ago, driven by higher metal prices.

Adjusted Ebitda at $516 million was up 24%, supported by structural cost reduction initiatives. Ebitda per tonne in Q1 was $563, up from $432 the year ago. Shipments dipped to 916 kilotonne (KT) from 963 KT a year ago. Hindalco said that its Oswego hot mill, which was impacted by fire incidents, restarted in June and its Bay Minette plant commissioning is underway with commercial shipments expected from Q1FY28.

"The EV transition has stopped being a forecast. It is now a showroom reality and Bharat is driving it," said Sai Giridhar, vice president, Fada.

Leela targets 10 new hotels by 2030

VAISHALI DAR

New Delhi, August 7

THE LEELA PALACES, Hotels and Resorts plans to expand its portfolio from 15 to 25 properties by 2030, on the back of sustained demand for luxury travel, premium experiences and an under-supplied high-end hospitality market even as international travel faces near-term headwinds. The Brookfield Asset Management-owned luxury hotel chain has lined up 10 new properties with a pipeline of 1,095 keys, taking its total inventory beyond the current 4,162 keys spread across six owned hotels, seven managed properties and one franchise. The upcoming portfolio includes hotels in Agra, Ayodhya, Jaipur, Sikkim, Sri-nagar and Dubai, alongside a stronger push into wildlife, wellness and branded residences.

The expansion comes as the company reported a sharp improvement in its financial performance for the April-June quarter. Consolidated net profit rose nearly fivefold to ₹48.8 crore from ₹8.8 crore a year ago, while revenue from operations grew 28.1% year-on-year to ₹352 crore. Operating Ebitda increased 41.4% to ₹143.4 crore, with Ebitda margin expanding to 40.7% from 36.9% a year earlier.

The performance was driven by continued pricing power and healthy occupancy. Revenue per available room (RevPAR), a key industry metric, rose 17% to ₹13,982, supported by a 10% increase in average daily rate (ADR) to ₹20,722 and a 4% improvement in occupancy to 67.5%. M&M ramps up EV after-sales infra

● EV sales growing but firm says no to exclusive outlets

AKBAR MERCHANT

Mumbai, August 7

MAHINDRA & MAHINDRA is strengthening its electric vehicle (EV) after-sales network by upgrading its existing dealership and service infrastructure, as it ruled out opening exclusive EV outlets.

The company is investing in EV-specific capabilities to improve service turnaround and reduce vehicle downtime as electric SUV sales grow. Mahindra sold 6,473 electric SUVs in July 2026, ranking a close third behind JSW MG Motor India (6,585 units) and Tata Motors (15,055 units).

its existing dealership and service network rather than establish exclusive EV dealerships," Nalinikanth Gollagunta, CEO, automotive division, Mahindra & Mahindra, told FE.

Instead of creating a separate retail and service ecosystem for electric vehicles, the automaker is equipping its existing network with dedicated EV infrastructure. Mahindra currently operates more than 1,250 workshops across India, where it is adding dedicated EV service bays, specially trained EV technicians and advanced diagnostic equipment to cater to the unique servicing requirements of battery electric vehicles.

A key part of the company's after-sales expansion is the rollout of mobile service units. Mahindra plans to deploy more than 250 E-Vans across the country, significantly expanding its on-site service capabilities. According to Golagutta, the initiative is aimed at improving service accessibility, offering convenient doorstep support for EV owners. The vans will be capable of carrying out a range of inspections, diagnostics and minor repair work at the customer's location, helping reduce workshop visits and improve turnaround times.

Titan profit jumps 63%, beats Street

VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO

Mumbai, August 7

TITAN COMPANY ON Friday reported a 63% year-on-year jump in consolidated net profit to ₹1,777 crore for the first quarter of FY27, beating Bloomberg consensus estimates of ₹1,396 crore, as strong operating performance drove earnings higher.

Consolidated revenue rose 29% year-on-year to ₹21,356 crore, slightly below the estimated ₹21,451 crore. The growth came amid volatile gold prices during the quarter. Titan derives over 88% of its revenue from its jewellery business. The rest comes from segments such as watches, eye wear, fragrances, bags and sarees. Earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (Ebitda) climbed 58% year-on-year to ₹2,890 crore, significantly ahead of the ₹2,240-crore estimate. Ebitda margins expanded to 13.5% from 11.1% a year ago, also beating the estimated 10.4% for the period.

Titan's jewellery business remained the key growth driver. Revenue from the segment rose 30% to ₹19,002 crore on festive demand, while Ebit jumped 68% to ₹2,360 crore.

"Q1FY27 was a strong opening quarter for us, with our consumer businesses registering 40% year-on-year growth. Through innovation and design-led differentiation, our portfolio of brands across jewellery, watches, eyecare and emerging businesses continue to deliver exceptional value to customers seeking premium offerings," Ajay Chawla, managing director, Titan, said.

JK Tyre profit skids 73% despite healthy demand

JK TYRE & Industries on Friday reported a 73% decline in consolidated net profit for the first quarter of FY27, as higher raw material costs triggered by the West Asia conflict weighed on margins despite healthy demand across domestic markets, reports Akbar Merchant.

The tyre maker posted a consolidated net profit of ₹44.09 crore during April-June, compared with ₹163.35 crore in the year-ago period. Consolidated revenue from operations rose marginally to ₹3,946.24 crore from ₹3,868.94 crore a year ago. However, total expenses rose sharply to ₹3,912.75 crore from ₹3,695.08 crore, primarily due to a steep rise in raw material costs. "The continuing West Asia crisis led to a sharp increase in raw material prices, which impacted our gross and operating margins. Approximately 70% of the tyre industry raw materials are petro-based, hence it is highly vulnerable to oil price movement," Chairman and Managing Director Raghupati Singhania said.

Hero aims to triple EV output to 45,000 units a month this fiscal

New Delhi, August 7

AMID RISING DEMAND for electric two-wheelers, Hero MotoCorp on Friday said it plans to raise its production capacity to around 45,000 units per month by the end of the current financial year, tripling from 15,000 units capacity it had in FY26.

"As we stand today, in the first week of August, production capacity has already increased to close to 30,000 per month, and you should see us go to close to 45,000 per month before the end of this financial year," Hero MotoCorp CEO Harshavardhan Chitale told investors on Friday. "So, as we had committed, we are tripling our EV capacity in this financial year."

The capacity expansion is being driven by robust retail demand, with the company saying its dealerships are carrying virtually no excess inventory and that production is being retailed almost immediately. "We have pretty much nil channel inventory. You know, it's 2-3 days, depending on the region. So whatever we are supplying and shipping is actually retailed immediately," he said, adding the firm expects the additional capacity to be absorbed quickly.

Hero MotoCorp reported a 151% year-on-year increase in EV volumes in the June quarter, while revenue from its electric vehicle business stood at around ₹660 crore. The firm expects EVs to contribute a larger share of revenue as production capacity increases and the product portfolio expands. Hero MotoCorp expects the domestic two-wheeler market to grow to close to double digits in FY27.

DELIVERY PLATFORMS AGREE TERMS WITH HOTEL, RESTAURANT BODIES

Swiggy, Zomato avert boycott in Bengaluru

ANEESS HUSSAIN
Bengaluru, August 7

FOOD DELIVERY PLATFORMS Swiggy and Zomato have agreed to seek a restaurant's approval before running discounts funded by restaurants after the Bangalore Hotels Association (BHA), Karnataka State Hotels Association (KSHA), National Restaurant Association of India (NRAI), and the city's bar and restaurant associations, threatened to take the restaurants off the apps from August 15 over unauthorised promotions and disputed deductions from payouts.

Following the assurances from the platforms, the associations have deferred the deadline to September 1, giving them until August 31 to implement the changes.

At the centre of the dispute is consent for discount campaigns run by the apps. Restaurants

DISPUTE OVER DISCOUNTS

■ Earlier, BHA, KSHA, NRAI & bar and restaurant bodies, threatened to take the restaurants off the apps from August 15 over unauthorised promotions

■ At the centre of dispute is consent for discount campaigns run by apps

■ Zomato moved first on Monday, agreeing to make promotional campaigns opt-in instead of automatically enrolling restaurants

■ Restaurant bodies have also objected to automatic renewal of promotional campaigns as click-based thresholds can trigger renewals without consent restaurants alleged the platforms enrolled them into promotional campaigns without consent and later recovered the cost from their payouts.

Zomato moved first on Monday, agreeing to make promotional campaigns opt-in instead of automatically enrolling restaurants, seek approval through an OTP before campaigns go live, and review complaints over past wrongful deductions on an outlet-by-outlet basis.

Swiggy followed on Friday after discussions led by food marketplace, dineout and crew CEO Rohit Kapoor, food marketplace chief business officer Sidharth Bhakoo, and dineout and scenes CEO Swapnil Bajpai. The company agreed to the same consent requirement, refund charges collected for campaigns run without approval, and sign a memorandum of understanding with industry bodies by next week.

Restaurant bodies have also objected to the automatic renewal of promotional campaigns, saying click-based thresholds can trigger renewals without fresh consent. They want every extension to require separate approval.

Air India pushes new framework for pilots

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi/Mumbai, August 7

AIR INDIA PILOTS who are eligible and want to become commanders on narrow- and wide-body planes will be compulsorily required to shift to Air India Express, with the Tata Group-owned loss-making airline putting in place a new framework based on a common seniority pool, according to sources.

Under the framework, senior first officers shifting to Air India Express for narrow-body Boeing 737 planes will be given a one-time bonus of ₹10 lakh and the existing commanders of these aircraft at Air India Express will be paid ₹21 lakh over a three-year period, the sources said.

Upon getting the commandership, the sources said such pilots will be required to beat the operating base chosen by Air India Express for at least two years, which can be extended by up to six months.

Ola Electric narrows loss to ₹336 cr, revenue falls 45%

FE BUREAU
Chennai, August 7

OLA ELECTRIC REPORTED its lowest consolidated net loss in seven quarters at ₹336 crore for the quarter ended June 2026 (Q1FY27), helped by a sharp reduction in operating expenses, even as revenues fell by 45% year-on-year (y-o-y) to ₹455 crore due to poor vehicle sales.

Consolidated operating expenses fell 35% y-o-y to ₹333 crore, helping the company reduce its operating Ebitda loss to ₹165 crore from ₹237 crore in the same quarter last year. The Ebitda loss was broadly in line with the Bloomberg estimate of ₹166 crore, while the net loss came in lower than analysts' estimate of ₹385 crore.

Revenue, however, missed the Bloomberg estimate of ₹568 crore and also fell short of the company's own guidance of ₹500-550 crore. Ola Electric had guided for 40,000-45,000 vehicle orders in Q1FY27 but reported 44,071 orders. Actual deliveries dropped nearly 70% y-o-y to 39,192 units.

The firm said the June quarter was the first full quarter after its FY26 reset and marked its transition from restructuring to disciplined scale.

On a sequential basis, vehicle registrations nearly doubled to 43,921 units, while market share expanded to 8.4% from 5.1%.

Bhavish Aggarwal, founder, chairman and MD of Ola Electric, said electric scooters, motorcycles and energy storage products will pick up in the coming quarters as it announced its expansion into the dealership model without relying only on company-owned stores.

Dabur secures HC stay on FSSAI ban on items with '100%' claims

ASHUTOSH MISHRA
New Delhi, August 7

THE DELHI HIGH COURT on Friday stayed the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India's (FSSAI) order directing Dabur India to halt the sale of several food products carrying "100%" claims, in an interim relief to the FMCG major.

Justice Amit Mahajan held that Dabur had established a prima facie case and observed that the prohibitory order should not have been passed without giving the company an opportunity to be heard. The court stayed the operation of the regulator's order and posted the matter for further hearing after two weeks.

Earlier this week, FSSAI had directed Dabur to immediately stop the sale of food products carrying claims such as "100% Natural", "100% Pure", "100% Purity Guaranteed", "100% Organic" and "100% Tender Coconut Water". The order covered products including honey, apple cider vinegar, virgin coconut oil, sesame oil, cow ghee, coconut water and coconut milk, among others.

The regulator alleged that such claims were ambiguous, unverifiable and likely to mislead consumers, in violation of the Food Safety and Standards (Advertising and Claims) Regulations, 2018. It had also raised objections over the use of the Jaivik Bharat logo on certain organic products without valid FSSAI organic endorsement.

'No material impact of US FDA warning'

DABUR INDIA HAS said that the warning letter issued by the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) will have no material impact on its financial or operational performance, as it relates only to a small part of its Silvasa manufacturing facility that produces private label products for export to the US. Domestic products are not covered by the warning, the firm added. —FE BUREAU

Penalty on AWL Agri for substandard oil

FOOD SAFETY REGULATOR FSSAI has imposed a penalty on AWL Agri Business for selling substandard fortified "Fortune" refined sunflower cooking oil, with the company saying it will pursue legal remedies against the decision.

In a social media post on Friday, the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) informed that an adjudication order has been passed and a penalty has been imposed on AWL Agri Business.

The action was taken after the regulator found that a sample collected from Goa failed in lab testing, as the Vitamin D level was significantly below the prescribed limits.

The order has been passed against AWL Agri Business for "manufacturing and marketing a substandard fortified edible oil (Fortune Fryola refined sunflower seed oil)," FSSAI said.

Reacting to the FSSAI decision, the company said it has not yet received a certified copy of the order. The company said it would pursue appropriate legal remedies, while reiterating that it remains fully committed to FSSAI norms. "Based on the information available to us...this is not a product safety concern, and the said sample was entirely safe for consumption," it said. —PTI

SC seeks Airtel, Vi replies to govt plea on spectrum fees

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, August 7

THE SUPREME COURT on Friday sought responses from Bharti Airtel and Vodafone Idea on the Centre's appeal against the Bombay High Court verdict striking down the retrospective levy of one-time spectrum charges (OTSC). The levy, the demand for which was first raised in 2013, runs into about ₹22,000 crore across the industry, including ₹3,300 crore in bank guarantees.

A Bench of Justices BV Nagarathna and R Mahadevan issued notices to the telcos and indicated that it would decide at the next hearing whether the appeal should be heard along with a pending matter arising from the Madras High Court's ruling in the Airtel case.

The Centre has moved the apex court, challenging the Bombay HC's June 8 ruling

Arguing for the Centre, Additional Solicitor General Vikramjit Banerjee contended that spectrum is a public resource and that telecom operators should pay its market value. The Centre also opposed the release of bank guarantees furnished by the telcos, stating the dispute involved more than ₹3,300 crore of public money. Counsel for the telecom operators countered that companies could not be subjected to fresh financial liabilities years after spectrum had been allotted and payments made under the prevailing licensing framework, stressing the need for certainty in commercial arrangements.

Lawyers representing the Centre also urged the apex court to consider the present appeal along with the Airtel matter, pointing to the conflicting conclusions reached by the two high courts on the same issue.

Digital-first FMCG brands becoming growth engines

HUL HAS RUN a similar play-book, deploying over ₹3,500 crore on bolt-on acquisitions and premium platforms during FY26, with heavy investment behind Minimalist and OZiva. In a recent media interaction, CEO & MD Priya Nair said the company's future strategy would centre on sharper consumer segmentation, brand-building, innovation and more digital-first brands, as it targets a younger, modern and desirable product portfolio.

Emami has outlined perhaps the most aggressive acquisition roadmap among peers. "Our consistent profitability, cash generation and debt-free balance sheet give us the flexibility to pursue promising new-age consumer businesses," Vice-Chairman and Managing Director Harsha V Agarwal said in the company's FY26 annual report. The Kolkata-based company has set up a dedicated new-age business vertical to identify and acquire founder-led brands across wellness, functional beverages and personalised beauty. Recent buys include Axiom Ayurveda and a majority stake in IncNud Digital, owner of Vedix and SkinKraft.

ITC, too, sees premiumisation and shifting consumer preferences as structural opportunities. "Today's maximiser consumer simultaneously seeks taste and nutrition, convenience and trust, value as well as premium experiences," Chairman and Managing Director Sanjiv Puri said at the company's 115th annual general meeting last month, noting that India's consumption landscape was being reshaped by rising aspirations, health-conscious consumers and digital commerce—and that ITC was building a portfolio of future-ready brands to serve these evolving needs.

Analysts say the buying has grown more disciplined after the first wave of cash-burning D2C investments. "Three years ago, companies were buying growth. Today, they're buying profitable premium brands that can be scaled quickly through their distribution networks," said Abneesh Roy, executive director, NuVama Institutional Equities.

Karan Taurani, executive vice-president at Elara Capital, said digital-first brands give incumbents access to faster-growing consumption segments without disrupting their core portfolios. "Categories such as wellness, premium personal care and functional foods are growing faster than mass FMCG and benefit from digital discovery and quick commerce," he said.

For India's FMCG majors, the message is clear: digital-first businesses have graduated from experimental bets to a strategic pillar—driving premiumisation, accelerating innovation and delivering a larger share of incremental growth than the legacy portfolios that funded them.

RBI REVISES FRAMEWORK FOR PSL

THE RESERVE BANK OF India (RBI) on Friday revised its priority sector lending (PSL) framework, easing norms for certain advances against fresh foreign currency non-resident (bank) deposits and non-resident external (NRE) term deposits. Under the revised framework, loans against fresh FCNR(B) deposits of 3–5 years mobilised between June 8 and September 30, 2026, and NRE deposits of three years or more mobilised or renewed during June 19–September 30, 2026, will be excluded from adjusted net bank credit for priority sector lending calculations. These amendments will take immediate effect, the RBI said. These deposits are already exempted from CRR and SLR requirements. FE Bureau

GOLD PRICES EXTENDED gains for the fourth straight session on Friday, rising by ₹200 to ₹1.54 lakh per 10 gram, while tracking a sharp rally globally as a weaker US dollar and softer crude oil prices lifted demand. However, silver stayed unchanged at ₹2,34,800 per kg after a sharp rise in the last session.

Jefferies removes HDFC Bank in portfolio rejig

BHARATH RAJESWARAN August 7

INDIA'S MARKET OUTLOOK is strengthening as bank credit growth reaches its fastest pace in more than a decade, foreign equity inflows return and central bank measures support the rupee, according to Jefferies.

Against this backdrop, Jefferies has reshaped its India long-only portfolio. HDFC Bank, India's largest private lender and the heaviest stock in benchmark indices, is being removed alongside Policy-Bazaar-owner PB Fintech.

"There are some positives to be aware of as regards the Indian domestic story," Christopher Wood, Jefferies' global head of equity strategy, said in his latest 'Greed & Fear' note published on Friday.

MCX and Lenskart Solutions will replace HDFC Bank and PB Fintech, while REC makes way for Bajaj Finance. Eternal's allocation rises by one percentage point, funded by a reduction in Bharti Airtel.

Foreign investors bought a net $2.12 billion of domestic equities in July as India benefited from the unwind out of the memory chip trade. However, they remain net sellers for the year, with outflows totaling $25.86 billion, according to National Securities Depository.

The more important signal, Wood said, is the accelera-

RBI PROPOSAL ON REVOLVING CREDIT

NBFCs may need model rejig to meet new norms

CHRISTINA TITUS Mumbai, August 7

THE RESERVE BANK of India's proposal to restrict non-banking finance companies (NBFCs) from offering revolving credit facilities could compel them to redesign offerings. The norms could impact products such as flexi loans and overdraft facilities, and according to analysts, the maintenance-fee income associated with these facilities.

IIFL analyst Viral Shah said in a note that the proposal, if implemented, can impact new customer acquisition, growth and stickiness for NBFCs that provide revolving facilities. Fees, Shah wrote, could also be impacted since such credit products fetch higher fees or yields compared to other simpler products. He said lenders could potentially offset the loss of fee income by levying prepayment charges.

A revolving credit facility is a flexible loan that allows one to draw funds up to an approved limit, repay them, and then re-borrow as needed, with the limit replenishing each time one makes a repayment.

UNDER PRESSURE

The RBI on Thursday proposed barring NBFCs from offering revolving credit products. However, these directions are not applicable to an NBFC authorised by the RBI to issue credit cards.

"Revolving credit facilities are less suited to NBFCs, unlike banks, which have short-term liquidity due to CASA deposits. NBFCs' asset-liability management frameworks are therefore structured differently and may not support such products. In addition, revolving credit facilities may create an ever-greening risk," said an NBFC executive.

Bajaj Finance is estimated to have revolving-credit exposure equivalent to around 15% of its AUM, according to IIFL estimates.

Macquarie Capital said in a note Bajaj Finance may need to reduce its flexi loan portfolio, adding that any cut by the company in its FY27 growth guidance of 22–24% would be viewed negatively.

Tata Capital's exposure is in the high single-digit to low double-digit range, according to IIFL.

Tougher norms proposed for authorised persons

THE NATIONAL STOCK Exchange (NSE) and the BSE on Friday proposed a tighter framework for authorised persons (APs) of brokerages.

In a consultation paper released on Thursday, the exchanges, in consultation with Sebi, proposed an overhaul of the regulatory framework governing authorised persons, raising entry barriers through stricter eligibility criteria, mandatory certifications, net-worth requirements and tighter supervision by stockbrokers. The new proposal mandates the APs, who provide access to trading platform of a stock exchange as an agent, to have a valid certification on securities operations and risk management from the National Institute of Securities Markets. APs will also be required to have certifications on the business segment for which they are registered.

on Friday. Bajaj Finance was the most hit with its stock falling over 5%. Among other lenders, Tata Capital fell 3.5%, L&T Finance lost 3% while Poonawalla Fincorp closed 2.2% lower. The Nifty Financial Services index was down by 1.48%.

An analyst with a rating agency noted that NBFCs are generally not permitted to offer revolving credit facilities such as cash credit. However, there are some grey areas, which allowed some of them to offer products such as salary overdrafts and flexi loans. "These products may need to be replaced," he said.

Lenders are also awaiting clarity on whether supply-chain and inventory financing will also be classified as revolving credit. Experts said supply chain financing by NBFCs may get affected.

"Under supply-chain financing arrangements, NBFCs would typically sanction a limit against which borrowers could submit invoices at different points in time, with the NBFC funding them on a continuing basis. Now, each invoice may have to be treated as a separate loan," an industry executive said.

RBI rejects Religare proposal for demerger

FE BUREAU New Delhi, August 7

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) has declined to approve the proposed demerger of Religare Enterprises (REL), under which a part of its business was to be transferred to subsidiary Religare Finvest (RFL), the company said in a stock exchange filing on Friday.

Following the RBI's decision, Religare said both REL and RFL will engage with the regulator and provide any further clarifications that may be required.

In the filing, the company said it received a letter dated August 6 from the RBI stating that its application seeking the central bank's no-objection/prior approval for the scheme "has been examined and that the request has not been acceded to". RFL also received a similar communication from the RBI.

The proposed demerger had already received a no-objection from the NSE and an observation letter carrying "no adverse observations" from the BSE last month. The RBI's approval was one of the key regulatory clearances required before the scheme could proceed further.

MINIMUM RATIOS UNCHANGED

RBI proposes to tighten leverage norms for banks

● G-SIB branches face additional buffer, curbs on capital payouts

FE BUREAU Mumbai, August 7

THE RESERVE BANK of India (RBI) on Friday proposed changes to the leverage ratio framework for banks, aligning domestic capital adequacy rules with the latest standards prescribed by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS).

"To ensure alignment with the latest leverage ratio framework ('leverage ratio 2017 standard') issued by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision, there is a felt need to amend these Directions," the RBI said in its draft amendment to the Prudential Norms on Capital Adequacy.

The leverage ratio, which acts as a backstop to risk-based capital requirements, is calculated by dividing a bank's Tier 1 capital by its total exposure.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

■ RBI proposes changes to banks' leverage ratio framework to align with Basel standards

■ G-SIB branches in India to maintain an additional leverage ratio buffer linked to parent bank

■ Capital distributions may be restricted for G-SIB branches that fall short of the buffer

■ RBI may temporarily exclude banks' balances with it from leverage exposure in exceptional macroeconomic circumstances

The RBI has proposed retaining the minimum ratio at 4% for domestic systemically important banks (D-SIBs) and 3.5% for other banks.

Branches of global systemically important banks (G-SIBs) operating in India, however, will be required to maintain a leverage ratio of 3.5% plus the leverage ratio buffer applicable to the parent G-SIB, including any additional buffer prescribed by its home regulator.

The RBI has also proposed restrictions on capital distributions by G-SIB branches that fail to meet their leverage ratio buffer. The extent of the restrictions will depend on both the branch's common equity Tier 1 (CET1) risk-based capital ratio and leverage ratio.

The draft also provides for a temporary exclusion of banks' balances maintained with the RBI from the leverage ratio exposure measure in exceptional macroeconomic circumstances to facilitate monetary policy. Any such exemption would be accompanied by a proportionate increase in the minimum leverage ratio requirement and disclosure of its impact.

The RBI has invited comments from stakeholders on the draft directions by August 28.

Forex kitty swells $10.5 bn, the most since January end

● RBI measures to boost stockpile, say experts

AGENCIES Mumbai, August 7

FOREX RESERVES JUMPED by $10.512 billion to $692.866 billion for the week ended July 31, the RBI said on Friday, putting them within the striking distance of their record high of $728.5 billion set in February. It was also the sharpest increase since the end of January.

Foreign reserves are expected to swell to a near-record high within weeks, driven by stronger capital inflows following a series of central bank measures, analysts said.

The overall kitty had jumped by $6.118 billion to $682.354 billion in the previous reporting week.

For the week ended July 31, foreign currency assets, a major component of the reserves, increased by $8.75 billion to $564.68 billion, the RBI bank's data showed. Expressed in dollar terms, foreign currency assets include effects of appreciation or depreciation of non-US units, such as the euro, pound, and yen, held in the foreign exchange reserves.

The value of gold reserves increased by $1.685 billion to $104.743 billion during the week, the RBI said.

SC rulings to deepen motor insurers' underwriting woes

REVERSE GEAR

■ Claims costs and underwriting losses are expected to rise

■ Insurers wonder whether the rulings will improve compliance

■ Commercial vehicles remain outside the mandate

■ Non-compliance is higher among older trucks, three-wheelers and tractors

■ Motor third party premium rates have not been revised for four years in a row

ods. "It's built through affordable pricing, honest commission structures, and genuine awareness."

According to ACKO, renewal compliance among two-wheelers after the existing five-year mandatory policy drops sharply, with only around 21% renewing in the sixth year. "Extending tenure further doesn't fix that drop-off. It simply pushes it deeper into a vehicle's life, at a point where compliance is even lower on older vehicles that are harder to track and less likely to renew," Das noted.

A senior executive at a private general insurance company said increasing the tenure of motor insurance policies without a meaningful revision in third party premium rates would only worsen insurers' loss ratios. The non-life insurance industry has been under pressure as the government has not revised Motor TP premium rates for the fourth consecutive year.

The financial impact is already visible. New India Assurance, the country's largest general insurer, reported an underwriting loss of ₹1,297.17 crore in the Motor TP segment in Q1 FY27, compared with ₹824.58 crore a year earlier.

"The Motor Third Party line of business continued to be under pressure as there was no premium increase and the claim inflation pressure is continuing," said Girija Subramanian, CMD, New India Assurance.

The concerns have also been compounded by another SC judgment last month, recognising the economic value of unpaid domestic work performed by homemakers while determining compensation under the Motor Vehicles Act.

The judgment provides for compensation under a distinct head, 'Loss of Domestic Care' based on a monthly income of ₹30,000, with periodic increases to reflect inflation and socio-economic changes. "Based on a preliminary assessment of the impact of this judgement, the Motor TP loss ratio of the industry is expected to increase in the range of 12% to 15%," said Sanjeev Mantri, MD and CEO, ICICI Lombard. Das said the longer mandatory tenure also creates pricing challenges for insurers. "No insurer anywhere in the world prices motor risk six years into the future. That isn't underwriting, it's a guess..."

CAS(h) in on it

Deeper liquidity should curb price volatility during Closing Auction Session

INTRODUCED THIS WEEK to improve closing-price discovery, the Closing Auction Session (CAS) has left the markets in a tizzy. Major changes are greeted with circumspection, but traders can be forgiven for wanting to sit this one out. Stock movements during the 20-minute window, starting at 3.15 pm, are becoming less jumpy. While the Nifty 50 rose 0.82% during CAS on Monday, the movement had narrowed to just 0.03% by Thursday. Despite Thursday being the Sensex derivatives expiry day, price movements were orderly. Even so, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) has its work cut out because traders remain reluctant to participate. Closing auctions work best in deep and liquid markets, where market-makers and arbitrageurs can narrow pricing discrepancies across the cash and derivatives segments. As Zerodha CEO Nithin Kamath has observed, the sharp movements reflect the limited liquidity and arbitrage capacity of Indian markets rather than a flaw in CAS itself.

One way to deepen participation would be to strengthen the securities lending and borrowing mechanism (SLBM), making it easier for traders to borrow shares and take short positions. In its annual report for 2025-26, Sebi has proposed revamping the framework to improve price discovery and strengthen the link between the cash and derivatives markets. The regulator acknowledges that the SLBM, introduced in 2008 and modified several times since, remains underdeveloped compared with global markets. A more robust short-selling mechanism would help counter one-way price movements and make price discovery more efficient. The surge in the Nifty during the first couple of CAS sessions — more than 200 points on one occasion — should ordinarily have attracted short-sellers. That it did not suggests the market lacks either the tools, the confidence, or both to exploit such opportunities. Several proprietary trading firms and high-frequency traders appear willing to stay away rather than risk losses in an unfamiliar and thinly traded session.

There are operational shortcomings as well. Although exchanges disseminate indicative equilibrium prices and information on order imbalances, several brokers have not displayed these data adequately to clients during CAS. Without easy access to them, traders cannot make informed calls. Sebi has reportedly asked brokers to improve the display of indicative prices and encourage wider participation. This should be treated as an urgent technology and communication issue. CAS can be useful not only for passive funds seeking to minimise tracking errors but also for active fund managers whose returns are benchmarked to indices. By basing closing prices on auction orders rather than the volume-weighted average price during the final part of continuous trading, it can also reduce the influence of aggressive last-minute trades. Closing auctions are standard practice in developed markets, and there is no reason India should not adopt one.

But global practice alone cannot guarantee domestic success. Sebi and the exchanges must ensure that participants have adequate information, surveillance remains rigorous, and the supporting infrastructure — especially stock lending and arbitrage — is strengthened. Better communication can reassure traders, but confidence will ultimately come from orderly price discovery and sufficient liquidity. Four sessions are too few to conclude that the mechanism is fundamentally flawed; Thursday's calmer trading suggests some of the initial turbulence may have reflected unfamiliarity. CAS should, therefore, not be rolled back because of a difficult first week. Nor should its teething troubles be dismissed. The mechanism will work as intended only when enough participants are willing and equipped to enter the auction.

Next innovation frontier: Building for the world

OVER THE PAST decade, India's business ecosystem has experienced a massive shift. We have built digital infrastructure, scaled consumer platforms, and adapted global business models to local needs with exceptional speed. This initial wave delivered convenience to millions while proving the depth of the domestic market. However, as we look towards our next phase of economic growth, we have an opportunity to build on what has brought us this far and shape India's path to global leadership.

For too long, our startup narrative has focused on quick digital conveniences and domestic apps — essentially innovating India for India. While that initial phase proved our ecosystem's agility, convenience alone won't build long-term economic power. To command true global influence, we must move past pilots and incremental tweaks to master the science of scale. The game-changer is building in India for the world — creating our own IP, mastering deep tech, and tackling complex global challenges with relentless industrial discipline.

The biggest opportunities on the horizon sit right where urgent national priorities meet massive global demands.

Circular economy and plastic alternatives: Sustainability is no longer a corporate side project but a core economic driver. Among the most urgent frontiers is plastic waste management and circular materials. Rising consumption patterns demand a fast, decisive pivot towards alternative biopolymers, advanced recycling technologies, and closed-loop manufacturing systems. Innovators developing bio-based synthetics, compostable packaging, and scalable waste-to-resource models are positioned not only to address a key environmental issue, but also lead a massive global market.

Deep tech and hard engineering: True tech independence takes more than great software; it means mastering physical engineering and deep tech. We have to push boundaries in AI, quantum computing, robotics, and chip design. While code and platforms gave us early momentum, long-term resilience depends on owning the underlying hardware and hard sciences. India has an incredible pool of technical talent. By directing it towards high-barrier research and original IP, Indian founders have the power to set global standards instead of just building on top of someone else's foundation.

Agri-tech and climate-resilient systems: Agriculture remains a vital pillar of our economy, yet it faces mounting pressures from climate volatility, fragmented supply chains, and resource depletion. The next frontier lies in precision farming, climate-resilient crop genetics, sensor-driven soil health monitoring, and advanced post-harvest preservation. Solutions engineered to improve yield and income for smallholder farmers in India have direct application across developing nations, opening large international markets.

Inclusive healthcare and med-tech: Delivering world-class healthcare to everyone isn't just a moral obligation but a market opportunity. The future lies in combining tech with healthcare to deliver better diagnostics, preventive care, and treatment. By building medical devices and platforms that cut costs without sacrificing outcomes, Indian entrepreneurs are positioned to lead a global shift in care delivery.

Unlocking these ambitious frontiers requires far more than funding; it calls for us to rewrite our fundamental culture across our corporate, academic, and investment ecosystems. While India has surged into the top 40 in World Intellectual Property Organization's Global Innovation Index, our total research expenditure sits at under 1% of GDP, far behind leading global innovation hubs.

True innovation cannot thrive on quick wins — it takes patient capital, strong industry-academia partnerships, and the confidence to support bold ideas that may take years to pay off. The global economy is entering an era where real ownership of technology will separate market leaders from consumers. If our entrepreneurs pair our practical engineering skills with serious scientific discipline, India will not just follow global trends — it will set them. The next innovation frontier is open, and it is time for India to build for the world.

INDIA MUST POWER THE FUTURE WITHOUT DRAINING RESOURCES; TRAINED WORKFORCE WILL BE A STRATEGIC NEED

Hungry engines of the AI age

THE GOVERNMENT OF India is positioning the country as a global hub for digital data traffic. The 2026 Union Budget has proposed a 20-year tax holiday for foreign cloud providers using India-based data centres, while domestic transactions continue to get a 15% (safe harbour) margin. Other reasons include encouraging the storing of sensitive data within national borders, and shielding critical data from foreign surveillance and third-party access.

It's fair to now expect enhanced FDI for these long-gestation infrastructure projects and lower-cost institutional capital, leading to increased electronic and electrical manufacture. Lower latency, support for 5G and IoT devices, enhanced multi-cloud set-ups, and improved streaming are other benefits that will accrue. A positive spin-off will be the creation of many direct and indirect jobs.

Google has committed $15 billion, Microsoft about $17.5 billion in artificial intelligence (AI) investments, and Amazon $35 billion over five years, towards this.

Global response: Generally, while developing digital economies have welcomed displaced compute capital, there has been widespread public resistance in the developed world to large data centre set-ups. This is because of perceived hyper-consumption of power and water, leading to scarcity, emissions, land use conflict, and price hikes for consuming utilities.

New York has imposed a temporary pause on environmental permits for large-scale data centres. Virginia's Loudoun County, considered the world's data-centre capital, is also considering a moratorium, owing to widespread pushback from residents. There have also been demonstrations to protest against data centres across the US, as perceptions become rigid.

In Chile, Santiago's environmental court is revisiting a permit granted to Google for a $200-million data centre, due to aquifer depletion concerns. Germany is enforcing its Energy Efficiency Act which requires data centre operators to source 100% energy from renewables by 2027, and server heat re-use for municipal heating systems.

ANIL NAIR

Founder, ThinkStreet

Meanwhile, West Asia is thinking like India. Abu Dhabi, for instance, is investing billions to build gigawatt-scale data centres.

Leveraging tech to mitigate side-effects: Traditional air and tower cooling consume massive volumes of water and electricity. Now, direct-to-chip cooling to CPUs and GPUs reduces cooling energy and evaporative losses. Server racks are completely submerged in synthetic fluids to drastically limit water consumption and rack noise. Closed-loop coolers ensure continuous recirculation of water.

Data centres are also adopting independent clean energy sources. Like compact nuclear reactors that can provide 100-500 Mw of zero-carbon baseload power directly. Or advanced grid-interactive lithium-ion and battery flow arrays.

AI and orbital data centres: The Indian government's original estimates put electricity demand from data centres at 13.6 Gw by 2031-32. But with new plans veering towards AI data centres, the fresh projection, presented to Parliament by the ministry of power on July 27, increases estimates to 26.3 Gw, based on consultations with utilities and data centre developers. The gap is sought to be served by renewables.

With next-generation AI agents potentially consuming up to 40,000 times more computing power per task, a report from Wood Mackenzie says that the world's largest tech companies are considering putting data centres in space. That grid connections in the US can take seven years, that gas turbine equipment delivery faces long wait times, and construction costs are rising rapidly, polarises the discussion. The economics don't justify it either, with a 1-Gw orbital data centre likely to cost $170 billion, many times a terrestrial alternative — 60% of that are launch and satellite costs. Exponential cost declines could favour a change in thinking.

Mitigating vulnerabilities: Data centres in India show a concentration risk with 65% of the capacity in Navi Mumbai, Chennai, and Hyderabad, creating transmission congestion for state distribution companies. Meanwhile, our fast expanding renewable sector is struggling, as power evacuation is deficient, relying on temporary grid connections at many places. In FY26, around 6,900-gigawatt-hours of clean energy reportedly faced such curbs.

Our dire water situation is heightened by high ambient summer temperatures, apart from municipal deficits, and states are beginning to mandate that recycled water should be used at data centre parks.

Government incentives encourage the setting up of data centre parks in secondary and tertiary cities that have headroom vis-à-vis grid density and land access.

State policies are getting better. With the classification of data centres as essential public utilities, they get single-window clearances, special FDI considerations, and protection against industrial unrest.

Job creation: During the development phase, depending on the data centre's size, hundreds of tradespeople would be employed, including specialists for high-voltage mechanical, electrical, and plumbing work, concrete and steel crews, and fiber optic and IT installers. Once live, facility engineers, cooling specialists, high-voltage power engineers, and environmental health and safety specialists are essential, apart from network and cyber operations experts, site reliability engineers, maintenance technicians, and physical security teams. Then there are those in the upstream supply chain, including ones supplying and servicing generators, transformers, chillers, server racks, subsea cables, and fiber optics. And those in downstream tech acceleration areas like SaaS firms, cloud platforms, e-commerce, and AI/ML, including startups.

Considering India's data centre growth plans, which should cross 6.5 Gw before 2030, we will need at least 100,000 specialised engineering and tech roles. Of course, the bigger job creation multiplier is allied areas across the broader economy.

India produces 1.5 million engineering graduates annually. It's time to step up — sharp, job-aligned courses and specially designed integrated data centre courses for engineers — in addition to many more focused apprenticeships, certifications, and research grants for sustainable solutions in water and power management.

For India, powering the future without straining our current resources is a prerequisite. And building gigawatt-scale infrastructure without a workforce trained to run it efficiently is a strategic risk.

A silent resolve in tax policy

SUDHIR KAPADIA

Senior Advisor, KPMG in India

THE DECADES-OLD INCOME Tax Act, 1961, was streamlined and replaced by a succinct Income Tax Act, 2026. Normally, one would expect any further changes to be a part of the next Budget. The government has also clearly spelt out the mandate for the new Act — an exercise to make the law easier to understand, rather than change the legislation significantly per se.

However, as a salutary response to the economic disruptions and challenges arising from geopolitical developments, especially the US-Iran conflict, the Centre set up an expert committee in April to recommend measures for attracting (including foreign) capital to realise the vision of Viksit Bharat. The first big-bang announcement thereafter was the removal of capital gains tax and tax on interest income of foreign investors in G-secs.

The government has introduced relaxations in other key areas to facilitate foreign investment. First, foreign companies providing capital goods, equipment, and components to contract manufacturers in India have been exempted from taxation. This has been extended from tax year 2030-31 to tax year 2040-41. Components stored in a warehouse in India for supply to the Indian contract manufacturer will also qualify for this exemption.

Also, to provide greater clarity and certainty, "specified electronic goods" will include mobile phones, laptops and tablets, servers, and sub-assemblies of these finished products. This will prevent ambiguity in the eligibility of electronic products and also provide a sufficiently long road map for foreign firms entering into arrangements with Indian contract manufacturers. This will provide much-needed tax certainty to boost the Centre's efforts to attract greater investment in electronics manufacturing.

Second, foreign companies procuring services from specified data centres in India have been exempt from taxation. To encourage investments in data centres, Budget 2026 provided for such an exemption till March 31, 2047 (which itself was a transformative intervention to offer long-term certainty to foreign investors).

However, the fine print specified a number of conditions which raised concerns about the practicality of implementing the salutary provisions. For instance, both foreign companies and the specified data centres in India had to be "notified", which raised the spectre of the dreaded "license raj" of yore. As a swift, decisive response to such concerns, the onerous conditions of "pre-notifications" have been removed.

Further, besides the condition of local ownership of data centres in India, Indian companies are eligible for exemption even if they lease out data centres. While these are welcome steps, a nagging issue is the requirement for both foreign and Indian firms to furnish prescribed information. It is hoped that the requirement will be user-friendly and minimal.

Third, unitholders in business trusts (real estate investment trusts/infrastructure investment trusts) have been exempt from tax on dividend income (received as pass-throughs from special purpose vehicles [SPVs] under such trusts). In continuation of earlier policy steps, exemption is valid regardless of whether the SPVs opt to be taxed under the old regime (higher corporate tax rate with applicable deductions) or the concessional flat rate of corporate tax (with virtually no deductions).

This is a welcome move to make post-tax investment income attractive for unitholders as well as to encourage more SPV firms to opt for the simpler corporate tax regime. The only jarring note is the avoidable increase in surcharge by 15% on SPVs' income to make the measure "revenue-neutral". The government should consider removing the additional surcharge as the overarching aim should remain a seamless transition to the new, simpler tax regime. That will lead to greater tax buoyancy without worrying about a "points-based" loss of revenue due to the dividend tax exemption.

Moreover, conditions requiring investment funds to have fund managers in India are now relaxed. Since liberalisation, the classic fund management structure adopted by PE/VC firms involved having both the fund entity and the fund management entity located outside India, even when 100% of the investments were made in Indian firms. The favourable capital gains tax treatment in treaties with countries like Singapore and Mauritius were also strong factors for such PE/VC firms to structure their funds in these jurisdictions along with the fund management entities.

However, with the amendments in tax treaties as well as the reintroduction of capital gains tax in India, the attractiveness of localising these entities in jurisdictions like Singapore and Mauritius has diminished. Despite these developments, most funds continued to have fund management companies outside India for lack of tax certainty. The offshore fund itself would not be considered as having a taxable presence in India. This was the context in which Section 9A of the (old) Income Tax Act attempted to provide tax certainty.

However, due to a plethora of conditions in the said provision, hardly any PE/VC firm chose to relocate fund management operations to India. The current amendments are the most ambitious ever attempted, as they seek to remove the number of conditions (from 13 to just five) for the funds to be eligible for such exemption from any business tax outcome in India. Hopefully, PE/VC firms will now shed their reluctance and confidently relocate their fund management operations.

The amendments are a reminder of the government's silent resolve to continue transformative reforms in tax policy and facilitate foreign investments to support India's journey to Viksit Bharat by 2047. The stakeholders must take advantage of these measures and accelerate their investments in India.

Big tech & transparency

Apropos of "The algorithm says sorry" (FE, August 7), algorithms increasingly influence what people read, watch, and discuss, yet their decisions often appear arbitrary. While automated moderation is necessary to manage online content, users deserve greater clarity when posts are removed or accounts face restrictions. Tech companies should provide specific reasons for such actions, offer accessible appeal mechanisms, and ensure timely human review in disputed cases. Independent transparency audits can improve public confidence without undermining innovation. Governments, meanwhile, should encourage accountability through balanced regulation instead of excessive control. Digital platforms earn public trust when fairness, consistency and openness become integral to their systems, not merely after public criticism. —K Sakunthala, Coimbatore

Tax reforms

Apropos of "Striking the right balance" (FE, August 7), tax incentives and concessions are essential to encourage capital investment, innovation, and long-term economic growth. However, these measures must be calibrated so that they do not erode the stability and predictability of tax revenues, which are vital for fiscal sustainability. The objective should be a wider tax base rather than excessive rates on a narrow base. Private physical investment must be encouraged to boost demand and capital formation, complemented by structural reforms that improve productivity, competitiveness, and ease of doing business. A balanced tax policy can thus support investment while securing a steady revenue flow for public investment. —NR Nagarajan, Sivakasi

● CAR REVIEW: NEW MARUTI SUZUKI BREZZA

Safe, sensible, and still the SUV next door

NEW TURBO POWER AND UNDER-BOOT CNG STORAGE KEEP THE BREZZA PRACTICAL

VIKRAM CHAUDHARY

NOTHING TESTS A car's ride & handling like a sudden monsoon downpour over Delhi's broken roads. Underwater potholes test the suspension, wet roads test the braking, and slush tests cornering. But even in these demanding conditions, the updated Maruti Suzuki Brezza performed well — it held its line, didn't skid under heavy braking, and its good steering feedback made me feel firmly in control of the car.

How's the design?

The Brezza — a sub-4-metre SUV — got design and engine updates last month, but the facelift is subtle. Park it next to the 2022 model, and your neighbour/friend won't notice the difference unless you point out. But this subtleness is precisely why the Brezza works — it has that 'SUV-next-door' design that people who don't like flashy cars can relate to.

Step inside, and you'll see the cabin is not opulent, but functional. The touchscreen and primary controls are within easy reach, complemented by a head-up display on top trims that keeps driving data in your line of sight. Cabin cooling is a strong point, with the AC rapidly chilling the interior in the almost 100% humidity. Legroom and headroom are generous, accompanied by a lot of cubbyholes.

What about engines?

The biggest update is the inclusion of the powerful 1.0-litre turbo-petrol engine with a 6-speed manual gearbox (₹7.4-11.31 lakh). It has good acceleration, and doesn't seem to run out of steam even when hitting 120 km/h on the expressway.

If you want CNG (₹9.3-11.65 lakh), a major update is the cylinder has been packaged under the boot floor, freeing up luggage space.

But more could have been done. The turbo could have had an automatic gearbox option (like in the Fronx). If you want automatic, then you have to go to 1.5-litre petrol variant, which while bigger in size, doesn't have the punch of the turbo.

The 1.5 manual variants are priced from ₹8.3-10.65 lakh, and automatic from ₹10.61-13.7 lakh — and the gap between manual and automatic is a hefty ₹1.35 lakh.

Even top variants don't have features like ADAS, powered seats, automatic rain-sensing wipers, and a spare tyre (but a puncture-repair kit and jack are provided).

Which engine to choose?

1.0-litre turbo-petrol: If you want punchy performance, overtaking power, and a manual gearbox, it is the most engaging engine.

1.5-litre CNG: If low running costs are your priority and you drive a lot (12,000 km per year). Thanks to the under-floor tank, you no longer have to compromise on boot space.

1.5-litre petrol: If you want relaxed, linear power delivery, or if an automatic transmission is a non-negotiable requirement for crawling through city traffic.

Best variants to buy

LXi/VXi turbo: Priced under ₹10 lakh, the lower-to-mid turbo trims are absolute value-for-money.

VXi CNG: At ₹10 lakh, it has many comfort features (automatic climate control, touchscreen infotainment system, and rear AC vents) without stretching your budget.

ZXi 1.5 petrol (AT or MT): The ZXi trim has high-value features like the sunroof, LED headlamps, and wireless charger, justifying the step up from the base models.

● H1CY26 CAR SALES BY FUEL TYPE

How is India driving its new cars this year

CNG SURGED, DIESEL WAS STABLE, PETROL STAYED

VIKRAM CHAUDHARY

THE FIRST HALF of calendar year 2026 has shown that Indian car buyers are no longer default petrol lovers, nor are they waiting for electric vehicles. Instead, H1CY26 was defined by an interest for all powertrains. Compressed natural gas (CNG) has shifted from being the primary choice of taxicab operators to a major choice for family buyers; SUVs have swept nearly two-thirds of total car sales; and traditional internal combustion engines (petrol and diesel) have realigned along body styles.

Factory-fitted CNG

A big headline for H1CY26 is the rise of factory-fitted CNG. What was once only a choice of taxicab operators has become the default choice for middle-class Indian families. Maruti Suzuki's Ertiga maintained its lead as India's best-selling CNG vehicle, having sold 78,764 units in six months. It was closely followed by the Dzire CNG, which posted strong momentum to reach 75,339 units, proving that urban buyers are embracing gas-powered efficiency.

But the CNG movement is no longer confined to MPVs and compact sedans. Tata Motors demonstrated the growing appetite for feature-packed CNG SUVs, with the Punch CNG (41,919 units) and Nexon CNG (41,355 units) collectively almost touching the 85,000-unit threshold. Coupled with new SUVs like Maruti Suzuki's Victoris CNG (38,806 units), alternative gas powertrains captured a large share of car sales, proving that low running costs are a big draw for Indian families.

Diesel and SUVs

Meanwhile, sports utility vehicles (SUVs) continued their reign over the market, accounting for 57% of all car sales. While petrol remains the default fuel of choice for compact hatchbacks and daily urban commuters, diesel is the fuel of choice for cars in the higher price brackets, and especially SUVs like Toyota's Fortuner.

In fact, diesel sales grew by 15% in H1CY26, and this growth was driven almost entirely by mid-to-large SUVs, where long-distance torque, heavy-vehicle haulage, and highway efficiency remain unmatched by petrol/CNG/electric powertrains. Mahindra commanded an impressive 57% of the total diesel car sales volume, propelled by huge demand for its flagship ladder-frame and monocoque SUVs, led by the Scorpio-N. Simultaneously, Tata Motors' Harrier and Sierra kept the diesel relevant for long-distance touring enthusiasts.

Luxury car sales

At the top end of the car spectrum, luxury carmakers enjoyed sustained momentum despite broader macroeconomic headwinds,

ENGINE REALIGNMENT

- CNG fuel has transitioned from fleet necessity into a dominant middle-class family choice
- Feature-packed compact SUVs have expanded CNG appeal far beyond traditional sedans
- SUVs captured 57% of total sales, reshaping nationwide fuel consumption trends
- Diesel car sales surged 15%, anchored by mid-to-large SUV torque requirements
- Mahindra commanded 57% of total diesel volume through flagship SUV demand, and Mercedes-Benz posted record H1 sales, highlighting strong top-end luxury appetite proving that premium sentiment remains resilient. The market was led by Mercedes-Benz India, which reported its best-ever first-half sales performance with 9,768 units retailed between January and June 2026. BMW India followed right behind, confirming that India's high-net-worth buyers continue to trade up for luxury, power, and prestige.

Go for dynamic bond funds to balance your risks & returns

REMAIN INVESTED IN THESE FUNDS WITHOUT WORRYING ABOUT RATE CYCLES

SAIKAT NEOGI

AS THE RESERVE Bank of India has retained its neutral policy stance, investors should take a balanced approach for fixed income.

For short-term investments, look at money market and liquid funds. And for the long term, consider target maturity funds. If you cannot decide on the allocation yourself, go for dynamic bond funds.

Fund managers call it a barbell approach — allocating to short-term and long-term bonds while avoiding medium-term maturities. "A barbell strategy could be beneficial for investors as they can take advantage of the steepness in the curve which has currently happened in anticipation of foreign currency non-resident flows," says Sandeep Yadav, head, Fixed Income, DSP Mutual Fund.

Dynamic bond funds

Dynamic bond funds offer a balance between risks and returns. Fund managers actively take a view on the future direction of interest rates and bond yields and invest across duration — short term, medium term and long term — depending on what their view is on the interest rates.

Investors can remain invested in these funds for a longer period without worrying about the interest rate cycles. In fact, over a longer time frame of 4-5 years, these funds can generate higher returns than other thematic debt funds.

Sneha Pandey, fund manager,

Fixed Income, Quantum AMC, says a dynamic bond fund effectively does the barbell work inside the portfolio by dynamically moving between shorter and longer duration as conditions change, without requiring the investor to time two separate allocations and rebalance between them. "It is the same philosophy, minus the execution burden on the investor and is tax-efficient as well," she says.

Money market funds

Money market funds can help in capital preservation and liquidity in the short term. These funds invest in high-quality, short-duration instruments like treasury bills, commercial papers, and certificates of deposit. These funds offer T+1 liquidity, making them a better option than locking money in a fixed deposit

"Investors can look at short-duration and money market funds of up to one year maturity as the current yields in that segment are trading at attractive valuations given the expected increase in banking sector liquidity and a potential delay in rate hikes," says Puneet Pal, head, Fixed Income, PGIM India Mutual Fund.

Target maturity funds

Individuals who have a long-term horizon should consider target maturity funds as they have an average maturity ranging from one to 10 years. These funds invest in government securities, bonds of public sector companies and state development loans and hold them till maturity. The smart move is to pick a fund whose maturity lines up as closely as possible with when you will actually need the money.

"If you are looking at a genuinely long-term horizon, target maturity funds with mostly AAA public sector exposure make a lot of sense as the core of your fixed income portfolio," says Sonam Srivastava, founder, Wright Research PMS.

The AAA-rated public sector bonds offer a spread of 50 to 70 basis points over similar government securities, and the credit risk is negligible in practice, since issuers like Rural Electrification Corporation, National Highways Authority of India have that implicit sovereign backing. That extra spread is real money you collect every year for a risk that, in this segment, has almost never shown up.

● YOUR QUERIES: LOANS

Part pre-payment of study loan attracts no penalty

- I had taken an education loan for my daughter last year. Do I have to pay any penalty to repay the loan amount now as I have got some money?
—Amaya S Kumar
There is no penalty for part pre-payment of the education loan. However, do check the fine print in the loan sanction letter of arrangement to make sure.
- I am looking for a loan for two years. Should I look at a personal loan or take a loan against property?
—Ajay Gupta
If the quantum is large, then go for a loan against property as the interest rate will be lower. However, if the loan amount is significantly lower than the property's value, then a personal loan is recommended.
- Is it mandatory to show all bills and receipts in case I take a loan for home renovation work?
—Amit Singh
Ideally, yes. The home renovation loan is a specific loan for a particular use. These loans are also cheaper than a personal loan, hence the availed funds should be utilised for the specific purpose.
- My home loan interest rate is 9% and a couple of banks are offering 7% on balance transfer. Should I go ahead?
—Meddhansh Srivastava
Yes, a lowering of interest will be beneficial at this point. Please initiate the balance transfer process. Once your existing lender realises that your business is migrating, they may themselves offer to lower the interest rate on your home loan.
- While I had repaid my home loan six months ago, CIBIL still shows it is outstanding. How do I escalate the matter?

—Sumit Panwar

Once the home loan is repaid, you need to get a no dues certificate. Also, all the original property papers need to be given back to you. Write to your lender, attaching proof that it is not updated.

● If the builder takes a loan from some other lender, do I need to take a NOC to process my bank loan papers?

—Vinit Sangwan

Ideally, the loan by the builder is to be paid off before they can start selling the units of the property. It is recommended to get a title search report before parting with your money to the builder. In case the title is not clear and there is a mortgage outstanding, then legally the builder has no right to sell any part of the construction. In case the builder's loan is paid fully, the NOC from the lender will form part of the sale agreement.

THAI TEENAGER KILLS 7 AT HOME AND SCHOOL

A TEENAGE THAI student killed at least five people and himself at a school outside Bangkok on Friday after fatally shooting his grandparents, police said, in the Southeast Asian nation's worst mass killing in nearly four years. Those killed at the Debsirin Nonthaburi School were all teachers and staff, and police said the 14-year-old shooter fired at least 26 bullets using a gun that belonged to his grandfather. Police said 23 people were wounded in the incident, the latest in a succession of mass shootings in recent years in Thailand. It is the second school shooting in Thailand this year after a teacher died and a student was injured in the south of the country in February. "This is terrible for something like this to happen," Prime Minister Anutin Charnvirakul told reporters. "I am sad for those who died and sad for something like this to happen in our country."

PACT SAYS ATTACK ON ANY ONE WOULD COUNT AS AN ATTACK ON ALL

Pakistan, Saudi, Turkey pledge mutual defence

● Deal signed at Al-Safa Palace in Mecca

PTI Islamabad, August 7

PAKISTAN, SAUDI ARABIA and Turkey on Friday signed a joint defence agreement under which an attack against anyone of the three countries will be regarded as an attack against them all, amid escalating tensions in West Asia. Pakistan Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif, Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman and Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan signed the 'Makkah Joint Defence Agreement' during a meeting at Al-Safa Palace in Mecca, according to a joint statement. The agreement, signed during the Makkah Al-Mukarramah Summit for joint defence, is "intended to strengthen collective deterrence against any act of aggression, and stipulates that any armed attack against any one of the three States shall be regarded as an attack against them all," it added.

It further provides for the "enhancement of all aspects of defence cooperation among the three States," the statement said. The development comes at a time when the West Asia conflict has widened across multiple fronts, including the Red Sea and the Bab al-Mandeb Strait, prompting Gulf states to strengthen regional security coordination. Fourteen countries, including Pakistan, expressed support for the initiative, underscoring growing concerns over the security of one of the world's most vital maritime corridors, as per reports.

Iran deal 'moving along': Trump

BLOOMBERG August 7

IRANIAN LAWMAKERS ARE debating the wording of a proposed deal with Oman on the Strait of Hormuz, with US President Donald Trump insisting an agreement is getting closer. Trump said the talks are "moving along" and gave no additional comment when asked about progress by White House reporters late Thursday. Iran's Deputy Foreign Minister Kazem Gharibabadi said earlier this week that an understanding with Oman had been reached "in principle," and state TV cited one lawmaker on Friday as saying the final text and details of an agreement with Muscat will be announced "soon."

Some Iranian politicians are pushing for clauses such as a ban on US and Israeli ships from the waterway, the semi-official Fars news agency reported, a condition that would defy Washington's demand for free passage despite a lack of US- or Israeli-flagged commercial ships globally.

Other modifications reported by Fars include an Iranian demand for compensation from "hostile countries," a proposed ban on cargo related to Israel, and a fee structure covering services like insurance and environmental costs.

It's also unclear whether Iran's Supreme Leader Mojtaba Khamenei has given his assent to the proposal, a condition for it to go ahead. Iranian officials have said that communicating with him takes time.

A deal on the management of the strait has become key to expectations for a further pick up in energy flows, which have continued despite recent outbreaks of hostilities, albeit at lower levels than before the US and Israel attacked Iran at the end of February. A reopening of the crucial chokepoint would also likely pave the way for a return to broader negotiations between the US and Iran to end the war.

Fars said late Thursday that Iranian naval forces had struck "hostile targets" at the entrance to the strait, citing an unnamed source, an indication that tensions remain high.

Trump sets 15% tariff on chip items to counter China

NICHOLA GROOM & ALEXANDRA ALPER Washington, August 7

THE WHITE HOUSE on Thursday imposed a series of price floors and a 15% tariff on products made from polysilicon, the raw material used in semiconductors and solar panels that is primarily produced by China. US President Donald Trump's proclamation under Section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 is aimed at supporting domestic chip and solar supply chains needed to compete with Beijing on artificial intelligence and energy.

"The plan of action in this proclamation will help ensure the commercial viability of US production of polysilicon and its derivatives that is necessary to meet US economic and national security needs," the order said.

Polysilicon, an ultra-pure form of silicon, sits at the start of the semiconductor and solar manufacturing supply chains. Manufacturers turn silicon wafers into solar cells and then assemble those into panels used in solar projects.

Domestic semiconductor manufacturing depends on solar because the solar industry's larger demand for polysilicon helps support production of the material required for chips. The chip industry accounts for 2.4% of global polysilicon demand, according to the Semiconductor Industry Association.

...signs orders to limit birth right citizenship

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump signed two executive orders on Thursday in a new but narrower attempt to curtail birthright citizenship, once again challenging a provision of the US Constitution even though the Supreme Court rejected his previous effort.

Limiting birthright citizenship has been one of the top priorities in the Republican president's crackdown on immigration, with the White House taking particular aim at what it calls "birth tourism," in which pregnant foreigners travel to the US to give birth.

After his June 30 setback in the Supreme Court, Trump called on Congress to act, but on Thursday he opted for executive orders, which set policy but do not carry the same weight as laws passed by Congress. The Supreme Court had struck down as unconstitutional Trump's earlier order, which targeted a wide swath of immigrants in the country illegally or temporarily. The administration argues the new directive falls outside the purview of the SC ruling, as it seeks to reinterpret the narrow, historical exceptions to citizenship at birth and expand who is ineligible. "That practice of birth tourism is, as of the signing of this order, hereby banned," White House aide Stephen Miller said in the Oval Office.

SK Hynix to spend $38 bn on expansion of chip plants

SK HYNIX plans a 54 trillion won ($38 billion) expansion of its chipmaking facilities in South Korea, adding to efforts to rapidly double its production capacity and ease a global shortage of memory chips.

The world's second-largest memory maker will build a new DRAM manufacturing facility in Yongin and a NAND fabrication plant in Cheongju, it said. The move, covering both dynamic memory for the lowest latency and solid-state storage for fast access to greater quantities of data, is in response to "the continuously growing demand for memory in the AI era," SK Hynix said.

AI demand boosts China's exports

CHINA'S EXPORTS BEAT expectations in July, remaining a key driver of economic growth as global AI infrastructure boom fuelled demand for high-tech goods and exporters rushed shipments ahead of higher tariffs. The manufacturing powerhouse has been relying on external demand to sustain growth amid tepid domestic consumption, but that reliance also exposes risks, as trading partners may step up protectionism in an uncertain global environment due to war.

'India has a great storytelling culture, but under screened...'

ONE OF THEIR current top shows is the reality series, Lock Up. Sarandos said he wants to give the audiences "everything they may want to watch". "We want to be classy and massy," he said.

India has had some of its biggest national and international recognitions with Netflix productions, including The Elephant Whisperers, which became the first India-produced film to win the Academy Award for Best Documentary Short film in 2023; and Emmy wins for Delhi Crime Season 1 and Vir Das: Landing in 2020 and 2023, respectively, among several other nominations.

"We have had an Indian movie or series in the global Top 10 every week since 2024. We have 3.5 billion hours of watching Indian content on Netflix around the world this year," Sarandos said.

Although, for Sarandos, who joined Netflix in 2000 and became its co-CEO in 2020, the success of the platform lies more in "informed intuition" rather than just "data".

"There's no data in the world that could tell you to make this and don't make that. Data only tells you what worked before. The audience is always looking to be surprised... that generally doesn't come in some formula and you definitely can't reverse engineer into it. We have access to data, yes, but if anybody made big, creative decisions based only on data, that would be a fool's errand," he said.

Sarandos is also keen on embracing AI, but with caution. "It is a great opportunity to tell bigger, better stories, but they have to be better; even better if it's a little bit faster, cheaper," he said.

To that end, Netflix acquired InterPositive, an AI-powered filmmaking technology, for $587 million in March this year, to integrate its post-production editing process -- when post editing, parts of the narrative may feel missing and require the crew to regroup and reshoot.

"As much as 20 per cent of the entire budget is spent doing pickups and reshoots. InterPositive enables a filmmaker using just the data of the film that they made and do that quick pickup shot in AI as almost like a visual effect," Sarandos said, noting that he has noticed an "aggressive" use of AI by Indian creators.

"Glory is one of the 300 Netflix productions worldwide that used AI tools to help the production along. We do things like pre-visualisation. It gives the director the opportunity to lay out and design a complicated or sometimes a dangerous shot to make sure you can film it faster or safer, which is helpful. We also use it a lot for post-production and VFX."

Now, Netflix plans to invest more in India, which has been both "unpredictable" and "successful". "When I look at the rate of acceleration in the last five of the 10 years, it's unbelievable the opportunity that's coming to us and to India," Sarandos said, adding, "India has no shortage of great stories. We have to invest in skilling programs to be able to make sure that the talented crews are here to make projects we're excited to be thinking about in the next 10 years to come."

SBI net profit rises 10% in first quarter

"WE ALSO HAVE very significant liquidity on our balance sheet. As on June, 30, we had an excess SLR of ₹3.06 lakh crore. Along with FCNR (B) flows we have excess SLR of ₹4 lakh crore," he added.

The state-owned lender's loan book grew 18.63% y-o-y to ₹50.47 lakh crore, as corporates borrowed more working capital. The bank's retail credit portfolio, including gold loans, also grew through the auto segment posted high single-digit growth.

Domestic NIM expanded 7 bps to 3% from the preceding March quarter, but fell by 1 bps from the year-ago period. The bank is sticking to its full-fiscal guidance of a 3% NIM for domestic operations, he said.

Asset quality improved further, with gross NPAs declining to 1.47% of total advances from 1.49% in the previous quarter and 1.83% a year ago. Net NPA stood at 0.38% as on June 30, 2026, down 1 bps from the previous quarter and 9 bps from a year earlier. Slippages stood at ₹7,046 crore during the June quarter compared to ₹5,521 crore in the preceding quarter and ₹7,945 crore a year ago.

"Of the ₹7,000 crore of fresh slippage we have pulled back almost ₹1,500 crore. So there's no concern in any of these gross NPA accounts," Setty said. The bank's PCR was at 74.20% as on 30 June. The PCR including written off assets was at 91.82%.

SBI is targeting special

FCNR(B) deposits of about $10 billion. "We may see a small uptick in deposit growth due to the FCNR(B) inflows," the chairman added. So far, the bank has mobilised $7.3 billion under the special swap window of RBI.

The bank's corporate loans grew faster than retail credit in the June quarter. "We will continue to see good growth from the corporate segment with 16% of the growth coming from working capital and 21% of the book coming from term loans," SBI Managing Director Ashwini Kumar Tewari said.

Corporate loans in the quarter were up 18.05% to ₹14.21 lakh crore and comprised 33.2% share in the total asset mix. The retail personal portfolio grew 15.15% to ₹17.73 lakh crore while SME was up 22.33% to ₹6.46 lakh crore and agri was at ₹4.37 lakh crore, up 25.43%. The RAM (retail, agri and MSME) portfolio share was at 66.78% as on 30 June 2026.

On the deposit front, SBI posted a 9.73% growth to ₹60.06 lakh crore. Domestic deposits grew 9.64% y-o-y to ₹57.61 lakh crore. The share of low-cost CASA deposits was 39.24%.

SBI has become the first bank in the country to cross ₹110 lakh crore in its total business, with deposits exceeding ₹60 lakh crore and advances crossing ₹50 lakh crore, marking a new milestone for the country's largest lender.

Adani partnership

Embraer has already announced a tie-up with the Adani Group to build aircraft in India. The Brazilian firm also inaugurated its India office in New Delhi last October. Separately, Embraer is in talks with Star Air, over the purchase of as many as 20 aircraft for about $1 billion, Bloomberg News has previously reported.

IndiGo's fleet stood at 441 planes, including 46 ATR regional turboprops, according to company data. The airline still has 900 aircraft slated for delivery over the next decade and has ordered most of its planes from Airbus, making an Embraer order a significant shift.
