IN MAKING AN INVESTMENT DECISION, POTENTIAL INVESTORS MUST RELY ONLY ON THE INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THE RED HERRING PROSPECTUS AND THE TERMS OF THE ISSUE, INCLUDING THE RISKS INVOLVED AND NOT RELY ON ANY OTHER EXTERNAL SOURCES OF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ISSUE AVAILABLE IN ANY MANNER. IN RELATION TO PRICE BAND, POTENTIAL INVESTORS SHOULD ONLY REFER TO THE PRE-ISSUE AND PRICE BAND ADVERTISEMENT DATED OCTOBER 14, 2026, AND SHOULD NOT RELY ON ANY MEDIA ARTICLES / REPORTS IN RELATION TO THE COMPANY AS THESE ARE NOT ENDORSED, PUBLISHED OR CONFIRMED EITHER BY THE COMPANY OR THE BOOK RUNNING LEAD MANAGERS TO THE ISSUE ("BRLMs").

In accordance with the recommendations of the Committee of Independent Directors of our Company, pursuant to their resolution dated October 14, 2026, the above Price Band is justified based on quantitative factors /KPIs disclosed in the 'Basis for Issue Price' section on page 126 of the RHP vis-à-vis the weighted average cost of acquisition ("WACA") of primary issuances / secondary transactions as disclosed in 'Basis for Issue Price' section on page 126 of the RHP and provided below in the advertisement and other relevant factors.

RISK TO INVESTORS

For details refer to the section titled "Risk Factors" section on page 30 of the RHP.

1. Risk relating to telecommunication license and spectrum: The unified licence for providing telecom services held by Reliance Jio Infocomm Limited ("RJIL") across circles in India is due for renewal in October 2033. Further, the spectrum held by RJIL is valid for a period of 20 years with the majority of the spectrum expiring between 2041 and 2042. Any inability to maintain or renew such licences or to successfully bid for any spectrum required for our operations, could have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

2. Dependence on Reliance Industries Limited, Reliance Retail Limited and other Reliance Group entities: The Company and its subsidiaries have entered into various non-exclusive agreements with the Promoter, Reliance Retail Limited, a subsidiary of the Promoter and other Reliance Group entities for certain key aspects of the business. Disruption of these arrangements could significantly impact our business, financial condition and results of operations. The following table provides an overview of our significant transactions with the Promoter, Reliance Retail Limited and Sanmina-SCI India Private Limited, for the periods/Fiscals indicated.

Notes:

(1) Parent, in this table, means the Promoter.

(2) Recharge vouchers sold to Reliance Retail Limited are accounted as 'Advance against services' which is disclosed as a related party transaction under the head 'Revenue received in advance'. When Reliance Retail Limited or its distributor/ sub-distributor further sells the vouchers to our customers by way of recharge to the digital connectivity services, RJIL recognises such transfer as 'Deferred revenue' and thereafter, based on the type of tariff plan, it is accounted as operating revenues in the profit & loss account. In light of the above, revenue received in advance has not been presented as a percentage of revenue from operations.

(3) Cash Capex refers to the cash outflow towards expenditure for property, plant and equipment, spectrum and other intangible assets less proceeds from disposal of property, plant and equipment and other intangible assets.

3. Dependency on Reliance Retail Limited for distribution of prepaid connectivity services: RJIL has a master distribution agreement and a master collection agreement with RRL. RRL is the sole distributor of our pre-paid connectivity services. Our revenue from pre-paid connectivity services constituted 76.37%, 77.88%, 77.08%, 78.57% and 79.35% of our consolidated Revenue from Operations for the three months period ended June 30, 2026, June 30, 2025 and Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Any disruption in this relationship or distribution channel could adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations. The following table provides the details of the Revenue Received in Advance attributed to the above arrangement with RRL:

Particulars	Three months ended / As of June 30		Fiscal / As of March 31
	2026	2025	2026	2025	2024
	(in ₹ millions)
Revenue Received in Advance	292,480	271,663	1,129,351	1,023,958	890,587

4. Dependency on RJIL that contributes significantly to our Revenue from Operations, EBITDA and PAT and KPIs relating to digital connectivity services: RJIL contributed significantly to our Revenue from Operations, EBITDA and PAT in periods / Fiscals as indicated below:

Fiscals / period	RJIL's revenue from operations (in ₹ million)	% of our consolidated Revenue from Operations	RJIL's EBITDA (in ₹ million)	% of our consolidated EBITDA	RJIL's profit after tax (in ₹ million)	% of our consolidated PAT
Three months ended June 30, 2026	342,121	87.34%	195,904	93.89%	71,669	92.31%
Three months ended June 30, 2025	308,821	88.15%	173,013	95.40%	67,110	94.39%
Fiscal 2026	1,288,714	87.74%	723,544	94.88%	281,732	93.76%
Fiscal 2025	1,141,413	89.02%	612,334	95.42%	247,948	94.97%
Fiscal 2024	1,001,194	91.38%	528,784	96.21%	204,656	95.53%

Note: The financial information of RJIL provided above is on a standalone basis.

Any material adverse impact on the business, financial conditions or results of operations of RJIL would have a corresponding material adverse impact on our consolidated business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, while we operate as a technology platform, our key operational indicators ("KPIs") are primarily pertaining to our digital connectivity services provided by RJIL and do not reflect the technology platform specific metrics. Our competitors may perform more favourably on certain operational or financial KPIs, which could affect our competitive position. For details of comparison of the KPIs of our Company with listed peers, see "Basis for Issue Price - Comparison of KPIs with Listed Industry Peers" on page 135 of the RHP.

5. Network, Infrastructure and Service Disruption Risk: The uninterrupted performance, reliability and availability of our network, passive infrastructure, technology, products and services are critical to our operations and our ability to consistently deliver our digital services. Any disruption to our network, passive infrastructure and technology could impair our ability to ensure consistent performance and deliver uninterrupted customer experience, which could have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations, and could lead to increased churn in our customer base.
6. Risk related to Technology change: The connectivity industry is subject to rapid and continuous technological change, and our connectivity infrastructure faces the risk of technological obsolescence. If we are unable to respond to changes in technologies, including for instance, more competitive satellite-based broadband services and the evolving demands of our customers, we may face technological obsolescence, which would have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.
7. Risk relating to negative publicity of 'Jio' Brand: The "Jio" trademark is owned by the Promoter, and we do not control the use of this trademark by other companies in the Reliance Group. Negative publicity arising from actions outside its control, inability to protect intellectual property or infringement claims could have a material adverse impact on our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.
8. Dependency on a limited group of passive infrastructure service providers: We rely on a limited set of passive infrastructure service providers for our operations. For instance, of the 360,537 Network Towers used by us for our operations, 174,451 Network Towers are owned by Summit Digitel Infrastructure Limited, as of June 30, 2026. Additionally, as of June 30, 2026, we rely on Jio Digital Fibre Private Limited, for substantially all our optic fibre network requirements (approximately 98%), aside from the last mile fibre network which is owned by RJIL. Any disruption in the availability of these passive infrastructure assets could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operations.
9. Cybersecurity, Data Privacy and Information Security Risk: Our systems, platforms, network infrastructure, and the services provided by our Promoter and third-party technology partners are exposed to cybersecurity threats, security breaches, operational disruptions, and other technology-related risks. Any such incident or disruption could impair our operations, compromise data security, increase costs, expose us to regulatory and legal liabilities, and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition, and reputation.
10. Artificial Intelligence ("AI") and Machine Learning ("ML") Technologies Related Risk: We rely on AI and ML technologies across our operations, including for network automation through our proprietary JioBrain platform, customer engagement and service delivery. The deployment of AI and ML technologies across our operations may not yield the desired results. Further, reliance on AI/ML technologies may expose us to inherent risks pertaining to algorithmic bias and model errors leading to inaccurate or biased outputs, which may cause reputational harm and adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.
11. Our Price/Earning (P/E) ratio based on diluted EPS for Financial Year 2026 at the upper end of the price band is 33.31 as compared to the average industry peer group P/E ratio of 22.35, as of October 13, 2026.
12. Weighted Average Return on Average Net Worth for Financial Year ended 2026, 2025 and 2024 is 9.04%. Return on Average Net Worth for the three months ended June 30, 2026, and June 30, 2025 is 2.30% and 2.31% respectively (unannualized).
13. Weighted average cost of acquisition of all Equity Shares transacted in one year, 18 months and three years preceding the date of the RHP:

Period	Weighted average cost of Acquisition (in ₹)	Cap Price is 'X' times the weighted average cost of acquisition#	Range of acquisition price per Equity Shares: lowest price - highest price (in ₹)
Last one year / 18 months/ 3 years	N.A.	N.A.	N.A.

#As certified by D T S & Associates LLP, Chartered Accountants (FRN 142412W/W100595), by way of their certificate dated October 14, 2026, (UDIN 26136433YFEPPE7981).

Note: No Equity Shares were transacted in the last one year, 18 months and three years preceding the date of the Red Herring Prospectus.

Any revision in the Price Band and the revised Bid/ Issue Period, if applicable, shall be widely disseminated by notification to the Stock Exchanges, by issuing a public notice, and also by indicating the change on the respective websites of the BRLMs and at the terminals of the Syndicate Members and by intimation to the Self-Certified Syndicate Banks ("SCSBs"), other Designated Intermediaries and the Sponsor Bank(s), as applicable. However, in case of revision in the Price Band, the Bid Lot shall remain the same.

The Issue is being made through the Book Building Process, in terms of Rule 19(2)(b) of the SCRR read with Regulation 31 of the SEBI ICDR Regulations and in compliance with Regulation 6(1) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations, wherein not more than 50% of the Net Issue shall be allocated on a proportionate basis to Qualified Institutional Buyers ("QIBs") ("QIB Portion"), provided that our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers may allocate up to 60% of the QIB Portion to Anchor Investors on a discretionary basis in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations ("Anchor Investor Portion"), and 40% of such Anchor Investor Portion shall be reserved as under: (i) 33.33% for domestic Mutual Funds, and (ii) 6.67% for Life Insurance Companies and Pension Funds, subject to valid Bids being received from domestic Mutual Funds, Life Insurance Companies and Pension Funds at or above the Anchor Investor Allocation Price. In the event of under-subscription, or non-allocation in the Anchor Investor Portion, the balance Equity Shares shall be added to the QIB Portion ("Net QIB Portion"). Further, 5% of the Net QIB Portion shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis only to Mutual Funds, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Issue Price, and the remainder of the Net QIB Portion shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis to all QIBs, including Mutual Funds subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Issue Price. However, if the aggregate demand from Mutual Funds is less than 5% of the Net QIB Portion, the balance Equity Shares available for allocation in the Mutual Fund Portion will be added to the remaining Net QIB Portion for proportionate allocation to all QIBs. Further, not less than 15% of the Net Issue shall be available for allocation to Non- Institutional Bidders and not less than 35% of the Net Issue shall be available for allocation to Retail Individual Bidders ("RIBs") in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Issue Price. One-third of the Non-Institutional Portion shall be available for allocation to Non-Institutional Bidders with a Bid size of more than ₹ 200,000 and up to ₹ 1,000,000 and two-thirds of the Non-Institutional Portion shall be available for allocation to Non-Institutional Bidders with a Bid size of more than ₹ 1,000,000 provided that under-subscription in either of these two sub-categories of the Non-Institutional Portion may be allocated to Non-Institutional Bidders in the other sub-category of Non-Institutional Portion in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Issue Price. Further, Equity Shares will be allocated on a proportionate basis to Eligible Employees Bidding in the Employee Reservation Portion, and Eligible Shareholders Bidding in the RIL Shareholders Reservation Portion subject to valid Bids received from them at or above the Issue Price. All potential Bidders (except Anchor Investors) are mandatorily required to participate in the Issue through the Application Supported by Blocked Amount ("ASBA") process by providing details of their respective ASBA accounts and UPI ID in case of UPI Bidders, as applicable, pursuant to which their corresponding Bid Amount will be blocked by the Self Certified Syndicate Banks ("SCSBs") or by the Sponsor Bank(s) under the UPI Mechanism, as the case may be, to the extent of the respective Bid Amounts. Anchor Investors are not permitted to participate in the Issue through the ASBA process. For details, see "Issue Procedure" beginning on page 534 of the RHP.

Bidders/ Applicants should ensure that DP ID, PAN, Client ID and UPI ID (for UPI Bidders bidding through the UPI Mechanism) are correctly filled in the Bid cum Application Form. The DP ID, PAN and Client ID provided in the Bid cum Application Form should match with the DP ID, PAN, Client ID available in the Depository database, otherwise, the Bid cum Application Form is liable to be rejected. Bidders/ Applicants should ensure that the beneficiary account provided in the Bid cum Application Form is active. Bidders/Applicants should note that on the basis of the PAN, DP ID, Client ID and UPI ID (for UPI Bidders bidding through the UPI Mechanism) as provided in the Bid cum Application Form, the Bidder/Applicant may be deemed to have authorised the Depositories to provide to the Registrar to the Issue, any requested Demographic Details of the Bidder/Applicant as available on the records of the depositories. These Demographic Details may be used, among other things, for giving Allotment Advice or unblocking of ASBA Account or for other correspondence(s) related to the Issue. Bidders/Applicants are advised to update any changes to their Demographic Details as available in the records of the Depository Participant to ensure accuracy of records. Any delay resulting from failure to update the Demographic Details would be at the Bidders'/Applicants' sole risk. Investors must ensure that their PAN is linked with Aadhaar and are in compliance with the CBDT notification dated February 13, 2020 and press release dated June 25, 2021, read with press release dated September 17, 2021 and CBDT circular no.7 of 2022, dated March 30, 2022 read with press release dated March 28, 2023 and any subsequent press releases in this regard.

TARIFFS AND VISA CURBS NOT TARGETED AT INDIA

Trade deal just weeks away from finalising, says Rubio

SHUBHAJIT ROY
Mumbai, October 20

SIGNALLING AN OUTREACH towards India and seeking to assuage concerns, visiting US Secretary of State Marco Rubio on Tuesday said the tariffs are not meant to "punish India" and the visa restrictions are "not targeted" at the country.

In an interview with The Indian Express, Rubio said the India-US trade deal is "incredibly close". Both countries have been holding negotiations for over a year-and-a-half now.

"I think we're incredibly close. The way I would say it is, we are weeks, not months, away from, I think, finalising it. I think 99% of the work is done. The remaining factor, you have to have 100% done. But I feel very positive of the trajectory that it's on," he said. "I don't want to get into the details of the sticking points. I can simply tell you that it's there. I won't call them technicalities, but it's language related. It's basically down to what certain words mean and what certain phrases mean."

Rubio in Jamnagar today, to discuss higher RIL buys of Venezuelan oil

SAURAV ANAND
New Delhi, October 20

US SECRETARY OF State Marco Rubio is expected to discuss higher Venezuelan oil purchases with Reliance Industries (RIL) on Wednesday, given its Jamnagar complex's capacity to process the heavy crude. Reliance accounts for most of India's Venezuelan oil imports.

India imported around 196,000 barrels per day (bpd) of Venezuelan crude in September, down from 358,000 bpd in August, the highest since 2020. October purchases are likely to surpass August levels.

Washington exercises significant control over Venezuela's hydrocarbon assets.

'Growth will come from multiple engines'

With Jio Platforms' initial public offering (IPO) opening for subscription on Wednesday, following strong institutional demand for its anchor book, Managing Director Akash Ambani outlines the company's growth priorities. In an interview with Rishi Raj, he discusses how Jio plans to drive revenue beyond tariff increases, improve returns on capital and build new opportunities across AI, home broadband and enterprise services. Excerpts:

As Jio Platforms approaches its public-market debut, what will be the biggest driver of growth over the next three to five years?

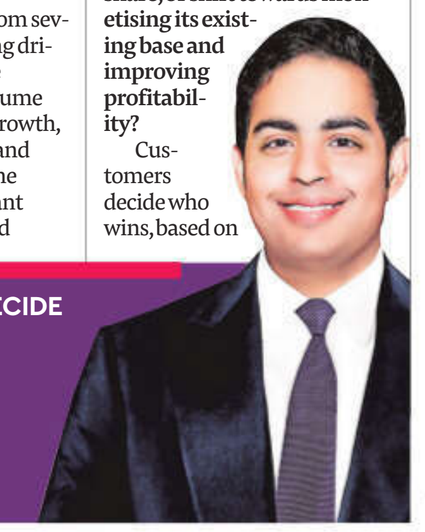

Growth will come from several mutually reinforcing drivers rather than a single engine. Mobility has volume growth, consumption growth, digital services growth and realisation growth. Home broadband has significant headroom through fixed broadband penetration, our unique ability to serve customers through our own UBR (unlicensed band radio) stack and digital services. Enterprise services for large enterprises are driven by digital services such as cloud, IoT and managed Wi-Fi. There is also huge potential in disrupting small and medium businesses by offering a bundle of the right digital products tailored for them, along with affordable, reliable connectivity.

How do you see competition evolving in telecom? Will Jio continue to prioritise subscriber additions and market share, or shift towards monetising its existing base and improving profitability?

Customers decide who wins, based on network, price and experience. Affordability and inclusion will remain fundamental to Jio. In FY26, we added about 27 million net active mobility customers, roughly three times the nearest competitor. Scale and monetisation reinforce each other. The more customers on our platform, the more we can offer them across mobility, home and enterprise. Better customer scale and engagement always result in better financial performance. Sustainable financial performance must rest on customer trust and enduring value to customers.

Jio has the largest subscriber base, but its average revenue per user (Arpu) is below Bharti Airtel's. Do you see Jio closing this gap?

We respect what Sunil Bharti Mittal and the Airtel team have built for Indian telecom. When we speak about Arpu, each player has its own definition. I measure Jio against our own mission: how many Indians we bring online, and how much more they do once they join. Jio has always stood for affordability with high-quality service and will continue to do so. That shapes our offerings; for instance, Jio Bharat phone users form a sizeable part of our base.

Profits surge ahead of sales in early Q2 results

RESULTS REVIEW

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, October 20

CORPORATE EARNINGS ARE off to a strong start in the September quarter, with net profit of a sample of 169 companies, including banks, financials, and insurance, rising 22.8% year-on-year to ₹1.39 lakh crore, outpacing sales growth of 16.3%. Aggregate net sales stood at ₹8.33 lakh crore, while operating profit rose 21.4% to ₹3.30 lakh crore.

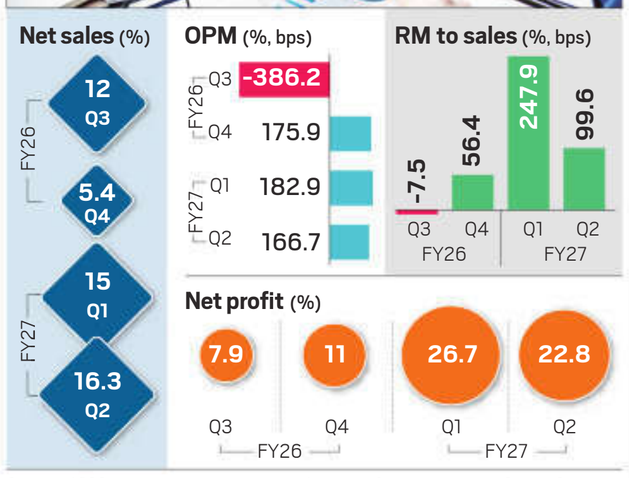

The divergence between revenue and profit growth points to improved operating leverage, with companies generating more profit from each rupee of sales. Operating margin expanded 167 basis points to 39.6%, as expenditure grew 13.2%, slower than sales. Sequentially, operating profit rose 9.5% even as sales grew just 0.3%, suggesting that improved profitability, rather than revenue expansion alone, is driving the early earnings momentum.

The IT sector presents a mixed picture, with AI-led demand providing fresh growth opportunities even as traditional tech spending remains uneven. HCLTech and Tech Mahindra posted double-digit profit growth, while Wipro's net profit fell despite higher revenue. TCS reported modest dollar-denominated revenue growth.

Rising bond yields add to banks' ECL shift burden

KSHIPRA PETKAR & NARAYANAN V
Mumbai/Chennai, October 20

RISING GOVERNMENT BOND yields are threatening to increase the cost of banks' transition to new accounting norms from April 2027.

While most banks have a fair idea of the provisions they will need under the expected credit loss (ECL) framework, the potential hit from revised valuation norms for held-to-maturity (HTM) securities remains uncertain, relying on yields prevailing on April 1, 2027.

Canara Bank has raised its estimate of the combined one-time provisioning requirement to ₹12,000-15,000 crore from ₹10,000-12,000 crore earlier, factoring in potential mark-to-market (MTM) losses on its HTM portfolio. "We have not calculated exactly, but what we roughly presume, it will be somewhere ₹12,000-15,000 crore," MD and chief executive Brajesh Kumar Singh said during the bank's Q2 earnings call.

Chennai, Kolkata airports may go to private operators

PRASANTA SAHU
New Delhi, October 20

THE CENTRE MAY offer Chennai and Kolkata airports for development under the public-private partnership (PPP) model in the next phase, aiming to upgrade their facilities to match those at other major metro airports, sources said.

Except for Chennai and Kolkata, which Airports Authority of India (AAI) directly owns and operates, other major airports in the country are operated by private players: Delhi (GMR Group), Hyderabad (GMR), Mumbai (Adani Group) and Bengaluru (Fairfax).

Recently, the PPP Appraisal Committee approved a plan to hand over 11 regional airports to private players under the PPP model.

Tamil Nadu's demand for a private operator to improve service quality and facilities at Chennai airport, along with the formation of a new BJP-led government in West Bengal keen to upgrade Kolkata airport, has strengthened the case for adopting the PPP model for both, a senior official said.

The Ministry of Civil Aviation has leveraged the PPP model to develop key Indian airports, spearheading the adoption of the Operation, Maintenance and Development Agreement (OMDA) model. Under this arrangement, the concessionaire is responsible for the operation, management and development of the airports, while air traffic control and communication, navigation and surveillance services will remain with AAI. This direct contractual monetisation method generates revenue for AAI through passenger fees, calculated using projected traffic and average per-passenger charges at each airport, as well as upfront fees paid by private entities.

In August, Tamil Nadu Chief Minister C Joseph Vijay wrote to Prime Minister Narendra Modi seeking a change in Chennai airport's operator. He said improving passenger traffic, aircraft movements and cargo handling will support the state's industry-friendly environment and attract investment.

DRIVING VALUE

Q-comm faces freshness test in premium produce push

S SHANTHI
Bengaluru, October 20

QUICK COMMERCE'S NEXT growth bet may require it to slow down. As Blinkit and Zepto expand into premium fruits and vegetables through Gourmet and Select, respectively, they face a challenge that the 10-minute delivery model was not designed to solve: ensuring consistent quality and freshness in products that spoil quickly and vary from piece to piece.

The entry of the two platforms into the segment, where specialist online players such as FirstClub and Handpickd are building their businesses, raises questions over whether the dark-store model can deliver the quality that premium consumers expect. While stocking products close to consumers allows quick-commerce companies to improve availability and convenience, pre-forecasting inventory of perishable goods can lead to wastage and inconsistent quality.

"The 10-minute delivery model assumes faster is inherently better, a logic that fails when applied to fresh kitchen essentials," Anant Goel, founder and CEO of Handpickd, told FE. The company procures against live orders rather than maintaining inventory in warehouses or stores, with customers receiving their selections the next morning. "The future of fresh commerce isn't delivering yesterday's inventory faster; it's delivering today's products with absolute freshness," he said.

The challenge is particularly acute in premium produce, where consumers are more discerning about ripeness, taste and consistency. Unlike packaged goods, the quality of a mango, avocado or berry can vary widely, and a poor purchase can undermine consumer trust.

Textile units de-risk fast as US orders slow

DEFYING THE TARIFF ODDS – III
TEXTILES

NARAYANAN V & NANDINI OZA
Chennai/Ahmedabad, October 20

AS US PRESIDENT Donald Trump's tariff threats rattled global trade over the past year, Indian textile and apparel exporters found a cushion in a strategy they had spent years building: a wider spread of markets. By reducing dependence on the US, their single largest market, exporters are seeking not just to weather the uncertainty but also to sustain growth in the $38-billion industry.

Take Pearl Global Industries, one of India's largest listed garment exporters. The maker of apparel for brands such as GAP and Zara reported record revenue of ₹1,528 crore in the first quarter, alongside its highest-ever shipments of 20.8 million pieces, as it expanded its presence beyond the US.

"We derisk the geographic exposure by lowering dependence on any single market. Revenue flows are being balanced across regions," said Pallab Banerjee, managing director of Pearl Global. The US accounted for 85% of the company's $200-million revenue in FY22. By FY26, revenue had grown to $550 million, while the US share went below 50%. The company has expanded its presence in Canada, Japan and the European Union, as well as the UK and Australia.

Home textile major Welspun Living drew 41% of its ₹9,399-crore revenue from non-US markets, including Europe, the UK and the Gulf Cooperation Council. Indo Count Industries, which has 70% of its export business in the US, adjusted its product mix and entered into tariff-sharing arrangements with customers to protect volumes and market share. However, tariff volatility led to an almost 100-basis-point contraction in EBITDA margins.

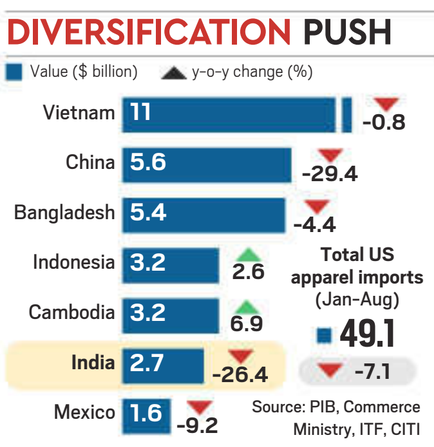

The push to diversify has gained urgency as US tariffs on Indian goods swung between 10%, 25% and 50% over the past year, complicating sourcing decisions for American buyers. The impact was reflected in exports, which fell to $35.7 billion in FY26 from $36.6 billion a year earlier. Shipments grew only 2% year-on-year to $18.16 billion in April-September.

"For a sector dominated by MSMEs and operating on razor-thin margins, this performance demonstrated remarkable resilience. Despite the challenges, Indian exporters largely held their ground in the US markets," said Chandrima Chatterjee, secretary general of the Confederation of Indian Textile Industry (CITI).

But the damage has been done. Ashish Gujarati, president of the Pandesara Weavers Co-operative Society, said suppliers and buyers shared the tariff burden when levies were at their peak. Industry sources in Surat said textile export order volumes to the US, a major destination for clothing items made of man-made fibres (MMF), plunged 50% between August 2025 and February 2026, as tariffs created barriers to business.

STRONG DEMAND POSITIONS INDIA AS AN IMPORTANR SUPPLIER: GOVT

Optical fibre exports surge 158% on global AI infra boom

MUKESH JAGOTA
New Delhi, October 20

INDIA'S MANUFACTURERS OF optical fibre and other digital infrastructure components are emerging as beneficiaries of the global artificial intelligence (AI) investment boom, with exports of optical fibres, fibre bundles and cables surging 158% year-on-year to $483 million in April-August of 2026-27. The export market for digital equipment is expanding at a scorching pace as countries race to build data centres and strengthen digital connectivity.

The sharp increase in exports of these goods highlights how the rapid expansion of AI infrastructure is creating opportunities for Indian industrial sectors supplying the essential components that underpin the digital economy. While semiconductors and servers have attracted much attention, demand is also rising for the optical fibre cables needed to connect data centres, transmit enormous volumes of data and support high-speed communications.

The United States accounted for more than half of India's optical fibre exports during the five-month period, importing products worth $266.7 million, according to data by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry. China was the second-largest destination at $52.4 million, followed by Poland at $22.8 million and Vietnam at $22.6 million. Japan, Canada and Italy were other significant markets, while shipments also reached the UK, Germany, Brazil, Morocco, Malaysia, the UAE and Mexico.

The strong AI-related demand is positioning India as an important supplier in the global communications value chain, the ministry said.

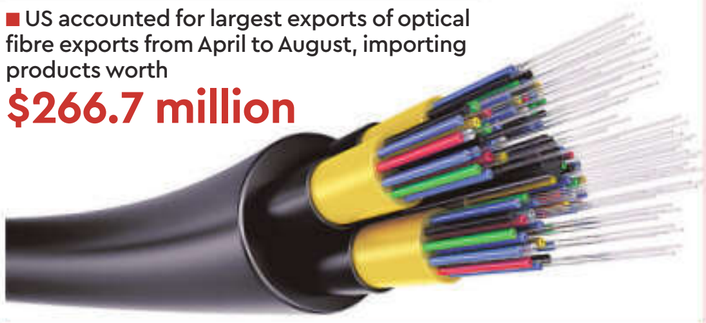

The export surge comes against the backdrop of an AI-driven investment cycle that is helping sustain global merchandise trade despite the disruption caused by the West Asia conflict.

India's optical fibre export performance illustrates how the investment boom is generating opportunities beyond the most visible parts of the AI supply chain. The construction of hyperscale data centres, expansion of broadband networks and deployment of 5G and fibre-to-the-home connections require extensive optical fibre infrastructure, creating demand for manufacturers of cables and related connectivity products, the ministry said.

The US concentration in India's export basket also points to the importance of the American digital infrastructure buildout for domestic manufacturers.

THE DIGITAL INFRA RACE

- US accounted for largest exports of optical fibre exports from April to August, importing products worth $266.7 million

China was the second-largest destination at $52.4 million

- The surge in export comes against the backdrop of an AI-driven investment cycle that is helping sustain global merchandise trade
- The trend offers India an opportunity to strengthen its position in the global digital infrastructure supply chain

CPI inflation for labourers exceeds general hikes

Rural purchasing power may weaken

SHUBHAM RANA
New Delhi, October 20

THE YEAR-ON-YEAR consumer price index (CPI) inflation rate for agricultural labourers (AL) and rural labourers (RL) outpaced headline CPI inflation in September, reflecting the higher burden of price pressures on the lower-income strata in rural India.

According to Labour Bureau data, CPI-AL inflation rose to 6.30% in September from 5.18% in August. CPI-RL inflation was 5.98% in September, up from 4.83% in the previous month. CPI inflation for AL and RL was -0.07% and 0.31%, respectively, in September 2025.

Inflation prints for both AL and RL were higher than the general CPI inflation of 5.54% in September. Rural CPI inflation was 6.08% in September, higher than urban inflation of 4.88%.

Sequentially, prices also rose quicker for agricultural and rural labourers at 1% each from August, while general CPI had risen 0.7% month-on-month in September.

This shows that price pressures are hurting the lower-income strata more, driven by a surge in food inflation.

Food inflation for AL rose to 8.24% in September from 6.41% a month ago. For rural labourers, food inflation was 7.84% last month, up from 5.97% in August. Food inflation for AL and RL was also higher than the general retail food inflation of 7.74% in September.

While CPI inflation for AL has been higher than general retail inflation for the last five months, September was the first time this calendar year that CPI-RL was higher than headline inflation.

Rising inflation for agricultural and rural labourers threatens rural demand as higher price pressures eat into household purchasing power.

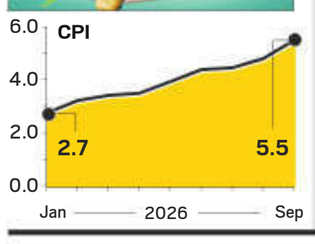

Rural households are already more pessimistic about the general economic situation, employment scenario, prices, and their own incomes, according to the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) latest Rural Consumer Confidence Survey.

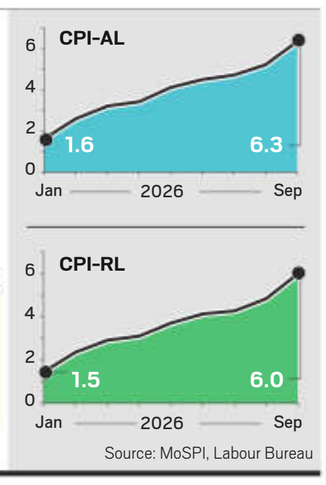

Food inflation is expected to stay high in the near term because of the impact of the deficient and uneven monsoon and El Nino.

● SANTOSH KUMAR SARANGI, MNRE SECRETARY

'Centre weighing ₹35K-cr outlay for PM-KUSUM-II'

The government is considering an outlay of around ₹35,000 crore for a follow-up to PM-KUSUM, broadly in line with the existing scheme, while seeking to link farm solarisation more closely with efficient irrigation and water conservation, MNRE Secretary Santosh Kumar Sarangi tells Saurav Anand. He also explained how the government seeks to resolve a tapering demand for "vanilla" solar projects, and why acceptable prices are important to attract buyers. Excerpts:

What is being planned after PM-KUSUM? Could the new programme have an outlay similar to the existing scheme?

The financial support could be broadly similar to the existing PM-KUSUM outlay, though the final amount has not been decided. The next phase is being discussed with the Agriculture Ministry, with a greater focus on convergence between renewable energy and agriculture. It could incorporate modern water-conservation measures and more effective irrigation planning, rather than treating solar pumps as a standalone intervention. The structure and funding mechanism are still under discussion.

The existing PM-KUSUM programme has central financial support of about ₹34,422 crore.

In several cases work is going on in the current scheme but payments have not been made. So there may be some spillover (in case of funds). In the case of legacy schemes, any legacy amount usually gets carried forward.

A large renewable project pipeline is facing delays in signing PPAs and PSAs...

Some developers might exit as demand for plain, or "vanilla", solar projects (those without backward integration/storage support, etc.) has weakened. Recent regulatory changes have provided an exit route without the earlier consequence of forfeiting certain bank guarantees linked to connectivity.

Some people will exit because the interest in vanilla solar is not very high. But vanilla solar with BESS is now selling well.

Rather than simply replacing every surrendered project with an identical tender, SECI is being asked to first understand what states and distribution companies actually require.

We have now pushed SECI to constantly talk to the states and discoms, understand their power profile and requirements, and only after understanding, bring out those bids.

The idea was you keep on tendering, people will eventually buy. But we have reached a point where people are not going to buy vanilla solar. You have to offer them in a configuration that will be acceptable to them, and not only configuration but also the prices that are acceptable.

Can India sustain renewable additions of around 50 GW annually?

This will be sustainable provided we also pick up on battery manufacturing capacity.

Dependence on imported batteries currently creates long delivery periods. Domestic manufacturing could accelerate storage deployment substantially. CEA projections envisage another 400 GW of renewable capacity by 2035–36, requiring battery storage, pumped hydro and green hydrogen to support growing solar and wind generation.

Where does PM Surya Ghar stand against its 10 million household target?

Around 6 million households have been covered so far, with installations expected to cross 8.5 million and potentially reach 9 million by March 2027. It has picked up pace, so we are confident of touching 8.5 to 9 [million]. The remaining roughly 1 million could take "one or two months" beyond March.

Why has offshore wind failed to attract the same investor interest as solar and onshore wind?

Economics remain difficult. Onshore wind costs about ₹7-7.5 crore/MW, against roughly ₹25 crore/MW for offshore wind. Offshore power could cost around ₹8-9/unit, while solar is available at ₹2.40-2.50.

In India's case, the choice today is not compelling in favour of offshore wind because you have alternative access to cheaper electricity. The ministry is examining ways to attract developers without committing substantially higher incentives.

The sunset test: Why India needs more coal-based power

India may need 105-150 GW of coal additions by 2035, against the earlier 97 GW expansion target, the Central Electricity Authority Chairman said recently. Faster battery storage deployment, larger duration storage technologies, & stronger grids could curb thermal power needs, writes Anish Mandal

70%

NON-FOSSIL FUELS IN TOTAL INSTALLED CAPACITY BY FY35-36, AS PER MARCH 2026 CEA PLAN

SUSTAINED HIGH NIGHT-TIME DEMAND COULD STRAIN THE SUPPLY AVAILABILITY FOR HIGH VOLUMES AND DURATION OF BATTERY STORAGE

● Why is the CEA re-visiting thermal power plans?

INDIA CAN INSTALL solar panels faster than ever. The harder question would be what keeps factories, data centres and air conditioners running after sunset till the sun rises again. This challenge underpins the Central Electricity Authority (CEA) indicating that India may need 105-150 GW of coal additions by 2035, against the earlier 97 GW expansion target. The 2023 National Electricity Plan had already projected 260 GW of coal/lignite and 24.8 GW of gas by FY32, alongside rapid renewable and storage expansion.

The IEA forecasts electricity-demand growth averaging 6.4% annually through 2030, with industry contributing roughly one-third of the increase and cooling over one-fifth. Agriculture and transport together contribute around another one-fifth.

India's summer net load, which is the residual demand remaining after solar and wind generation, typically peaks around 8 pm, and at 4 am in the morning, it is still marginally lower by 10%. In May 2026, dispatchable generation peaked at 90% of available capacity, leaving limited room for unexpected outages and spikes in demand.

The supply pressure is therefore starkly visible, especially during non-solar hours. The country therefore needs more dependable power after sunset, and the preferred source for meeting the prolonged post-sunset demand seems to be coal.

● How is the power demand outlook?

PEAK POWER DEMAND reached a record high of 260 GW on October 5, 2026, and has remained more than 250 GW through most days of September and October of 2026. Sustained cooling loads and agricultural irrigation needs have kept power demand elevated by 40-50 GW higher than that of the previous year. Evening non-solar hour demand has started easing only during mid-October, as cooling loads softened gradually.

● Night-time demand challenges

HIGH POWER DEMAND all through the night requires a sustained base load generation to be available through the non-solar hours. Such sustained demand for long hours could strain the supply availability for high volumes and duration of battery storage, especially when the supply chain is skewed and cost curves are showing a reverse trend. A battery that covers the evening peak may still run out hours before dawn. Also, CEA's March 2026 Generation Adequacy Plan finds pithead coal more economical than solar-plus batteries for baseload supply under its assumptions.

● Does this mean a likely retreat from renewables?

RENEWABLES WILL EXPAND, complementing the expansion of coal. The March 2026 CEA plan envisages 509 GW of solar, 155 GW of wind and 174 GW of battery and pumped storage by FY36, alongside 315 GW of coal/lignite. It estimates that by FY36, non-fossil fuels will contribute 70% of total installed capacity in the country. This means that coal plants will increasingly need to accommodate renewable output by reducing generation when solar is abundant and ramping up adequately as it fades, supporting greater renewable integration. In this context, CEA also released regulations in 2023 prescribing a phased move for coal plants towards 40% minimum technical load, followed by its suggestive framework on ramp rate compliance and scheduling for coal plants, released in 2026.

● What limits other power sources?

WIND CAN GENERATE power at night but follows weather and is usually low during summer months, limiting output when heat-driven demand intensifies. Hydro generation fell 20% year on year in September 2026. Gas offers flexibility, but scarce domestic fuel and expensive imported LNG constrain its role. Nuclear addition, other than what's already planned, is a longer-term replacement solution.

● How can the need for additional coal be reduced?

THE THERMAL COAL plant requirement and addition is dependent on variables like demand, battery storage costs and delivery timelines. Faster storage deployment, larger duration storage technologies, and stronger grids could reduce such thermal deployment. The solution can also lie in reshaping the contours of demand. UC-Berkeley-led research estimates stronger air conditioner standards could avoid over 60 GW of peak power demand by 2035. Though most states have started shifting agricultural demand to solar hours from evening hours, a significant shift is yet to materialise through feeder solarisation.

India's power plan must deliver through the night at a cost consumers can afford. Resource adequacy studies need to be carried out by each state to plan such procurement and execute the capacity contracts. Annual revisions enforce the robustness of such plans.

STRESS ON NEED TO PROTECT HOLDINGS

Insolvency law gaps could put crypto investors in a fix

MANU KAUSHIK
New Delhi, October 20

CRYPTO INVESTORS COULD face uncertainty over recovering their holdings if an exchange fails, as India's current insolvency framework lacks clear rules on protecting customer assets, according to a research paper published by the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (IBBI).

The paper flags gaps in deciding who owns the crypto held by an exchange and whether it should be returned to customers or used to repay the exchange's debts.

It proposes explicitly recognising virtual digital assets (VDAs) as property under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC). It also calls for rules to segregate customer holdings from an exchange's own assets, determine the value of crypto assets during insolvency and address cases involving exchanges operating across jurisdictions.

The concern is that customers could face prolonged legal battles to recover their holdings if an exchange collapses, particularly when ownership records are unclear or customer assets are commingled with company funds. The paper examines the WazirX controversy and legal developments surrounding the treatment of crypto assets to make the case for clearer insolvency rules.

CLARITY IN NORMS

- IBBI proposes recognising VDAs as property under IBC
- Customer crypto to be kept separate from exchange assets
- Clear ownership rules needed if an exchange fails
- WazirX case highlights gaps in asset recovery

- Cross-border exchanges add to recovery complications
- IBBI does not propose 'financial creditor' status for crypto users
- Customer holdings could otherwise be caught in insolvency proceedings
- Experts call for designated accounts and separate crypto wallets

- Crypto valuation becomes challenging during insolvency

The paper does not propose granting crypto customers preferential status as financial creditors, as was done for homebuyers under the IBC. Instead, its recommendations focus on establishing customers' ownership of their holdings and protecting those assets from being treated as the exchange's own property.

Srinivasa Rao, senior partner (risk advisory) at Nangia Global, said retail investors could be left at the back of the queue when an exchange fails if their tokens are held in a pooled wallet alongside other assets.

"The IBBI proposal to legally separate user holdings from company money gives investigators a clean trail to follow and ensures customer funds are returned, not locked in years of litigation," he said.

Soham Jethani, managing partner at SEPTTEN Advisors, said mandatory segregation of customer assets was a familiar safeguard in regulated financial services and should apply to crypto exchanges as well.

"Customer money should be held in designated client accounts, and customer crypto in wallets separate from the exchange's own assets. The law should expressly preserve customer ownership and exclude those holdings from the exchange's insolvency estate," he said.

Jethani pointed to Dubai's Virtual Assets Regulatory Authority (VARA) framework, which provides for customer-asset safeguards alongside insurance protections. He said crypto-specific insolvency rules were necessary but could not replace regulation of exchanges from the outset.

"Customers should not have to wait for an exchange to collapse before the law clarifies what protection they have," he said, adding that the lack of a comprehensive regulatory framework had left basic customer safeguards unresolved.

The paper also flags challenges in valuing volatile crypto holdings and recovering assets across jurisdictions, as exchanges may operate through entities in different countries. It recommends changes to address these issues.

Infra projects set to take a hit after China's curbs on boring machines

RAVI DUTTA MISHRA
New Delhi, October 20

AFTER IMPOSING RESTRICTIONS on rare earth magnets that continue to impact Indian automobile manufacturers, China has imposed fresh global restrictions on tunnel boring machines, a key piece of equipment for construction used in metro rail and highway construction.

The 3,000-tonne tunnel boring machines (TBMs) play a key role in several construction projects, particularly for India's maiden 508-km bullet train project, the Mumbai–Ahmedabad High-Speed Rail (MAHSR) Corridor. The project also includes a 7-km-long undersea rail tunnel.

These machines are used in several countries across Europe, Canada, the US, and Australia, as TBMs are known to ensure a safer excavation process, especially since the tunnel passes through a densely populated area where conventional blasting methods would pose risks.

But China's Commerce and Industry Ministry on Monday said export operators would need to apply for a license in accordance with the provisions of export control law and regulations on the export control of dual-use items, and that the restrictions will become effective on November 18.

FRESH BLOW

- China said export operators would need to apply for a licence in accordance with the provisions of export control law on the export control of dual-use items
- The restrictions will become effective on November 18

- The machines play a key role in construction projects, particularly for India's 508-km bullet train project

Tension with India

While China has announced a fresh licensing mechanism on TBMs, India has been facing delays in its imports since 2024. However, it received the TBMs earlier this year in March after tensions began easing between the two countries. In a video of an interaction between Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal and Germany's then Vice Chancellor Robert Habeck during a Metro train ride in Delhi in 2024, Goyal had flagged issues with delayed shipments. He told Habeck that India was supposed to get some TBMs from the German company Herrenknecht AG, a leader in TBMs, that it was making in China. The sale of those machines to India was being blocked.

Herrenknecht in 2024 said that for several months, the company has been observing "extraordinary circumstances" in the customs clearance processes for machines to be delivered from China to India. These were hindering them from fulfilling delivery obligations, it had said.

'No justification' for terrorism: Rajnath

INDIA ON TUESDAY said that there can be "no justification" for terrorism and "no double standards" in addressing the menace, as it called on the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) member states to make concerted efforts to "dismantle" the entire "ecosystem of terrorism".

Addressing the 25th Meeting of the Council of Heads of Government of the SCO in Tajikistan's capital Dushanbe, Defence Minister Rajnath Singh also said that terrorism radicalises societies and deprives youth of the opportunities they deserve.

"There can be no justification for terrorism, no double standards in addressing it, and no place for those who finance, support, or provide safe havens to terrorists," Singh said.

Singh underlined that terrorism results in the loss of innocent lives and disrupts investment and commerce.

The minister called upon the SCO members "to make concerted efforts to dismantle the entire ecosystem of terrorism", describing the menace as "one of the gravest threats" to peace and development.

Singh also recalled the deliberations at the SCO Summit in Bishkek in August-September 2026, when Prime Minister Narendra Modi underlined the need for concrete steps by the SCO on issues related to security, connectivity, and opportunity.

Air Force to conduct series of aerial shows in Varanasi

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Varanasi, October 20

THE INDIAN AIR Force (IAF) will conduct a series of aerial displays at Namo Ghat in Varanasi on October 22, 24 and 25, showcasing its combat capabilities, technological prowess and flying skills under the 'Wings Over Ganges' theme, officials said on Tuesday. Prime Minister Narendra Modi will attend the programme on October 25, they said.

Titled 'Indian Air Force Aerial Display 2026', the event will highlight the force's rich heritage, modern air power and commitment to national security.

According to IAF officials, a total of 100 aircraft will participate in the event, including 52 fighter aircraft, 15 transport aircraft and 32 helicopters.

Fighter jets such as the Rafale, Sukhoi-30 MKI, MiG-29, Mirage-2000, Jaguar and indigenous Light Combat Aircraft Tejas are slated to demonstrate their capabilities. Transport and surveillance aircraft, including the C-130, C-295, C-17 Globemaster and AN-32, are also expected to participate, they said.

The IAF's Suryakiran aerobatic team will be among the major attractions, performing manoeuvres over the Ganga. A formation involving nine Hawk aircraft following a C-17 Globemaster-led flight will precede the Suryakiran team's display, officials said.

ONLINE RETAIL MKT TO CROSS $90 BN IN 2026

INDIA'S ONLINE RETAIL market is projected to cross $90 billion in 2026, registering an annual growth of 22-24%, its fastest expansion in five years, driven by everyday consumption categories like grocery rather than mobile phones, Redseer Strategy Consultants said in a report.

RURAL ADVANTAGE SHOWING SIGNS OF MODERATION, SAYS BIZOM

FMCG biz growth narrows between rural-urban in Q2

VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO
Mumbai, October 20

RURAL INDIA CONTINUED to drive growth in several fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) categories in the September quarter, with beverages, packaged food, chocolates and confectionery recording stronger value growth as spending power remained resilient. However, the narrowing gap between rural and urban demand is raising questions about the sustainability of the recovery, particularly as inflationary pressures and weak wage growth threaten to constrain consumption in the hinterlands.

According to data shared by Bizom, a retail intelligence platform, packaged food recorded year-on-year value growth of 20.3% in rural markets in Q2FY27, followed by chocolates and confectionery at 16.4% and beverages at 12.2%. The growth in these categories was supported by out-of-home consumption, Parth Sethi, growth officer, CEO's office, Bizom, said, indicating continued spending on convenient, impulse-led items even as households remain sensitive to price pressures.

Bizom tracks value growth across FMCG categories in 10 million retail outlets. It does not report volume growth.

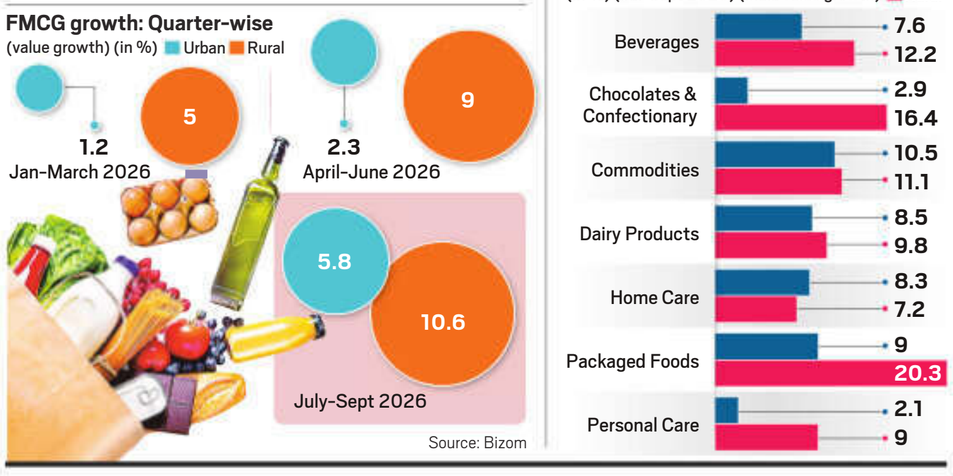

Yet, the rural growth advantage is showing signs of moderation. Rural FMCG demand outpaced urban markets by about two times in the September quarter, compared with four to five times in each of the preceding quarters — Q4FY26 and Q1FY27, according to Bizom (see chart). The narrowing gap reflects a combination of moderating rural momentum and improved urban consumption. Festive spending in urban households was one factor supporting city markets during the quarter, Bizom said.

In urban areas, branded commodities led value growth at 10.5%, followed by packaged food at 9%, dairy products at 8.5% and home care at 8.3% in Q2. The performance suggests that consumption growth is broadening beyond rural markets, even as the pace of recovery varies across categories and geographies. The shift comes at a critical time for consumer goods companies, which have relied on rural India to drive incremental sales growth amid uneven consumption trends in urban markets in recent years. Rural markets account for roughly a third of India's FMCG sales, with urban markets contributing the remainder.

"Rural has continued to outpace urban consumption in the September quarter. But the geopolitical and inflationary environment are a key monitorable," Mohit Malhotra, global CEO, Dabur, said. Brent touched $110 a barrel this week, raising fears that it would trigger a fresh round of inflationary pressures.

FESTIVE SPEND DRIVING SHIFT

Imprint of price rejig, user churn likely on telcos' qtr

RESULTS PREVIEW

URVI MALVANIA
Mumbai, October 20

THE SEPTEMBER QUARTER is expected to offer early indications of how pricing interventions and subscriber additions are shaping revenue growth at India's telecom operators, with analysts forecasting sequential growth in revenue and earnings for Bharti Airtel and Reliance Jio. Vodafone Idea (Vi), meanwhile, is expected to report modest revenue growth while continuing to post losses.

The impact of Airtel's withdrawal of lower-value prepaid plans, Jio's Prime membership and Vi's efforts to stabilise its subscriber base will be among the key monitorables, they added.

Airtel's plan changes are expected to support average revenue per user (Arpu), experts said, while Jio is likely to benefit from continued subscriber additions and growth in its home broadband business. Vi's is expected to report sustained recovery in its subscriber base as it ramps up capital expenditure.

"Arpu impact of Airtel's recent price interventions especially the removal of ₹299 plan, (is) estimated to have 1.5-2% positive impact," analysts from UBS said. The brokerage expects consolidated revenue to rise 2.9% sequentially and Ebitda to grow 3% sequentially.

However, the gains need to be weighed against possible subscriber churn. "We will watch for any elevated churn from Bharti to peers given its unilateral tariff actions on low end prepaid plans and postpaid hikes," analysts from JPMorgan said. The brokerage expects Airtel's India wireless Arpu to rise 1.5% sequentially to ₹268, with net additions of 2.1 million. Airtel's Q1 Arpu came in at ₹264.

Jio is expected to add 8-9 million subscribers during the quarter, taking its base to around 541-542 million (Q1 was at 533.3 million). Analysts expect Jio's Arpu to rise 3-4%, partly supported by additions to its home broadband business and upfront recognition of Jio Prime's one-time membership fee.

Vodafone Idea is expected to report subscriber base in the range of 193-195 million, with Arpu estimates ranging from ₹177-181. Revenue is projected at around ₹11,600-11,900 crore, while Ebitda is expected at around ₹5,000 crore. The company is still likely to continue reporting a net loss exceeding ₹5,000 crore.

The timing of the next sector-wide tariff increase remains uncertain. Analysts have pushed its expectation for tariff hikes from the December quarter to the June quarter of FY28, making the impact of existing pricing interventions and the ability to retain subscribers key monitorables for the industry.

New sovereign cloud & AI offerings by Microsoft

OJASVI GUPTA
New Delhi, October 20

MICROSOFT ON TUESDAY unveiled new capabilities across its sovereign cloud offerings, expanding options for businesses and government organisations to run artificial intelligence (AI), manage sensitive data and operate critical applications with greater local control.

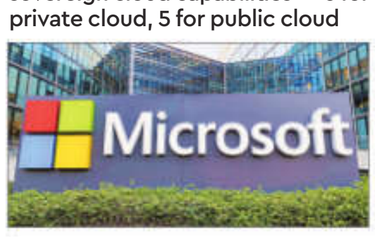

The company is introducing six new capabilities for its private cloud offering and five for its public cloud, alongside an expanded partner strategy that enables independently operated national clouds, local systems integrators and software providers to address sovereignty requirements.

"Organisations are considering more than where data resides. They also seek to understand who can access and operate their systems, how sensitive digital assets remain protected, which technology dependencies matter most, and whether critical services can continue as regulatory, geopolitical, security, or network conditions change," said Douglas Phillips, president and chief technology officer of Microsoft Specialized Clouds.

The company said the new capabilities would be rolled out across its markets and regions over time.

CONTROL TIGHTENED

- Microsoft has unveiled 11 new sovereign cloud capabilities — 6 for private cloud, 5 for public cloud
- New offerings target businesses, govt organisations seeking greater control over sensitive data, AI workloads
- The company said new capabilities would be rolled out across its markets and regions over time

Microsoft is positioning sovereignty as a risk-management exercise that must be embedded across its products

Steelbird MD: Helmet biz needs ₹6K cr for expansion

AKBAR MERCHANT
Mumbai, October 20

THE HELMET INDUSTRY would need investments of more than ₹6,000 crore to meet potential demand if helmet-use rules are effectively enforced across the country, according to Steelbird Helmets Managing Director Rajeev Kapur.

India could require as many as 120 million helmets annually if regulations are implemented uniformly, compared with the current manufacturing capacity of around 30 million units for genuine helmets across brands, Kapur said. Expanding capacity to meet this demand could also create at least one lakh jobs.

"According to WHO, only 30% of riders are wearing a helmet and only 10% of pillion riders are wearing a helmet. If helmets are being enforced across the country, then the demand can be as high as 12 crore helmets a year in India," he said. The capacity gap is compounded by counterfeit and substandard helmets.

HPCL seeks power rate reforms for EV charging viability

AKBAR MERCHANT
Mumbai, October 20

HINDUSTAN PETROLEUM CORPORATION (HPCL) has called for electricity tariff reforms, lower demand charges and faster power connections to improve the viability of public electric vehicle (EV) charging infrastructure, as high investment costs and low utilisation continue to constrain returns.

"A more supportive tariff framework would improve project viability," said Debasish Basak, executive director-retail at HPCL. Rational demand charges, transparent electricity tariffs and timely increases in sanctioned power loads would help reduce operating costs and accelerate the rollout of public charging infrastructure, he said.

HPCL has called for a coordinated review of electricity tariffs, demand charges, grid-connection costs and service-charge ceilings to improve the economics of charging stations. Charger utilisation varies by location, capacity and vehicle segment. DC fast chargers may require utilisation of 15-25% to achieve attractive returns, depending on electricity tariffs, capital costs and operating expenses, Basak said.

HPCL aims to have around 6,000 chargers by the end of FY27. It added 640 chargers in FY26 and another 541 between April and September this year. Its network has expanded 8% to 5,826 charging facilities, comprising 2,180 AC slow chargers and 3,656 DC fast chargers.

The firm is targeting electric trucks and buses across 50 highway corridors, while focusing on utilisation, operational uptime and repeat usage to build a commercially sustainable charging business by March 2030.

GSMA: 6G bet hinges on 5G monetisation

OJASVI GUPTA
New Delhi, October 20

THE AMBITION TO lead the global 6G race will depend on India's ability to monetise existing 5G networks, build commercially viable applications and provide telecom operators with a predictable spectrum roadmap, according to Julian Gorman, Head of Asia Pacific, GSMA.

With the global 6G standard expected to be finalised in late 2028, the country needs to accelerate the development of an innovation ecosystem that can translate network capabilities into economic value, rather than focus solely on technology standards and patents, Gorman said.

"India needs to accept that it has this compressed timetable," Gorman said, adding that the country needs to ensure 5G is monetised sufficiently to sustain investment in the next generation of mobile technology.

Spectrum availability and pricing will be critical to that effort. The executive said governments should view spectrum as a co-investment in the digital economy rather than merely a source of revenue, as the economic benefits of connectivity often extend beyond telecom operators.

"If you charge operators everything they can, then the operators can't afford to put the infrastructure in," the official said, calling for a better balance between spectrum costs, network investment and the broader economic gains from technology. The transition to 6G will also require timely spectrum allocation and participation in international discussions on future frequency bands. Gorman said network capabilities such as slicing, introduced with 5G, will be enhanced in subsequent generations.

NEXT LEVEL

- The global 6G standard expected to be finalised in late 2028
- Spectrum availability and pricing will be critical to that effort

VINEET MITTAL, FOUNDER AND CHAIRMAN, AVAADA GROUP

'We are keenly watching the nuclear energy space'

AVAADA GROUP HAS filed a ₹7,600-crore IPO for its solar equipment manufacturing arm Avaada Electro and repaid ₹6,713 crore in debt it owed to Canadian investor Brookfield.* Vineet Mittal, founder and chairman of Avaada Group, discusses the group's expansion plans across energy storage, green hydrogen and ammonia, nuclear energy and fundraising with Raghavendra Kamath. Excerpts:

Many companies have ventured into nuclear energy. Is this an area Avaada is considering?

On nuclear energy, we are watching policy and technology developments very closely. The government's Nuclear Energy Mission and its ?20,000-crore programme for the development and deployment of small modular reactors (SMRs) are particularly interesting. Technologies such as the Bharat Small Modular Reactor and other indigenous SMR concepts could eventually create new opportunities for reliable low-carbon electricity, industrial energy and potentially hydrogen production. However, nuclear energy, particularly SMRs, remains an evolving opportunity. We would therefore take a measured approach rather than make speculative commitments at this stage.

Why has Avaada largely stayed away from acquisitions in the renewable energy space?

Avaada has historically been much more greenfield-led than acquisition-led. Our core strength has always been creating assets and executing projects quickly, while maintaining quality and cost discipline, rather than merely aggregating them. Greenfield development allows us to control project quality, technology choices, capital costs and operating performance from inception. It also enables us to build projects around long-term offtake arrangements and create value through disciplined execution. That said, we are not doctrinaire about our approach to growth. Where an acquisition offers the right strategic fit—whether in terms of location, connectivity, technology, operating assets or portfolio advantages—and meets our return thresholds, we will certainly evaluate it.

> OUR CORE STRENGTH HAS ALWAYS BEEN CREATING ASSETS AND EXECUTING PROJECTS QUICKLY

The group was in talks with global lenders such as Standard Chartered Bank and SMBC to raise more than $1 billion in project-finance debt. What is the progress on that front?

We have moved well beyond the initial discussions and continue to see strong participation from both domestic and international lenders. During Q1 FY27, we secured nearly $950 million in debt financing across three utility-scale renewable energy projects, including our 590 MW firm and dispatchable renewable energy (FDRE) project in Bikaner and two 300 MW solar projects in Rajasthan and Gujarat. These financings involved separate lending consortia comprising institutions such as Standard Chartered Bank, State Bank of India, HSBC, DBS, SMBC, MUFG and BNP Paribas.

Subsequently, we secured nearly $1.3 billion in financing for a 2.15 GW renewable energy portfolio across four special-purpose vehicles (SPVs), with State Bank of India, REC and Canara Bank participating as lenders. As we scale, we will continue to evaluate both domestic and international sources of project finance.

What are your plans in the battery storage space?

We are already constructing storage capacity at scale, with 2.5 GWh of battery energy storage systems (BESS) in Rajasthan and around 4 GWh in other states.

AMBIGUITY OVER IDENTIFYING GENUINE BANK CALL GETS CLEARED

2-way communication on 1600 series gets Trai nod

CHRISTINA TITUS & URVI MALVANIA
Mumbai, October 20

BANKS AND OTHER financial entities have been given a go-ahead by the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (Trai) to use the 1600-series numbers for two-way communication. This clears a key ambiguity around the new system that was intended to help customers identify genuine banking calls.

Trai sources said if banks introduce a two-way calling, customers can call back on a 1600-series number if they have missed a call from their bank or need any information or clarification. Banks can also use other numbers to reach customers if they are unable to connect with them through a 1600 number, including in cases where a customer has blocked the number or does not answer the call, sources said.

The development comes amid concerns among banks that customers are unfamiliar with the 1600 series and may ignore or block calls made through it.

Banks and the Indian Banks' Association (IBA) have been discussing the issue and are undertaking outreach programmes to make customers aware that 1600-series calls are genuine service and transactional communications and should not be blocked.

The 1600 series was introduced to provide a distinct numbering framework for service and transactional calls from banks and other regulated financial entities. The 140 series, meanwhile, is designated for promotional communications. The objective is to make it easier for customers to distinguish legitimate financial-sector calls from unsolicited or fraudulent communications made using ordinary 10-digit mobile numbers.

The Trai has also recently barred third-party caller-identification and related applications from tagging 1600-series numbers as spam. This is aimed at ensuring that genuine calls from regulated entities are not automatically classified as unsolicited communications by such applications.

(Full report on www.financialexpress.com)

TRANSITION PHASE

- Banks step up customer awareness as regulator bars caller-ID apps from tagging 1600 numbers as spam
- If banks introduce two-way calling, customers can call back if they miss a call or need information
- Banksare concerned that customers unfamiliar with the 1600 series may ignore or block calls made through it
- Efforts are being made via various channels to create awareness about 1600 series

Blocking of 1600-series numbers is particularly common in cases involving loan recovery calls

Hacker claims massive SBI data breach

FE BUREAU
Mumbai, October 20

A HACKER HAS claimed to have accessed sensitive customer data allegedly linked to State Bank of India (SBI) and its subsidiaries, raising concerns over a possible data breach at the country's largest public sector lender.

The threat actor, who goes by the name 'Siriusim', claimed on BreachForums, a dark web forum, to possess over 375,000 customer records in comma-separated values (CSV) format, along with 2,722 PDF documents. The authenticity of the claim and the extent of the alleged breach have not been independently verified. A response from SBI to queries sent by the Financial Express is awaited.

The alleged dataset includes personal customer information, loan applications, supporting documents, account-opening forms and addresses. The listing was flagged on October 16 by CyberPulse56, a cybersecurity monitoring account on social media platform X. "The threat actor describes this as the first disclosure of the dataset," the account said.

The development comes nearly three months after a cybersecurity incident at another public sector lender, Bank of Baroda, in July. Hackers had then claimed to possess over 700 GB of sensitive customer information and internal documents, including identification documents, loan records and internal audit reports.

Bank of Baroda later acknowledged that an employee's email account had been compromised, leading to unauthorised access to certain data. It maintained that its core banking systems remained secure and unaffected, and initiated a forensic investigation into the incident.

If authenticated, the SBI data exposure could heighten the risk of identity theft, fraudulent loan applications and targeted phishing attacks, as the personal and financial information could be misused to impersonate customers or bank officials.

● BASANT BAFNA, HEAD – FIXED INCOME, MIRAE ASSET MUTUAL FUND

'We're positive on duration bonds'

With the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) raising the repo rate by 25 basis points, Basant Bafna, head of fixed income at Mirae Asset Mutual Fund, expects another 50 bps of rate hikes in FY27. In an interview with Christina Titus, he says the benchmark 10-year bond yield is likely to remain around current levels, making this a favourable time for investors to lock in longer durations. Excerpts:

How do you expect interest rates to move going forward?

We expect another 50 basis points of rate hikes in FY27, implemented in a calibrated manner, with an additional 25 bps depending on evolving macroeconomic and geopolitical conditions. However, markets are currently pricing in a significantly sharper increase of 100 bps, amid persistent global uncertainties and the RBI's continued measures to stabilise the rupee.

Given that interest rate differentials have narrowed significantly, partly due to robust domestic fundamentals, our base case is that a modest rate hike at this stage is unlikely to attract substantial inflows. The scale of rate hikes required to draw foreign investment into debt markets would be significantly larger.

How do you see liquidity conditions evolving?

Monday's variable rate repo (VRR) operation shows that the RBI remains nimble in managing liquidity on both sides. Recent forex measures have also affected liquidity. Although liquidity has declined, I do not expect the RBI to immediately reverse its measures to stabilise the rupee, as these were intended to curb speculative activity.

Against the backdrop of tightening liquidity, we expect the RBI to provide intermittent support through VRR operations, rather than durable liquidity infusion, given its calibrated tightening stance. Government cash balances also remain high, and liquidity should improve as government spending picks up and funds flow into the economy.

SCALE OF RATE HIKES REQUIRED TO DRAW FOREIGN INVESTMENT INTO DEBT MARKETS WOULD BE SIGNIFICANTLY LARGER

At what levels do you expect the benchmark 10-year bond yield to trade in the near term?

We believe the longer end of the yield curve has already priced in most of the negatives, including expected policy rate movements and spreads. The curve has begun showing signs of flattening. While the longer end remains relatively stable, the shorter end continues to witness volatility amid evolving geopolitical conditions.

Historically, the median spread between the 10-year government security yield and the repo rate has been 105–110 bps. At 7.35–7.40%, the 10-year yield already factors in a repo rate of 6.25%. Therefore, we do not expect a significant sell-off, and yields should remain around current levels in the near term.

How has your portfolio strategy evolved with the shift towards a rate-hike cycle?

We are increasing allocations to sovereign bonds in the 14-year, 30-year and 40-year maturity segments. In corporate bonds, we favour the five-year and 10-year segments.

We have also begun tactically adding duration in a calibrated manner. While the shorter end of the yield curve continues to offer value, the curve could flatten further if geopolitical tensions remain elevated for long.

Which part of the yield curve offers the most attractive investment opportunities?

It depends on the investment horizon. For investors with a three-to-six-month horizon, ultra-short-duration or money-market funds are appropriate. Those with a six-to-12-month horizon can consider ultra-short- to short-duration funds.

For investors looking to lock in longer durations, this is a very good time. Those nearing retirement could consider long-tenor bonds alongside a systematic withdrawal plan to support their long-term financial needs.

Given the relative stability at the longer end of the yield curve, investors with an appropriate risk appetite should consider increasing duration.

How do you view India's growth and inflation outlook?

Growth remains robust, with the upcoming festive season expected to provide further support. However, the lagged effects of El Niño and depleted groundwater levels could affect the rabi crop, posing risks to inflation.

At the same time, a significant portion of price pressures has yet to be passed on to consumers. With wholesale price inflation running well above consumer inflation, the GDP deflator is expected to remain elevated, pushing nominal GDP growth into double digits.

The rabi season and persistently high crude oil prices will need close monitoring, as both could pose upside risks to inflation. We expect inflation at 5.2–5.3% and economic growth of around 7% in FY27.

GULF CRISIS

External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar

"The situation in the Gulf remains a matter of deep concern. We will continue to work together and support all efforts to promote dialogue and diplomacy

Bridging AI's chasm

Access to AI is widening, but the ability to use it productively remains unequal

THE DIGITAL DIVIDE was once largely about access to computers, the Internet, and, subsequently, smartphones. As connectivity improved and digital services spread, the focus shifted towards bringing more people online. Artificial intelligence (AI) is now creating a more complex challenge. Access to technology may be becoming easier, but the ability to use it productively remains unevenly distributed. The emerging divide is likely to be between employees who can harness AI to improve their productivity and those who cannot, and between companies that can integrate the technology into their operations and those that lack the resources or expertise to do so. The growing demand for AI upskilling courses offers a glimpse of this transition. Edtech platforms are reporting rising enrolments among experienced professionals, with interest moving from generative AI and prompt engineering towards agentic AI, application development, and business transformation. AI is thus becoming a capability that people across functions and levels of experience will need to acquire. Those unable to keep pace risk being disadvantaged.

Professionals who understand how to deploy AI in their existing roles may gain a productivity advantage over colleagues who use it only for routine tasks. The same divergence could emerge between businesses. Large companies have greater access to capital, computing infrastructure, data, and specialised talent, enabling them to experiment with AI and integrate it into operations. Smaller enterprises, particularly micro, small, and medium enterprises, may struggle to make the same transition. The danger, therefore, is that a technology often presented as a democratising force ends up widening productivity and income disparities.

This is where the government has an important role to play. The IndiaAI Mission, with its focus on computing capacity, AI applications, and FutureSkills, provides a framework for expanding access to the technology and developing talent. Initiatives like Data and AI Labs in smaller cities and subsidised computing access can help broaden participation beyond large technology firms and premier institutions. Reskilling needs to reach experienced employees, workers in non-technology functions and people whose jobs are likely to be reshaped by automation. Public training programmes must also equip learners to apply AI to practical problems. Equally, smaller businesses need affordable access to computing, technical assistance, and opportunities to experiment with AI without having to make prohibitive upfront investments. Industry and educational institutions must share this responsibility. Government intervention can reduce barriers to access, but it cannot substitute for employers redesigning jobs and investing in continuous learning.

The objective, then, should be to ensure that the spread of AI does not create a new class of digitally disadvantaged workers and businesses. This will require moving beyond conventional measures of digital inclusion, such as connectivity and access to devices, towards assessing whether people and enterprises can use technology to improve productivity and livelihoods. The government cannot guarantee equal outcomes, but can surely make the transition more inclusive by expanding skilling opportunities, supporting smaller enterprises, and ensuring that access to computing and digital infrastructure is not concentrated among a few. Companies, for their part, must recognise that AI adoption cannot be reduced to procuring software or cutting costs; it also demands investment in employees and changes in how work is organised. The first digital divide was about who could get online. The next will be about who can turn access to AI into economic opportunity. Bridging that chasm must become an integral part of the country's AI strategy.

Future of music unfolds in a paid, AI-led world

INDIA IS AMONG the world's largest music consumption markets, yet monetisation remains disproportionately low. The music industry is increasingly moving towards subscription-led monetisation. According to the International Federation of the Phonographic Industry, global recorded music revenues reached $31.7 billion in 2025, with paid streaming accounting for over 52% of revenues.

India, however, remains fundamentally different. Affordable internet access, smartphone penetration, and free digital platforms have ensured that the challenge is no longer increasing listening hours. It is improving monetisation per listener.

YouTube remains one of the most important platforms for music discovery and monetisation. But excessive dependence on a single advertising-led ecosystem creates structural vulnerabilities for music labels. Advertising yields, recommendation algorithms, revenue-sharing arrangements, and platform policies are largely outside the control of music companies. The solution is not to reduce YouTube consumption, but to reduce the industry's dependence on it for incremental revenue growth.

Music labels must diversify distribution, develop stronger relationships with paying consumers, and expand commercial licensing opportunities. Streaming platforms must work towards expanding the paid music ecosystem rather than competing mainly for free listening hours. One potentially transformative opportunity lies in tie-ups between music streaming platforms and the digital commerce ecosystem.

Spotify could collaborate with Blinkit, Swiggy, Amazon, Flipkart, and other consumer internet businesses to offer music subscriptions bundled with memberships, loyalty programmes, and purchases. These could significantly expand consumer reach, reduce customer acquisition costs, and introduce paid music to consumers who might otherwise never purchase a standalone subscription.

Telecom operators, payment platforms, and financial institutions could play similar roles. India may require a fundamentally different pricing architecture from developed markets—platforms could experiment with ₹5 daily passes, ₹19 weekend packages, ₹29 weekly subscriptions, or affordable mobile-only plans. Even modest improvements in paid conversion across a large base could expand revenues, given the economics of customer acquisition, payment processing, and retention remain sustainable.

KARAN TAURANI
KUMAR TAURANI

Respectively EVP, Elara Capital, and Chairman, Tips Music

AI will increasingly influence how users discover, experience, and interact with music. AI-powered recommendations, multilingual search, mood-based playlists, and personalised listening experiences could improve engagement while extending the commercial life of catalogues. For labels, it creates opportunities to monetise older soundtracks, regional catalogues, and independent artists more effectively. AI could also improve content marketing, audience targeting, and royalty analytics. But generative AI presents challenges on copyright ownership, synthetic voices, and unauthorised use of recordings. The industry must establish licensing frameworks that ensure rights owners are fairly compensated.

India's music industry must also look beyond digital platforms. Restaurants, cafés, hotels, shopping malls, gyms, retail stores, salons, weddings, and organised events represent substantial commercial music consumption opportunities. Yet licensing remains fragmented, compliance is uneven, and collection mechanisms are often complex. Music companies and collective rights organisations should collaborate with large retail chains, QSR operators, hospitality firms, and commercial property owners to introduce simplified, standardised licensing arrangements.

India has already built one of the largest music-listening ecosystems. The next decade must focus on building one of its most commercially sustainable music industries. The opportunity is not simply to make Indians listen to more music, but to create an ecosystem where every stakeholder benefits from making music more valuable.

AT1 WRITE-OFF

YES BANK'S BONDHOLDERS FACED A REFEREE WHO BLEW THE WHISTLE HARD, BUT WITHOUT A RULEBOOK

A bond built to blow up

KRISHNAN RANGANATHAN

Former Executive Director, Nomura, alumnus of Harvard Business School, and a visiting faculty at B-schools

IN 2005, AN American economist, Mark Flannery, proposed a bond with a self-destruct button. His paper bore a title any gym trainer would love: "No Pain, No Gain." When a bank gets into trouble, a slice of its borrowings turns into shares or simply vanishes, topping up the owners' cushion (equity) without a rupee from taxpayers. Lloyds sold the first big batch in 2009; Basel III then made a perpetual version a formal layer of bank capital, Additional Tier 1 (AT1).

Think of it as a car's airbag: built to burst, but only in a crash, and only if it's wired in. Lloyds' bonds ended up in Britain's Supreme Court where bondholders lost 3-2 in 2016. Lawyers, it seems, are a standard feature of the product.

The Swiss precedent

In 2023, Switzerland bundled Credit Suisse into UBS over a weekend, and its regulator, Finma, erased about $17 billion of AT1s. Shareholders walked off with roughly $3 billion from UBS. The usual pecking order (owners lose first, lenders after) was turned upside down.

In 2025, Switzerland's Federal Administrative Court ruled the write-off unlawful. The bond contract allowed a wipe-out only if state support improved the bank's capital; the rescue gave Credit Suisse cash (liquidity), not a thicker loss-absorbing cushion (capital). The emergency decree Finma also leaned on lacked a legal basis. The damning exhibit was Credit Suisse's own email saying the write-down conditions were not met. Finma and UBS have appealed.

The Indian rhyme

In March 2020, the government, at the RBI's request, froze Yes Bank, and SBI led a ₹10,000-crore rescue. The draft reconstruction scheme allowed the AT1s to be written down; after objections, the final scheme dropped that clause. The administrator wrote off ₹8,415 crore anyway. This month the Supreme Court, upholding the Bombay High Court, inferred the Centre had made a "conscious decision" to drop it, leaving the administrator no power to use.

Same plot as Zurich: a hurried rescue, bondholders zeroed while shareholders survived, and officialdom undone by its own side's paperwork. One difference matters. The Swiss court found Credit Suisse still met its capital rules when it died. Yes Bank's core equity ratio had shrunk to 0.6%, against a 7.375% minimum, after a ₹18,564-crore quarterly loss. India's bondholders held a bond that deserved to die; Switzerland's did not.

Yes Bank's core equity ratio had shrunk to 0.6%, against a 7.375% minimum, after a ₹18,564-crore quarterly loss. India's bondholders held a bond that deserved to die

Did the authorities get it right?

On the big call, yes. Basel's rules exist precisely to make AT1 holders, paid 9% or more for the risk, share the pain when a bank reaches non-viability. On execution, no. Look at Spain's Banco Popular in 2017: shareholders were wiped out, the AT1s and the next layer of junior debt were converted and erased, and Santander bought the bank for €1. India let existing shareholders keep diluted stakes while bondholders got nothing. Indian rules permit that order; Europe's regulators insisted after Credit Suisse that equity goes first. Nor did anyone need to zero the bonds. The scheme could have converted them into shares at the rescuers' price of ₹10. Bondholders had offered to accept as little as a fifth. Right instinct, wrong paperwork, crooked pecking order.

Is the court right?

In law, yes. Taking property needs the authority of law, as India's Constitution (Article 300A) says, and the government's own scheme withdrew it. The global record is consistent: where the write-down power sat in statute, as in EU courts, judges upheld it; where it rested on a decree or a deleted clause, as in Switzerland and India, they struck it down. A bond that can be erased by official whim cannot be priced.

In economics, the result is awkward. With its auditor doubting it could carry on, a 2020 liquidation would probably have left these bondholders with nothing. That is the global yardstick: "no creditor worse off" than in liquidation. Restoring full principal leaves them far better off, at the expense of today's shareholders; many of the 2020 rescuers have since sold stakes to SMBC. Nor has the court made AT1s safe; it faulted this write-off, not all write-offs. Blame the drafters, not the judges.

Has Yes Bank behaved well?

Not before the crisis. Sebi fined it ₹25 crore for pitching AT1s to fixed-deposit customers as if they were deposits (the penalty is on interim stay). Appealing, as UBS did in Switzerland, was defensible. Its disclosure since helped: core equity (CET1) falls about 2.4 points to 11.4%, still above the 8% floor, and booking the hit would have turned the quarter's profit into a ₹5,217-crore loss. The running bill is nastier: coupons of 9.5% and 9%, about ₹770 crore a year, plus a fight over 5.5 years of unpaid coupons that Crisil reckons could push CET1 to 10%.

The right moves now: offer bondholders a buyback or a share swap, since perpetual bonds never mature and cash today tempts even winners; with the RBI's nod, call the 9%-plus paper, now past Basel's five-year minimum, and replace it more cheaply; raise equity through a rights issue, which lets SMBC (about 24%) chip in without crossing the 25% line that triggers an open offer; and book the full hit next quarter, saying whether back coupons are owed.

A new referee?

Will a separate resolution authority, as the withdrawn Financial Resolution and Deposit Insurance (FRDI) Bill of 2017 proposed, be better able to handle failing firms? America's Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation shows separation can work. Britain shows it's not necessary: the Bank of England, supervisor and resolver under one roof, sold SVB's British arm to HSBC for £1 over a weekend in 2023. Yes Bank's bondholders were hurt by a hard referee without a rulebook, not a soft one. And the FRDI Bill died in 2018 partly over turf, mostly over fear that its "bail-in" clause would raid deposits. Change the rulebook before changing the referee.

The airbag only deploys if it is wired in.

Indo-US ties aren't exceptional

US always driven by strategic and commercial interests; much of what Indian policymakers need to do is independent of how they strategise with respect to the US-India relationship

THERE IS AN easy conceptual pairing between India and the United States, the world's largest democracy and the world's oldest. India's role in the development of the US software sector—jumpstarted by the Y2K problem and the agility of a few Indian information technology firms—has been the most prominent example of US-India ties. These headline examples often translate into the idea of a special US-India relationship.

In reality, there has been nothing special about relations between India and the US. The US has always been driven by its strategic and commercial interests. During the Cold War with the Soviet Union, including the rapprochement with China, India was peripheral or even an obstacle to US global strategy. It is only in recent years, with China now viewed as a major geopolitical rival and even a threat, that the US has wooed India as a strategic partner.

The primacy of the US's pursuit of its military security interests does not mean that commercial interests have been irrelevant. Indeed, in several cases US-sponsored overthrows of elected governments have been closely tied to the interests of its multinational corporations. In some cases, oil or other natural resources have been the target, as they continue to be to this day. But US corporate interests tied to agriculture have also been important.

This history is good to keep in mind when thinking about current US-India ties. There are many interactions at the governmental level, of course, typically in Washington, DC. But California's status as a technology hub makes it stand out. In the past few months, the University of California at San Diego, University of California at Santa Cruz, and Stanford University have all hosted conferences with organisations that focus on US-India technology and business connections. Despite the negative impacts of recent changes in federal funding for university research, universities like these three (and many others) remain important sources of innovation and technical education. They are part of a value chain that has developed over decades, helping to transform the global economy.

India's economy can benefit more from collaborations with other economies, including Japan, South Korea, Germany, the UK, and many others

A few years ago, the US government's policies seemed to favour deeper strategic and commercial engagement between India and the US. But dramatic changes under the current administration call for a re-evaluation of what India's strategy should be. History actually teaches us that the US has not been a reliable commercial partner for India. In fact, many of the products and services that the US produces are not well suited for India—American cars and appliances are often too big, or not engineered well for Indian conditions, or designed for a different geographic scale, one with abundant land. Aside from a narrow set of frontier technologies where the US lead matters, India's economy can benefit more from collaborations with any number of other economies, including Japan, South Korea, Germany, the UK, and many others.

The point is that, while there are understandable reasons why US universities have an interest in supporting the US-India relationship in technology and innovation, and developments in the last two decades have favoured that alignment, for India, a more diversified approach to acquiring know-how and capital makes sense. The other countries with which it can collaborate are not authoritarian, and they often have versions of social democracy that are more appealing than the US approach to capitalism, so a match of political systems is not unique to the US-Indian pairing.

What are the practical implications for India, if it recognises and seeks to implement a more diversified approach to acquiring the capabilities it needs for sustained economic growth? Indian students are already shifting from the US (which is raising visa barriers along with racist rhetoric from government officials) to other countries for higher education. The presence of Indian-origin faculty and graduates of its universities in the US create some inertia. But building educational hubs in India—for Indian students but also for those from other countries, with faculty attracted from around the world—is a more flexible strategy for diversifying India's connections to the global economy than sending students abroad.

India has students that need to be educated, and sending them abroad to many countries has some advantages. Those students make connections and they learn about the ecosystems that exist around the universities they attend. But this is costly, restricts access for many Indian students, and stunts the development of India's own ecosystems of innovation and training. China began to build its own domestic knowledge ecosystems decades ago. The payoff has been coming in recent years, with China becoming a leader in all kinds of products and technologies.

Policies to reduce frictions in international trade and investment will also be needed, as will tax policies that encourage more domestic risk-taking, and greater public investment in frontier research. Much of what Indian policymakers need to do is independent of how they strategise with respect to the US-India relationship. That relationship is important, and it will stay important going forward. But it should be a smaller part of India's portfolio of global trade, investment, and technology connections than it has become in the last two decades.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Tata group's future

Apropos of "Tata's test of stewardship" (FE, October 20), ownership of a respected business group brings responsibilities beyond financial returns. The Tata group's legacy rests on public trust, ethical conduct, and a long-term commitment to employees and society. Disputes over leadership or control must not undermine these values. Clear governance rules, independent oversight, and transparent decision-making are essential to protect the institution from personal differences. Professional management should be allowed to function without undue interference, while trustees must remain accountable for decisions affecting the group's future. Preserving the group's culture while adapting to changing business conditions would be the best way to honour its founders and maintain public confidence.

Pricing transparency

"Healthcare pricing debate needs wider lens" (FE, October 20) rightly calls for balancing affordability, quality, and sustainable investment in healthcare, but the real challenge is translating these principles into practice. Transparency must begin with hospitals and doctors, who should clearly disclose treatment options, expected outcomes, itemised costs, and reasonably available alternatives before patients commit their savings. Patients cannot make informed choices when medical decisions are complex and information gaps favour healthcare providers. The government must strengthen consumer awareness while advocacy groups should also educate patients, scrutinise billing practices, and provide grievance support.

WITH A NEW HYBRID OFFERING, RENAULT IS TRYING TO MAKE INROADS INTO A SMALL BUT FAST-GROWING SPACE IN THE COMPACT SUV SEGMENT RULED BY MARUTI & TOYOTA

VIKRAM CHAUDHARY

SECOND COMINGS IN business are rarely overnight successes; they require rebuilding trust, adapting to new market conditions, and shedding old baggage.

For Duster it's been on a slow, winding journey to reclaim its former glory.

But can a brand attempt a second coming while it's still struggling with a second coming? Renault India is trying to do precisely that with the launch of a strong hybrid just seven months after reviving the legendary SUV nameplate in March 2026.

The new offering is competitively priced between ₹16.99 lakh and ₹19.49 lakh (ex-showroom). Hybrid rivals Maruti Suzuki Grand Vitara and Victoris wear price tags of ₹16.68-19.77 lakh and ₹16.43-19.99 lakh, respectively. Another strong contender in the space, Toyota Hyryder, is priced ₹17.18-20.19 lakh, performs well as an economical family SUV, tuned for relaxed city driving. Honda City e:HEV is available at ₹21.44 lakh.

The Duster hybrid's top-spec version is about ₹13,000-₹82,000 less than rivals. And despite the much larger engine (1.8 litre), the product offers the best fuel efficiency (29 kmpl), thanks to a larger battery pack that is more than double the size used by Maruti and Toyota.

That's where this second coming within the larger second coming assumes significance. During the hybrid launch, Renault pushed a new pitch: "Forget diesel, go hybrid".

As a package, the Duster hybrid builds a solid case for those looking for an efficient car without worrying about a dedicated charging setup. But the brand needs more than just a new powertrain and aggressive pricing to mount a serious attack on rivals. To start with, it must overhaul customer engagement and brand positioning to turn class-leading specifications into showroom footfalls and sales, say experts. That apart, the automotive landscape has changed vastly since its heyday. The original icon built its reputation on a torquey diesel engine. The market has moved on with petrol, CNG, and hybrids as the powertrains of choice.

An uphill task

The brand has its task cut out. As Priya Narayanan, associate professor of Marketing Management at IIM Kozhikode, highlights, the midsize SUV arena is no longer an open highway, but is heavily fortified. "In the short term, a brand can suffer from a perception deficit if the market feels it didn't do enough at the initial launch," she says.

Even though the original Duster was a trailblazer that created the midsize SUV segment back in July 2012 — it was discontinued in February 2022 due to intense competition — the brand couldn't replicate its success during its second coming, offered in 1.0-litre and 1.3-litre petrol engines.

Data sourced from the Society of Indian Automobile Manufacturers shows that since its relaunch in March when it sold 1,402 units and peaked in April at 2,359 units, sales plummeted to 465 units in September. It sold a total of 7,422 units in seven months—peanuts in comparison to the Hyundai Creta and Kia Seltos that operate in the same category and recorded sales of 107,565 and 78,708 units, respectively, during the same period.

"When a cult brand attempts a comeback, it carries a heavy burden —the ghost of its own legacy," adds Narayanan. "Relaunching a successful nameplate is vastly different from introducing a new product, as brands must battle not just their current rivals, but also the inflated benchmarks of their past."

Renault must also bump up its presence in the country. Maruti Suzuki operates the largest and most deeply penetrated distribution and service network in the country, with close to 4,000 sales outlets spanning more than 2,500 towns and cities. Toyota focuses on a leaner, higher-yield retail footprint with around 675 authorised showrooms nationwide. Renault maintains a smaller boutique presence, operating roughly 400 dealerships. It is heavily concentrated in urban and semi-urban clus-ters, giving it a thinner rural and tier-3/tier-4 reach compared to the Japanese duo.

The Duster, however, is not the only one to post a shaky restart. The reimagined Tata Sierra—launched in December 2025 after its 1991 to 2003 initial run—sold 48,471 units in the last seven months, a respectable number in isolation, but less than half of the Creta's tally. Contrast that with the Mahindra Thar, which Prof Narayanan notes, succeeded because it managed to exceed the high-watermark set by its predecessor.

"Reviving a legacy nameplate can be a double-edged sword," adds a brand expert who works closely with carmakers. "If you drift too far from the original's DNA, you alienate purists; if you stay too close, new buyers might not even take notice. That said, the Duster hybrid's price is competitive and will likely provide a much-needed second wind but not a full-scale resurrection on its own."

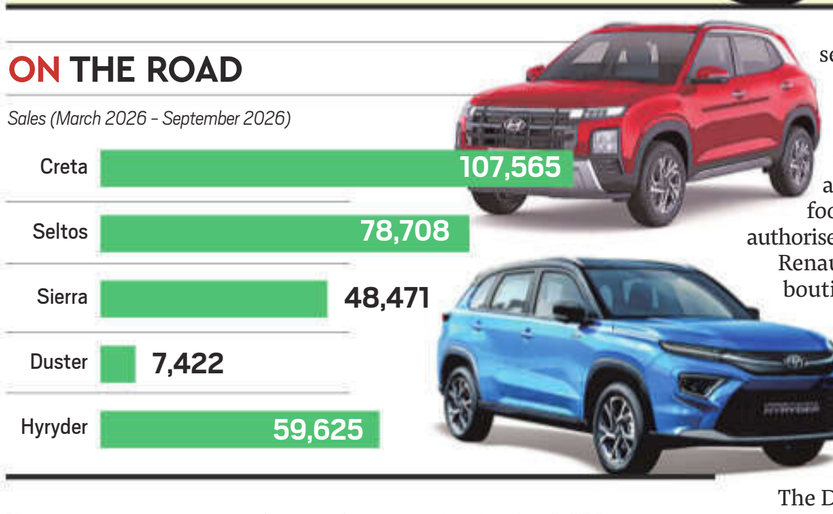

SECOND INNINGS

- Even though the original Duster created the midsize SUV segment back in July 2012, the brand couldn't replicate its success during its second coming
- The new Duster has sold just 7,422 – peanuts in comparison to the Hyundai Creta and Kia Seltos that recorded sales of 107,565 and 78,708 units, respectively
- The original Duster built its reputation on a diesel engine. But today the market has moved on, with petrol, CNG, and hybrids as the powertrains of choice
- Priced competitively against strong hybrid rivals Maruti Suzuki Grand Vitara (₹16.68-19.77 lakh) and Toyota Hyryder (₹17.18-20.19 lakh), the Duster hybrid (₹16.99-19.49 lakh) has the segment's biggest engine & best fuel efficiency
- The road ahead requires more than a new powertrain and aggressive pricing; it needs to convert class-leading specifications into showroom footfalls

A difficult balancing act

ISHANK JOSHI

ADVERTISING HAS MOVED beyond where to place a message. The harder task is deciding which signals matter and whether activity creates business value. AI-powered campaign intelligence can turn growing volumes of data into actionable decisions. The goal is not to automate everything, but to make better-informed choices. This marks a shift from service-led execution towards platform-led workflows, where intelligence informs decisions continuously rather than only after a campaign ends.

IAB and BWG Global's 2026 State of Data research found that three in four marketers believe their measurement approaches fall short on speed, accuracy or trust. AI can assess contextual information, permitted behavioural signals, historical performance and live engagement to guide bidding, budgets, audience selection and inventory choices. Its value depends on signal quality and clear objectives.

For consumers, personalisation is an experience, not a technical achievement. An ad that reflects the content someone is engaging with or a need they are exploring can be relevant for consumers without intrusive tracking. A Deloitte Digital 2026 study highlights the disconnect: 87% of brand leaders rate their personalisation efforts as good or excellent; only 29% of consumers agree. Advertisers must ask not just how accurately they can target, but whether the message improves the experience. Frequency without relevance turns personalisation into repetition.

Privacy cannot be a disclaimer added after optimisation. Advertisers must ensure that audience signals are collected and used responsibly. This includes obtaining appropriate consent and complying with applicable privacy requirements.

Trust also depends on the media environment. Advertisers should understand how budgets are deployed and why a system changes course. This matters commercially. Cisco's 2024 Consumer Privacy Survey found that 75% of respondents would not buy from organisations they did not trust with their data. AI can adjust bids as competition and conversion likelihood shift, move budgets towards stronger-performing campaigns, test creative variations and flag sudden changes in costs or conversion rates.

Advertisers should connect media activity to purchases, revenue, acquisition costs, retention and customer lifetime value where possible. Attribution offers one view of performance; incrementality testing and control groups help assess whether advertising generated outcomes that would not otherwise have occurred.

Competitive advantage will not come from using AI to make more decisions. It will come from a disciplined feedback loop. Define the outcome, use relevant and responsibly obtained signals, explain the intervention, test the result and apply the learning to future investment. That is how campaign intelligence can improve returns without treating consumer trust as a trade-off.

GLOBAL SPOTLIGHT

Value versus price tag

WHEN MONEY IS tight, the hardest thing to give up is not quantity but the products and brands people feel emotionally attached to. That's the message Tesco tried to deliver through its "For the Love of It" campaign.

The brand avoided the most familiar price comparison route and reframed the idea of "value" around consumer devotion. It acknowledged the fact that our favourite products and brands are deeply embedded in our everyday life, so trying to compare their prices against any other brand is a fruitless exercise. Tesco tied its Everyday Low Prices offer with the For the Love of It idea turning trust into an emotional payoff.

Developed by BBH London, the film used a lot of drama and humour to mirror those moments of internal negotiation that we all face regularly, highlighting the everyday face-off between brand loyalty and restraint. In the process, the campaign elevated the idea of brand "value" into a brand commitment.

Even while the whole campaign revolved around a product's "price" it didn't feel transactional at all. It also managed to erase the sense of guilt one often feels when splurging on things they adore.

Chennai, Kolkata airports ...

CHENNAI AIRPORT HANDLED 23.01 million passengers in FY2025-26, marking a 2.7% y-o-y increase and exceeding the pre-Covid level of 22.54 million passengers. The existing terminals have a combined annual capacity of 30 million passengers, which is expected to rise to 35 million following the commissioning of the new terminal.

Kolkata Airport is a major aviation hub serving West Bengal and acting as the primary air gateway to Northeast India. It is India's sixth-busiest airport by passenger traffic, handling over 21 million passengers annually. Private players bring additional capital and leverage their expertise and strengths to develop infrastructure assets efficiently and enhance service quality.

The PPP-AC, at its meeting on August 4, granted its in-principle approval to the Ministry of Civil Aviation's proposal to monetise 11 airports by offering them in five bundles—Amritsar-Kangra, Varanasi-Gaya-Kushinagar, Bhubaneswar-Hubballi, Raipur-Aurangabad and Tiruchirappalli-Tirupati—for operation, management and development over 50 years.

Airport monetisation began in India in 2003 under NDA government, with the approval of PPPs for Delhi and Mumbai airports. Under the arrangement, AAI retained a 26% stake, while private partners held the remaining 74%. In 2006, the GMR won the bid for Delhi airport, while the GVK secured Mumbai airport via a competitive revenue-sharing model. The Adani Group took over the operations of Mumbai airport from GVK in February 2021.

Q-comm faces freshness test in premium...

PURU GUPTA, FOUNDER and operating partner at Proteus Partners, said the ability to balance quality, reliability and convenience would be critical to building a sustainable business in the segment.

The implications extend beyond customer experience to the economics of the business. Companies need to manage inventory carefully to minimise spoilage while maintaining sufficient assortment to meet demand. The supplied market projections point to a significant opportunity: a Google-Deloitte report estimates that India's quick-commerce market could reach $50 billion to $90 billion by 2030-31, serving 70 million to more than 100 million shoppers. However, growth in the overall market does not automatically translate into attractive economics for premium fresh produce.

Ankur Mittal, co-founder of Inflection Point Ventures, said the winning model would prioritise sourcing, freshness control and traceability, with delivery speed becoming a byproduct rather than the main selling point. Knowing where produce was grown and when it was harvested could matter more to consumers than whether it arrived in 10 minutes or 40 minutes.

According to Anand Ramanathan, partner and consumer industry leader at Deloitte South Asia, success will depend on sourcing standards, inventory management, cold-chain integrity and fulfilment quality. He said companies could adopt a tiered approach, using local inventory for frequent replenishment purchases while offering specialised or imported produce through scheduled same-day or next-day delivery.

The shift could require quick-commerce platforms to move beyond a single delivery promise for every category. While speed remains important for standardised, shelf-stable products, premium fresh produce may require a different operating model. Mittal said a business that consistently delivers produce within hours of harvesting could have an advantage in customer retention over one focused solely on cutting delivery times.

Rising bond yields add to banks' ECL...

SINGH TOLD FE that the final bill would depend on bond yields prevailing on April 1, 2027. "Since these yields have hardened, under mark to market there will be little more provision that is required," he said.

The bank, however, is confident of absorbing the additional ₹2,000-3,000 crore burden without a significant dent in its capital position or profitability.

"We have already raised our provision coverage ratio by 175 bps to 95.34%. Our Common Equity Tier 1 capital also is 12.80% against regulatory requirement of 8.5% only," Singh said.

Indian Bank, too, is bracing for a possible valuation hit over and above its estimated ECL requirement of ₹3,500 crore.

"Our ECL impact is ₹3,500 crore, but there will also be an impact from HTM valuation, which will depend on yields. Yields have suddenly hardened, but I think they will come down a little," managing director and chief executive Binod Kumar said.

The bank has already set aside ₹2,500 crore towards its estimated ECL requirement, leaving it better placed to absorb the transition impact.

The concern stems from two major regulatory changes taking effect simultaneously. The ECL framework will require banks to recognise potential credit losses based on forward-looking assessments rather than waiting for signs of actual stress. Separately, revised investment valuation norms could expose banks to losses on their HTM portfolios, depending on prevailing market yields.

The timing is particularly challenging. Bond prices move inversely to yields, meaning a sustained rise in yields could translate into higher valuation losses and push up the one-time transition cost. A decline in yields before the implementation date, on the other hand, could soften the blow.

Interestingly, while the bond market is emerging as a fresh source of uncertainty, the ECL provisioning picture at several banks has become more manageable.

Punjab National Bank has pared its estimated ECL requirement to around ₹8,000 crore from ₹9,000-9,500 crore earlier, following improvements in its calculation systems. The lender made an additional provision of ₹1,100 crore during the September quarter to prepare for the transition.

Union Bank of India has kept its estimate of additional ECL provisions unchanged at ₹5,500 crore. Federal Bank, meanwhile, continues to expect a one-time transition impact equivalent to 1.5-2% of its net worth.

For banks, the challenge is therefore shifting from estimating credit losses to managing the combined impact of provisioning and investment valuation. With just over five months to go before the new norms take effect, the direction of government bond yields could prove crucial in determining how expensive the transition ultimately becomes.

Growth will come from multiple engines: Akash

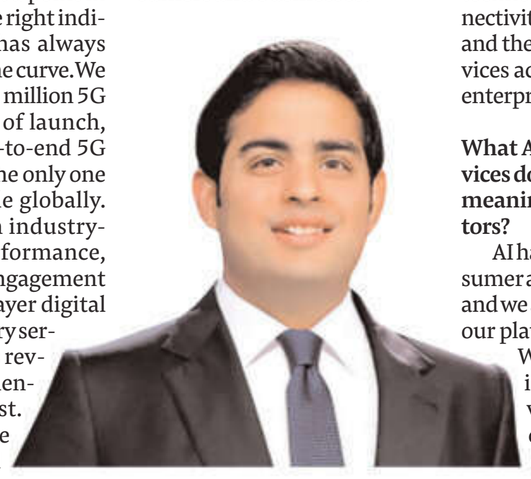

Jio has a smaller postpaid subscriber base than Airtel. Does scaling up postpaid become a priority? Can it offer greater flexibility to improve realisations through premium plans and bundled benefits?

Customer wants a service, and mode of payment is not the right classification for how they receive the service. Our job is to build products good enough that customers choose to do more on Jio, whatever plan they are on. We believe more value can be created for shareholders and customers by operating multiple levers beyond realisation, especially by focusing on more services and increasing value through higher consumption, apart from an increase in realisation.

What is the right frequency for telecom tariff hikes? Should the industry move towards smaller, more frequent revisions? How do you balance returns on capital with affordability?

How often to revise tariffs is each operator's call. Affordability is part of our strategy; it comes from our technology architecture, integrated operations and national scale. Return on capital at a point in time may not be the right indicator because Jio has always invested ahead of the curve. We built more than one million 5G cells within a year of launch, using our own end-to-end 5G standalone stack, the only one at nationwide scale globally. This is reflected in industry-best network performance, higher customer engagement and the ability to layer digital services on top. Every service we add brings revenue at low incremental acquisition cost. With the capex cycle now behind us, all growth in revenue and incremental Ebitda should drive an upswing in return on capital.

Where does Jio see its biggest competitive advantage in AI: compute infrastructure, indigenous models or taking AI-powered services to consumers and businesses?

Our edge is owning the whole path to the customer: network, platform and applications. AI matters only when it reaches people, and we serve 533 million customers and understand each one of them deeply. Our strength lies in the combination of proprietary technology, nationwide connectivity, a large customer base and the reach to distribute services across mobile, home and enterprise.

What AI-led products or services do you expect to become meaningful revenue generators?

AI has potential in both consumer and enterprise markets, and we are embedding it across our platforms and operations. We are focused on building useful, scalable services that create lasting customer value. Many of our AI services are live, and many more are coming, focused on Indian use cases and natively working in 12 Indian languages. In the future, we would rather ship products and let users decide than forecast revenue.

5G has struggled to gain traction in enterprises. Why has this happened, and how can the situation be remedied?

I would distinguish between the potential of 5G for enterprises and the pace at which use cases become commercially viable. The way forward is to move from selling technology to solving business problems: work with enterprises on use cases, simplify deployment and demonstrate outcomes. We are building enterprise solutions, including private 5G, with the priority on practical adoption. We are running private 5G trials in manufacturing, warehousing and mining.

PUSH TO REVIVE GROWTH

- Netflix's stock falls 25% in 2026
- Shares drop 14% in September
- Company wins fewest Emmy Awards in a decade
- User engagement stalls amid a lack of hit content
- Netflix moves to boost content & grow its audience
- Peter Rice replaces Bela Bajaria as content chief
- Company to cut about 1,000 jobs globally to reduce costs

NETFLIX NEEDS TO prove that it can produce hit movies and TV series again to stop a slide that has erased more than $135 billion in market value this year.

The streaming giant reports earnings after the close Tuesday, and investors will likely be more more attuned to what content executives say is coming over the next six months than the company's third-quarter numbers.

The stock is down 25% in 2026, putting Netflix among the 10 worst performers in the technology-heavy Nasdaq 100 Index and on track for its worst year since 2022, and it's coming off a 14% decline in September. The reason is no secret to anyone following the company — user engagement has stalled due to a lack of popular content despite heavy spending driven by a crowded, competitive entertainment landscape. Netflix won the fewest Emmy Awards in a decade this year, and the company isn't growing fast enough, according to Co-Chief Executive Officer Ted Sarandos.

"The content's getting very expensive, and there's just still too many players," said Ken Mahoney of Mahoney Asset Management. "I think there's so many better tech stories out there than Netflix that have sticky customers."

Netflix is taking steps to improve its content and raise its audience numbers. On Monday, it announced that the head of its film division, Dan Lin, was leaving, and last week replaced its chief content officer, Bela Bajaria, with Peter Rice, the former chairman of Walt Disney Television. The company also plans to cut about 1,000 positions in various departments globally in a bid to reduce costs.

For investors, however, the issue is this earnings report won't reflect those moves. And even if executives give a solid revenue outlook, it's unlikely to quell the debate around engagement, according to Bloomberg Intelligence analyst Geetha Raganathan.

"A stronger Q4 slate could revive viewing and ads, but investors will want proof that engagement can improve without derailing margin expansion," she wrote in an October 19 note. The addition of Rice signals a potential pivot toward "more premium, conversation-driving originals and higher 2027 content spending," she added. —BLOOMBERG

China warns of global turmoil at APEC meet

CHINA'S FINANCE MINISTER opened a key gathering of APEC officials in Hong Kong by delivering a warning about global economic uncertainty and tumult, calling for a joint effort to prevent spillovers from policy shifts.

"The international landscape is increasingly turbulent and complex, with geopolitical conflicts spilling across borders and posing multiple challenges to global economic growth," Lan Fo'an said at the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) finance ministers' meeting on Tuesday. While short on detail, Lan's brief remarks struck a note of caution at a time when the world economy is becoming more protectionist and coming under increasing pressure from the shockwaves of the war in West Asia. In the backdrop are elevated bond yields that are raising financing costs while oil prices add to inflation concerns.

"It is essential to strengthen macroeconomic policy dialogue and safeguard regional economic and financial stability," said Lan. "Member economies should strengthen the stability and health of their macro economic policies. In the meantime, we must strengthen policy communications, to prevent the negative spillover impact of policy adjustments in a coordinated way." Government bond yields in the US, Europe and Japan recently hit multi-decade highs as the Iran war and growing oil prices create risks for inflation and fiscal policy.

LAN FO'AN,
MINISTER OF FINANCE,
PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

"It is essential to strengthen macroeconomic policy dialogue and safeguard regional economic and financial stability

Questions over outsized debts and rising borrowing costs dominated discussions at last week's International Monetary Fund and World Bank meetings in Bangkok, with the IMF warning that central banks may need to keep interest rates higher for longer to tame inflation even though that would worsen debt dynamics.

The People's Bank of China was already vocal about the spillover effect from the bond crisis in advanced economies.

Pan Gongsheng, governor of the Chinese central bank, said in a statement last week the financial system is getting "more fragile" due to factors including "sharp swings" of government bonds in "some countries." His deputy, Xuan Changneng, also weighed in, arguing that the recent rise of what he called "risk-free" rates in global markets has raised the cost of borrowing for developing countries and increased their debt-servicing burdens.

The APEC meeting has drawn finance officials from 21 economies, representing more than 60% of global GDP. It marks Hong Kong's first time hosting the event and its highest-profile assembly of policymakers from major markets in years. —REUTERS

NSCALE, THE AI cloud computing firm, is in talks to sell computing power to Anthropic PBC in a deal that could be worth about $45 billion, according to sources.

The Nvidia-backed data centre developer is seeking a second major deal with the firm behind Claude for a second facility at its Monarch data centre campus in West Virginia, the people said. Anthropic has agreements in place with Nscale for infrastructure that's worth about $44.6 billion, according to a regulatory filing for Nscale's IPO.

The second Monarch building would deliver 460 megawatts of computing power, using Nvidia's advanced Vera Rubin AI chips, some of the people said. Anthropic also has the right of first refusal on Monarch's expected third building, they said.

A deal could be finalised as soon as in the coming days, the people said, asking not to be identified as the discussions are private. Deliberations are ongoing, details of the plan could change and no final decisions have been made, the people said. Representatives for Anthropic and Nscale refused to comment.

Nscale is targeting an IPO that would value the company at $30 billion, but its prospects have been undermined by delays to building its data centres and Microsoft withdrawing from a UK project. A cohort of investors urged the firm to lower its IPO valuation target to between $16 billion and $19 billion, Bloomberg reported. —BLOOMBERG

Salesforce to buy Braze for $5.66 bn

SALESFORCE SAID ON Tuesday it would acquire New York-based Braze for about $5.66 billion to bolster its business software offerings with the company's AI-powered personalisation tools. The deal is the latest bet by Salesforce to accelerate its AI transition as investors worry that the rapid adoption of the technology could erode demand for traditional software. Braze Class A shareholders will get $47.50 in cash per share held. —REUTERS

Textile units de-risk...

KARAN MITTAL, DIRECTOR of Kottex Industries, which exports linen fabric to the US and Latin American markets, said shipments to the US fell 60-70% during the peak tariff period. The company plans to expand exports to Latin American countries to offset the decline.

However, Prabhu D, convener of the Indian Texpreneurs Federation (ITF), said diversification had yet to translate into a decisive shift away from the US market. "We need a more focused strategy to penetrate markets such as Japan and Russia, while exploring substantial untapped opportunities within many EU countries." Prabhu said. MMF apparel, according to him, offers scope for growth as India still accounts for just 2% of the $3.5-billion US market here.

Market access remains a key challenge. India has historically faced a tariff disadvantage in the UK, where its exports attracted duties of 10-12%, while competitors such as Bangladesh, Cambodia and Vietnam enjoyed duty-free access. The India-UK free trade agreement, signed last year, is expected to improve market access and reduce trade barriers.

Exporters nevertheless remain cautious about how quickly new markets can compensate for lost US orders. "It takes six months to a year to build a new buyer relationship in new markets. Also, a single US order can be for half a million pieces — other markets cannot match that scale," said Siva Subramaniam, founder and chairman of Tiruppur-based innerwear exporter Raft Garments. The company's US orders for the Christmas season were 25-30% lower than a year earlier amid renewed uncertainty over 100% tariffs

Last month, Trump had signed an executive order imposing 100% tariffs under the Lindsey O Graham Sanctioning Russia and Iran Act on countries importing Russian oil and gas. The tariffs were waived on national-interest grounds last week. Subramaniam said orders could pick up in the coming weeks once US buyers assessed the implications of the latest policy changes.

Further trade action is another concern. CITI's Chatterjee flagged the US's 10% tariff on Indian goods over alleged forced-labour concerns, following Section 301 investigations. With no expiry date, the tariff also poses reputational risks. While rivals face similar rates, exemptions allowing some countries' textile and apparel exports to enter the US without Section 301 tariffs could divert orders from India, she said.

Exporters see opportunities in the second half of FY27 and beyond, supported by a possible India-US trade deal, an early resolution to the conflict in West Asia and improved market access through free trade agreements, particularly the proposed pact with the European Union. "We are quite optimistic about the second half of FY27. Inquiries and buyer engagement from the UK are increasing, while easing Russia-related tariff concerns could trigger renewed US inquiries and help recover earlier export volumes," Prabhu said.

Profits surge ahead of sales in early Q2 results

TCS CEO K KRITHIVASAN said the company saw broad-based growth across international markets and most industry segments, while demand for AI-led transformation was gaining momentum. HCLTech's C Vijayakumar, however, cautioned that the demand environment remained fluid, despite an improvement towards the end of the quarter. The contrasting commentary underlines the sector's challenge: converting growing interest in AI into sustained revenue growth as clients continue to scrutinise traditional technology spending. Infosys is scheduled to report its September-quarter earnings on October 23

Consumer businesses are seeing stronger sales, but the extent to which this translates into profits varies. Nestle India's revenue rose 20.3% to ₹6,788 crore, while consolidated net profit increased 35.9% to ₹1,010 crore, supported by double-digit volume growth. However, the company flagged rising food inflation and continued commodity cost pressures, with sugar and edible oil prices remaining elevated and cocoa prices volatile. Chairman and Managing Director Manish Tiwary said the company would focus on product innovation, productivity and operational efficiencies to mitigate the pressure. At Avenue Supermarts, which operates DMart, revenue grew 17.8% to ₹19,644 crore, but net profit rose a slower 8.5% to ₹743 crore, highlighting how operating costs can limit the conversion of sales growth into earnings.

Cement has also delivered double-digit growth. UltraTech Cement's net sales rose 18.9% to ₹23,024 crore and net profit increased 21.3% to ₹1,501 crore. Domestic cement volumes grew 13.8%, helping offset monsoon-related disruptions and other operating headwinds. The performance points to the role of volume growth and operating efficiencies in supporting earnings.

Banks are reporting healthy loan growth and stronger core income, but pressure on lending margins and uneven treasury income are making profit growth less uniform. ICICI Bank's net interest income rose 17.7% year-on-year, while its net profit increased 20.1% to ₹14,843 crore, supported by strong advances growth and lower provisions. Axis Bank's profit rose 38% to ₹7,003 crore, helped by higher core income and improving asset quality. HDFC Bank, in contrast, reported a 4.7% increase in net profit to ₹19,510 crore, as weaker treasury gains offset growth in interest income. The results suggest that credit demand remains resilient, but the ability to translate loan growth into earnings will depend on funding costs, margins and the contribution of non-interest income.

The early trends suggest that corporate profitability is holding up better than revenue growth alone would indicate.

Trade deal just weeks away from finalising, says Rubio

ON THE US' earlier decision to target countries importing Russian oil and gas with up to 100% tariffs — President Donald Trump announced a waiver last week — and whether it could affect economic ties, Rubio said: "I mean, it can. There's no doubt about it, and that's why it has to be managed. It has to be managed very carefully, and that's why the relationship we have is so critical. We certainly don't want to do things. None of these tariffs are done to punish or to harm India."

Speaking on the US administration's visa restrictions, he said, "We are trying to fix 20 years of neglect of an immigration system that was simply not being enforced, and that's not targeted at India."

Looking back at his almost two years as US Secretary of State, Rubio said India-US ties have been "positive" and the Quad was an example of "very strong cooperation" with India, which is beginning to "actually turn ideas into action".

When asked about the Trump administration being soft on China, he rejected the perception. "Soft is not the right terminology...the attitude of this administration has been to try to find a level of strategic stability in our relationship with them," he said. He added that a US-China trade war would be "devastating to the global economy" and would "impact India".

Allaying Indian concerns on the Trump administration's relations with Pakistan's generals, Rubio said: "What everyone should be assured of in India is that our relationship, not just with Pakistan but with any country in the world, will never come at the expense of our relationship. We don't view it that way in our relationship with India."

Rubio in Jamnagar today

RUBIO WAS IN Mumbai on Tuesday. He said that the Indian refiners were willing to process more Venezuelan oil, while acknowledging that some sanctions-related hurdles would need to be worked through. "India is a refining superpower. They have the capability to refine heavy crude. They've done so in the past, and I think as more and more Venezuelan oil comes online, it's something they can do," he said.

His remarks put India's large and complex refining system at the centre of Washington's plans to bring more Venezuelan oil into global markets. Rubio said Venezuela alone could not immediately fill supply gaps created elsewhere, but additional production could help in the short term and become more significant over time.

"With India, we've talked about it in the past, and they sound ready. They're willing to do it. There might be a few impediments that stand in the way in terms of sanctions and so forth that we'll have to work through," he said. "India has expressed repeatedly its desire to diversify its energy portfolio, which is a smart thing to do. It's not easy to do that from one day to the next."

The discussion comes as India seeks to widen its crude sourcing options amid volatile global supplies and geopolitical risks.

Rubio added that India had made "substantial progress" in diversifying its crude sources and that the issue went beyond purchases of Russian crude. "In the end, it's not just about Russian oil; it's about India's desire to diversify, and we think we can be a source of some of its energy inputs," Rubio said.

India's overall crude imports rose to around 5.3 million bpd in September, while Russian supplies declined to about 1.75 million bpd as refiners diversified their purchases, according to Kpler data reported last month.

Qualcomm to cut jobs worldwide

REUTERS
October 20

QUALCOMM WILL CUT jobs globally in a "performance-focused reduction" following its annual employee reviews, CEO Cristiano Amon told staff in a memo reviewed by Reuters, with notifications set to begin in November. The cuts are part of an effort to build "a stronger performance culture" and address situations where the company "has consistently fallen short of expectations," Amon said.

The memo did not say how many jobs would be affected, and Reuters could not immediately determine the scale of the cuts.

Qualcomm did not immediately respond to a request for comment. It had about 52,000 employees globally as of September last year, most of them full-time. Its financial year typically ends in late September.

One of the world's biggest smartphone chipmakers, Qualcomm has been hit this year by a slump in consumer electronics sales as soaring memory prices weigh on demand in key markets. Its shares have risen just 1.5% in 2026, compared with gains of more than 12% for the benchmark S&P 500 and nearly 60% for the Philadelphia Semiconductor Index. Qualcomm shares were up more than 1% after trading down about 0.5% earlier on Tuesday. In its latest earnings report, Qualcomm forecast quarterly profit below estimates and said revenue from Apple products would decline faster than expected, while signaling that growth in data-center and other non-handset businesses would more than offset the lost revenue by fiscal 2027.

11.	Recommendation on the Open offer, as to whether the offer is fair and reasonable	IDC is of the opinion that the Offer is fair and reasonable. The Offer Price of Rs. 23.35/- (Rupees Twenty-Three and Thirty-Five Paisa only) per Equity Share is in accordance with the Regulation 8(2) of the SEBI (SAST) Regulations as on the date of PA. The shareholders may independently evaluate the offer price vis-à-vis market price and take an informed decision in the best of their interests.
12.	Summary of reasons for recommendation (IDC may also invite attention to any other place, e.g. company's website, where its detailed recommendations along with written advice of the independent adviser, if any can be seen by the shareholder)	IDC has evaluated the Public Announcement ("PA"), Detailed Public Statement ("DPS"), Draft Letter of Offer ("DLOF") and Letter of Offer ("LOF") prepared by Manager to the Offer for and on behalf of Acquirers and PACs and the valuation report prepared by independent Chartered Accountant and Registered Valuer. Based on the above, the IDC is of the opinion that the Offer Price, being offered by the Acquirers and PACs of Rs. 23.35 per fully paid-up Equity Share is fair and reasonable and recommends the acceptance of the Open Offer, in the light of the following: • The shares were frequently traded on the stock exchange as on the date of PA. • The Offer Price offered by the Acquirers and PACs is in line with the regulation prescribed by SEBI under the SEBI (SAST) Regulations and prima facie appears to be justified. • The Preferential issue price as calculated as per Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018 for Equity Shares and Convertible Warrants to be issued to the Acquirers, PACs and others (public shareholders) is Rs. 23.10/-. • The Offer Price offered by the Acquirers and PACs of Rs. 23.35/- is higher than the issue cum allotment price of Rs. 23.10/- per Equity Share and Warrants offered in Preferential Allotment to the Acquirers, PACs and Others (public shareholders). However, IDC would like to draw attention of the shareholders that post the Public Announcement dated August 07, 2026, the share price of the Company has increased, and the current share price is higher than the Offer Price. However, it is advised to the shareholders to independently evaluate the open offer vis-à-vis current share price and take an informed decision before participating in the Offer.
13.	Disclosure of Voting Pattern of IDC	Members of IDC were present in the meeting, and the recommendations were unanimously approved by them.
14.	Details of Independent Advisors, if any.	NIL
15.	Any other matter(s) to be highlighted	NIL

To the best of our knowledge and belief, after making proper enquiry, the information contained in or accompanying this statement is, in all material respect, true and correct and not misleading, whether by omission of any information or otherwise, and includes all the information required to be disclosed by the TC under the SEBI (SAST) Regulations.

PM internship revamp draws youth, but quality gaps persist

AANCHAL MAGAZINE
New Delhi, October 20

EXPANDING THE SCOPE of the Prime Minister Internship Scheme (PMIS) to MSMEs and sunrise sectors from top 500 companies, a near doubling of stipend to ₹9,000, easing age and education criteria, and reducing the internship period to 6-9 months from 12 months earlier, has resulted in a sharp 67% to 100% increase in youth joining the scheme in the third round. The Round III, which was launched in April this year, will end in December.

Officials and industry executives, however, frame the challenge for the youth to take the internship offer seriously, complete it, imbibe skills and become employment ready. While over 40% of the youth completed their internships in the first two rounds and some gained full-time jobs, there were many who didn't complete. Some of those who dropped out said that less focus on specialised skills or on-the-job training were the key reasons to leave mid-way. But interns' experience in the manufacturing and IT sector was remarkably better.

Data available with the Ministry of Corporate Affairs shows that the joining rate — number of interns joining the scheme as against the total internship opportunities posted by companies — has improved to 9.5% in the ongoing Round III of the Scheme as against 6.1% and 6.9%, in Round II and Round I, respectively. The completion rate — number of interns completing the internship against the total number of interns joining — is still low i.e, 39.4% in Round II as against 42.6% in Round I. Round III is still ongoing and will get over in December.

Mohit, who interned with a public sector oil refiner under the first round two years ago, said he was assigned to go from one petrol pump to another and ask customers to make payments through the refiner's app for a cashback offer. "I was in the first year of my BBA course. I got to know about the PMIS through Instagram and joined it to learn some skills. But, there was no office work or skill training, just visits to petrol pumps. There was no knowledge or learning, so I dropped out," he said over a phone call from Lucknow.

Some others too faced similar experiences. Sunil, 22, a diploma holder in computer hardware maintenance from Ranchi, Jharkhand, was made to make rounds as a loan agent in nearby villages. "I would have liked to learn some skills in the office as I have studied computer maintenance, but instead was assigned fieldwork for loan recovery. Village people wouldn't have money immediately to repay the loans and such visits would then take hours without any result. So I left," he said.

For some candidates, the completion helped. Padma, who is an electronics and communication engineering graduate from Vijayawada, got a full-time job with the same IT major where she interned. The internship offered structured learning with four months of instructor-led training and two months of self-paced digital learning and mentoring, followed by six months of on-the-job training. After 12 months of PMIS, she appeared for recruitment exams and within a month, got a full-time job in March 2026.

Announced with an aim to provide internship opportunities to 10 million youth in top 500 companies over five years, the first pilot phase of the PMIS was launched on October 3, 2024. It was opened for youth between 21 years and 24 years, not employed full-time and not engaged in full-time education. Candidates who had passed high school, higher secondary school, who possess a certificate from an ITI, hold a diploma from a polytechnic institute, or are graduates with degrees such as BA, B.Sc, B.Com, BCA, BBA, B.Pharma, etc. were eligible to apply.

SKILL BOOST

67-100% rise in youth joining PMIS Round III

- Joining rate rises to 9.5% in Round III
- Completion rate remains below 40%
- Only 39.4% completed internships in Round II
- Round III offers 6-9 month internships*
- Monthly stipend doubled to ₹9,000

- Age eligibility widened to 18-25 years
- MSMEs and sunrise sectors added to the scheme
- Structured training improves internship outcomes
- Some interns secured full-time jobs after completion

CELEBRATING VICTORY OF GOOD OVER EVIL

Prime Minister Narendra Modi during the Vijayadashami celebrations at Indraprastha Ramlila Ground in New Delhi on Tuesday. Modi said all institutions and political parties should unite in the national interest and fight together against the country's enemies. He said that in 'Ram Rajya', there is no discrimination and everyone receives justice and equal opportunities. The purpose of power is not to rule but to ensure public welfare, he said, adding that Dussehra celebrates the victory of good over evil and gives people the courage to believe that no matter how powerful the enemy, "when we stand with truth and humanity, victory will ultimately be ours".

Athletics gold rush powers India's Asiad Para show

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Nagoya (Japan), October 20

SEASONED NAMES LIKE Nishad Kumar and Deepthi Jeevanji surpassed expectations and the new entrants held out promise as India's Asian Para Games campaign soared on a solid athletics performance that brought in five gold medals here on Tuesday.

In fact, athletics was the lone gold contributor to India's tally on the day with Nishad Kumar emerging as the brightest star.

After his T47 long jump gold on Monday, he clinched the top spot in high jump as well to become only the third Indian ever to claim gold in two events of a single Para Asiad. He also smashed the Games record with his 2.04m jump. At the end of day two, India were placed sixth on the table with 35 medals, including nine gold, 11 silver and 15 bronze. The athletics contribution to this tally currently stands at 20.

Gold medalist Simran Sharma and bronze medalist Tejalben Damor (right) after competing in the Womens 200m T12 event at the Asian Para Games in Aichi-Nagoya, Japan. PTI

Deepthi set the pace quite early in the day as she reasserted her continental supremacy by snaring a second consecutive gold in the women's 400m T20 event after clocking a Games record time of 56.36sec.

The T20 classification covers athletes with intellectual impairments with challenges in processing information, concentration, and executing race plans or tactical strategies.

The 23-year-old from Telangana is a former world champion and had won a bronze in the 2024 Paralympics.

The gold rush continued with the visually impaired Simran (women's 200m T12), wheelchair-bound Pranav Soorma (F51/52/53 discus throw) and Devender Kumar (F44/64 discus throw) also fetching gold medals. Simran, a Paralympic bronze-winner, overcame fatigue caused by lack of vegetarian food options here, to smash the Games record with a timing of 24.80sec.

Games debutant Tejalben Damor took the bronze in the same event with a personal best of 25.23sec in the event for moderately visually impaired athletes. Medals also poured in from the shooting range, the table tennis competition, swimming and powerlifting but it was athletics that added golden sheen to the overall Indian performance.

Rubio meets Taj security chief who faced 26/11 seige

US SECRETARY OF State Marco Rubio met Sunil Kudyadi, the security chief at Mumbai's Taj Mahal Palace Hotel, on Tuesday and received a first-hand account of the 26/11 terror attacks, including details of the duration of the siege.

Rubio paid tribute to the victims of the 2008 Mumbai terror attacks, carried out by Pakistani terrorists, which claimed 166 lives, including six American nationals, underscoring the two countries' shared commitment to combating global terrorism.

"At the Taj Mahal Palace Hotel, I laid a wreath honouring the victims of the horrific November 26, 2008, terrorist attacks, including six American citizens. We remember those lost, honour the courage of those who responded, and reaffirm the enduring US-India partnership and our shared commitment to combating terrorism," the US Secretary of State said in a post on X.

During bilateral talks with Jaishankar, Rubio also called for expanded energy trade and increased purchases of American technologies and defence systems, according to statements released by the US State Department.

"The Secretary reiterated that increased energy trade with the United States can play a transformative role in diversifying India's supply chains while meeting its sizeable consumer demand. He also commended recent progress in bilateral defence and civil nuclear cooperation, and advocated for the increased purchase of US technologies and systems, which can enhance the security and prosperity of both our countries," the State Department said in a statement.

Risk to Investors

For details, refer to section titled "Risk Factors" on page 28 of the RHP.

1. Risk in relation to dependency on technology: Our revenues and operations are dependent upon technology. Failure of these technologies, failure to upgrade or innovate these technologies or failure to identify and develop new technologies could have an adverse impact on our results of operations. Our products may be displaced by newer technology and any inability or failure to adapt to technological developments, the evolving competitive landscape or industry trends could harm our business and competitiveness and consequently, could have an adverse impact on our results of operations.
2. Risk of Sector concentration and dependency on Government projects: We derive a substantial portion of our revenues from the WWT and SWT segments which together accounted for 88.22%, 84.98%, 84.34% and 87.40% of our consolidated revenue from operations in the three months period ended June 30, 2026, Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively. We are significantly dependent on projects, contracts or works awarded or funded by government entities, either directly or through our private customers. Our revenue from operations directly or indirectly attributable to government entities or government tenders represented 91.97%, 92.35%, 92.40% and 95.72% of our consolidated revenue from the WWT segment for the three months period ended June 30, 2026, Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively and 100.00% in the three months period ended June 30, 2026 and 100.00% of our consolidated revenue from SWT segment for each of the Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024. Any reduction or termination in such projects or adverse change in government policies could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.
3. Customer concentration risk: We derive a significant part of our revenue from our top 10 customers, and we do not have long term contracts with most of these customers. If one or more of such customers choose not to source their requirements from us or to terminate our long-term contracts, our business, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. The following table sets out our revenue from our top 10 customers for the three months ended June 30, 2026, and for Fiscal 2026, Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2024 and percentage of revenue from operations for the respective periods:

Particulars	Three months ended June 30, 2026		Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Revenue (in ₹ millions)	% of revenue from operations	Revenue (in ₹ millions)	% of revenue from operations	Revenue (in ₹ millions)	% of revenue from operations	Revenue (in ₹ millions)	% of revenue from operations
Top 10 customers	1,060.87	79.20%	5,178.44	64.44%	4,282.85	61.37%	3,891.10	59.18%

4. Risk in relation to trade Sanctions: We may be subject to trade restrictions, including economic sanctions and export controls, imposed by government(s) around the world or international organisations with jurisdiction over our operations, which prohibit or restrict transactions involving certain designated persons and certain designated countries or territories. Any failure to comply with trade restrictions such as economic sanctions and export controls or with anti-bribery and anti-corruption frameworks instituted by government authorities or international organizations, such as multilateral development banks, may restrict our ability to participate in projects, and could negatively impact our reputation and results of operations.

5. Negative cash flows from operating activities: We have experienced negative cash flows from operations in the recent past. Our consolidated cash flows for the three months period ended June 30, 2026 and June 30, 2025 and for the Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024 are set forth in the table below:

(in ₹ million)

Particulars	Three months ended		Financial Year
	June 30, 2026	June 30, 2025	2026	2025	2024
Net cash generated / (used in) from operating activities	(213.42)	320.70	(258.02)	655.09	(116.94)
Net cash generated/ (used in) investing activities	(4.93)	(180.44)	(664.73)	708.27	(771.52)
Net cash generated/ (used in) from financing activities	13.96	(200.48)	924.68	(1,065.25)	721.37
Net increase / (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents	(204.39)	(60.21)	1.93	298.12	(167.08)

6. Risk in relation to business growth and expansion: Our business has grown, including our revenue from operations that has grown at a CAGR of 10.56% from ₹6,574.95 million in Fiscal 2024 to ₹8,036.29 million in Fiscal 2026, and we may fail to manage our growth effectively. Failure to effectively manage our expansion may lead to increased costs and reduced profitability and may adversely affect our growth prospects. Our inability to manage our business and implement our growth strategy could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and profitability.

7. Risk in relation to corporate records and filings: Certain of our corporate records and filings are not traceable or have certain discrepancies. We cannot assure you that regulatory proceedings or actions will not be initiated against us in the future and we will not be subject to any penalty imposed by the competent regulatory authority in this regard.

8. Risk in relation to outstanding litigations: Our Company, Promoters, Directors, Subsidiaries and Key Managerial Personnel are currently involved in certain legal proceedings. These legal proceedings are pending at different levels of adjudication before various courts and tribunals or other governmental authorities. Further, our Subsidiaries, SFC Umwelttechnik GmbH, Hindustan Waste Treatment Private Limited and Vasudha Waste Treatment Private Limited have been, and continue to be, involved in material legal proceedings or have received show cause notices from statutory or regulatory authorities. Any adverse outcome in such proceedings may render us liable to liabilities/ penalties and may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. For further details, please see "Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments" on page 553 of the RHP.

9. Risks in relation to recall of unsecured loans: Our Subsidiaries, Hindustan Waste Treatment Private Limited, Vasudha Waste Treatment Private Limited, Fine Aeration Systems Private Limited, Pentagen Biofuels Private Limited, Sustainyx Smart Solution Private Limited (formerly Navitas Waste Treatment Private Limited) and SFC Umwelttechnik GmbH have availed unsecured loans from our Company, aggregating to ₹1,724.87 million as on June 30, 2026 that are repayable on demand by our Company. Any such unexpected demand for repayment may have a material adverse effect on our business, cash flows and financial condition.

10. High working capital requirement: We have high working capital requirements, and may require additional financing to meet those requirements, which could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. The working capital as a percentage of total revenue from operations was 561.06%, 65.19%, 63.51% and 39.94% for the three months period ended June 30, 2026 and Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Also, we have experienced an increase in our cash conversion cycle and may experience longer cash conversion cycles in the future. The table below provides our working capital details (on standalone basis):

Particulars	As of June 30, 2026#	As of March 31,
		2026	2025	2024
Inventory (in ₹ million)	949.11	777.98	637.21	568.34
Trade Receivables (in ₹ million)	3,119.43	4,312.34	3,404.60	2,812.78
Trade Payables (in ₹ million)	447.78	1,128.78	660.81	973.39
Inventory days[(1)(4)]	239	106	106	78
Trade receivable days[(2)(4)]*	443	282	262	197
Trade payable days[(3)(4)]	113	153	109	134
Cash conversion cycle (in days)[(4)]	569	235	259	141

(1) Inventory days is calculated as inventory at the period end multiplied by 365 divided by Cost of Goods sold during the period.

(2) Trade receivables days is derived as trade receivables at the period end multiplied by 365 divided by revenue from operations.

(3) Trade payable days is derived as trade payable at the period end multiplied by 365 divided by Cost of Goods sold during the period.

(4) Three months period ended is annualised and calculated as 365/4.

 For trade receivables outstanding for more than six months, the Company undertakes periodic follow-ups, reconciliations, and internal escalations as part of its standard receivables management process.*

The higher number of days for the three-month period is primarily attributable to the seasonality and cyclicality of our business and the lower first-quarter revenue base, and may not be indicative of the underlying annual cash conversion cycle.

11. Industry related risk: The SWT industry is capital-intensive in nature. Our business model involves undertaking SWT projects which may require significant upfront capital expenditure, and which may lead to us relying on bank financing or project-based lending. Our ability to borrow and the terms of our borrowings will depend on our financial condition, the stability of our cash flows and our capacity to service debt in a rising interest rate environment.

12. Risk in relation to materialisation of contingent liability: We have certain contingent liabilities which, if materialized, may adversely affect our financial condition. As of June 30, 2026, our contingent liabilities amounted to ₹0.21 million.

13. Risks in relation raw materials: We depend on a few suppliers for the supply of majority of our raw materials and we do not have continuing and exclusive supply agreements with all of them. Any interruptions in the supply of raw materials, fluctuations in raw material prices or any failure by our suppliers to make timely delivery of raw materials could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial conditions. The table below provides details in relation to our top one, top five and top 10 suppliers:

Supplier Concentration	Three months period ended period ended June 30, 2026		Fiscal 2026		Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024
	Purchase of stock in trade and raw material (in ₹ million)	% of stock in trade and raw material	Purchase of stock in trade and raw material (in ₹ million)	% of stock in trade and raw material	Purchase of stock in trade and raw material (in ₹ million)	% of stock in trade and raw material	Purchase of stock in trade and raw material (in ₹ million)	% of stock in trade and raw material
Top 1	138.58	20.41%	602.49	17.18%	312.81	10.34%	544.30	15.83%
Top 5	271.85	40.04%	1,434.37	40.89%	961.40	31.79%	1,667.77	48.52%

14. Health and Environmental Risk: The assets we operate, and the handling and treatment of waste expose us to safety, operational and other risks, including the risk of personal injury to our employees or third parties. Failure to limit our exposure to such risks may subject us to significant disruptions in our business, legal and regulatory actions, costs, and liabilities and could have an adverse impact on our results of operations.

15. Our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale portion of the Offer by our Selling Shareholders: The Offer comprises of Fresh Issue and Offer for Sale. The Selling Shareholders shall be entitled to proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

Notes:

(i) All the financial information for listed industry peers mentioned above is on a consolidated basis (unless otherwise available only on standalone basis) and is sourced from the annual reports as available of the respective company for the relevant year ended March 31, 2026.

(ii) Net asset value per share = Net worth (excluding Non-Controlling Interest) / weighted average number of equity shares outstanding at the end of the year adjusted for the subdivision of the equity shares and issue of bonus shares, if any, in accordance with principles of Ind AS 33.

(iii) P/E Ratio has been computed based on the closing market price of equity shares on BSE on October 16, 2026, divided by the Diluted EPS for the Fiscal 2026.

(iv) ROE is calculated as total profit after tax for the period / year divided by average total equity.

(v) ROCE is calculated as a percentage of earnings before interest and taxes(EBIT) / total equity plus total borrowings plus deferred tax liabilities minus deferred tax assets as per the restated / audited consolidated financial information. EBIT is calculated as profit before tax and share of profit of joint ventures / associate plus finance costs.

(vi) Enterprise Value / Operating EBITDA has been computed as the Enterprise Value divided by the Operating EBITDA for the Fiscal 2026. Enterprise Value has been calculated as the market capitalization, computed based on the closing market price of equity shares on BSE on October 16, 2026, adjusted for net debt as of March 31, 2026.

(vii) Market Capitalization to Revenue from Operations has been computed as the market capitalization, computed based on the closing market price of equity shares on BSE on October 16, 2026, divided by the Revenue from Operations for the Fiscal 2026.

20. The weighted average cost of acquisition ("WACA") of all Equity Shares transacted in last one year and three years immediately preceding the date of the RHP are as hereunder:

^Assuming full subscription in the Offer (fresh issue and offer for sale) and considering Equity Shares resulting upon exercise of vested options under the ESOP Schemes, if any. The post-Offer shareholding details as at Allotment will be based on the actual subscription and the Offer Price and updated in the Prospectus, subject to finalization of the Basis of Allotment.

Also, this table assumes there is no transfer of shares by these shareholders between the date of this pre-Offer and Price Band advertisement and allotment (if any such transfers occur prior to the date of prospectus, it will be updated in the shareholding pattern in the prospectus).

BASIS FOR OFFER PRICE

The "Basis for Offer Price" on page 183 of the RHP has been updated as above and for the details of the price band. Please refer to the websites of the BRLMs: www.iiflcapital.com, www.jmfl.com and www.nuvama.com for the "Basis for Offer Price" updated with the above price band

You may scan the QR code for accessing the website of IIFL Capital Services Limited (formerly known as IIFL Securities Limited).

The Floor Price, Price Band and the Offer Price will be determined by our Company, in consultation with the Book Running Lead Managers, on the basis of assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares offered through the Book Building Process and on the basis of the qualitative and quantitative factors as described below. The face value of the Equity Shares is ₹2 each, and the Offer Price is 156.50 times the face value at the lower end of the Price Band and 165.00 times the face value at the higher end of the Price Band. The financial information included herein is derived from our Restated Consolidated Financial Information. The Prospective Investors should also refer to "Risk Factors", "Our Business", "Restated Consolidated Financial Information", and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" on pages 28, 298, 402 and 516 of the RHP, respectively, to have an informed view before making an investment decision.

Qualitative factors

Some of the qualitative factors and our strengths which form the basis for computing the Offer Price are:

- Technology driven market leadership as a key player in the wastewater treatment market:

  With 728 installations in the WWT segment, particularly in sewage treatment plants ("STPs"), we hold over 80% market share in sequencing batch reactor ("SBR") technology, a key wastewater treatment method in India, as of July 31, 2026. (Source: F&S Report). Set forth are the details of the treatment capacity facilitated by our technology as at and for the three months period ended June 30, 2026 and past three fiscal years:

Details of wastewater treatment capacity facilitated by our technology (on cumulative basis)	No. of wastewater treatment installations	Treatment capacity (in MLD)
As at June 30, 2026	724	17,464.61
As at March 31, 2026	705	17,144.01
As at March 31, 2025	639	15,209.45
As at March 31, 2024	577	13,906.98

- Vertical integration through constant innovation and use of technology:

  Our approach to vertical integration involves the development and manufacture of key components used in our C-Tech and OREX technologies by augmenting our in-house manufacturing capabilities, thereby reducing our dependence on third parties for procurement of key technologies for our business operations. With over 20 years of experience in wastewater treatment technology, we've strengthened our manufacturing through 1. In-house production; 2. Strategic partnerships; and 3. Acquisitions;

- Well-positioned to capture market opportunities in the solid waste treatment segment:

  We are among the market leaders in the municipal solid waste space basis our operational results and comprehensive solutions. (Source: F&S Report). We have an established track record in the SWT segment, and have designed, built and are operating two integrated SWT facilities in Goa for the Goa Waste Management Corporation on public-private partnership and turnkey model to treat municipal solid waste, enabling generation of biogas, compost and recovery of recyclables, with a combined treatment capacity of 350 tons per day ("TPD"), with an additional handling capacity of 75 TPD resulting in our aggregate treatment capacity of up to 425 TPD.

- High proportion of repeat business with strong order book:

  We maintain strong, long-standing relationships with our customers, as evidenced by recurring business engagements. The revenue from our repeated customers are as follows:

Financial Year / Period	Revenue from repeat customers (in ₹ million)	Revenue from repeat customers as a % of revenue from operations
Three months ended June 30, 2026	625.40	97.41%
FY 2026	5,140.40	91.98%
FY 2025	4,039.74	85.18%
FY 2024	4,691.84	89.96%

As on June 30, 2026, our Total Order Book (WWT, WRR and SWT segments) stood at ₹15,700.65 million.

- Track record of consistent performance and strong financial profile:

  We believe that our focus on efficient utilisation of resources has led to deliver revenue growth and consistent profitability. A summary of our financial performance is as follows:

(in ₹ million, unless otherwise stated)

*The acquisition was undertaken subsequent to the sub-division of the Equity Shares of our Company of face value ₹10 each into 5 Equity Shares of ₹2 each.

[1]Pursuant to a resolution of our Board passed in their meeting held on August 14, 2024, and a resolution of our Shareholders passed in their annual general meeting held on September 5, 2024, each fully paid-up equity share of our Company of face value ₹10 each was subdivided into 5 Equity Shares of ₹2 each. The impact of the subdivision has been considered in the calculation of number of Equity Shares and in the weighted average cost of acquisition price per Equity Share.

The Floor Price is 0.96 times and the Cap Price is 1.02 times the weighted average cost of acquisition at which the Equity Shares were issued by our Company, or acquired or sold by our Promoters or members of our Promoter Group or Selling Shareholders or shareholder(s) having the right to nominate director(s) on the Board* in the last 18 months or three years preceding the date of the Red Herring Prospectus are disclosed below:

Based on the disclosures in (a), (b) and (c) above, the weighted average cost of acquisition of the Equity Shares compared with the Floor Price and the Cap Price is set forth below:

Past transactions	Weighted average cost of acquisition per Equity Share (in ₹)	Comparison with Floor Price (₹313)	Comparison with Cap Price (₹330)
Weighted average cost of acquisition of primary issuances as set out in (a) above	Not Applicable	Not Applicable	Not Applicable
Weighted average cost of acquisition of secondary issuances as set out in (b) above	Not Applicable	Not Applicable	Not Applicable
Incase there are no such transactions to report to under (a) and (b) above, the following are the details as per (c) above basis the last five primary or secondary transactions (secondary transactions where the Promoters, members of the Promoter Group, Selling Shareholder or Shareholder(s) having the right to nominate Director(s) on our Board, are a party to the transaction), not older than three years prior to the date of the Red Herring Prospectus irrespective of the size of transactions:
- Based on primary transactions	Nil	Not Applicable	Not Applicable
- Based on secondary transactions	324.38	0.96 times	1.02 times

As certified by the M/s H H Dedhia & Associates, Chartered Accountants, by way of their certificate dated October 19, 2026.

Detailed explanation for Cap Price being 1.02 times of weighted average cost of acquisition of primary issuance price/secondary transaction price of Equity Shares (as set out above) along with our Company's key performance indicators and financial ratios for the three months period ended June 30, 2026 and for the Fiscals 2026, 2025 and 2024 and in view of the external factors which may have influenced the pricing of the Offer

1. Technology driven market leadership in WWT - 724 WWT installations, with over 80% market share in SBR technology in India (F&S Report). Treatment capacity facilitated rose to 17,464.61 MLD as at June 30, 2026, from 13,906.98 MLD as at March 31, 2024.
2. Vertical integration through innovation and technology - Key components for C-Tech and OREX technologies are manufactured in-house, reducing dependence on third parties. Manufacturing has been strengthened over 20+ years through in-house production, strategic partnerships and acquisitions.
3. Well-positioned in the solid waste treatment segment - Among the market leaders in municipal solid waste (F&S Report). Two integrated SWT facilities in Goa (350 TPD), plus 75 TPD handling capacity, take aggregate capacity to 425 TPD.
4. High repeat business with strong order book - Repeat customers contributed 97.41% of revenue in the three months ended June 30, 2026, and 91.98% in FY26. Total Order Book stood at ₹15,700.65 million as of June 30, 2026.
5. Consistent performance and strong financial profile - Revenue grew from ₹6,574.95 million in FY24 to ₹8,036.29 million in FY26. FY26 PAT was ₹1,602.13 million (19.94% margin), with net debt/equity of 0.05x.
6. Proven management experience and leadership - Promoters, Board, KMPs and Senior Management bring extensive industry experience. This has been pivotal to sustained growth and market leadership.

The Offer Price of ₹[●] has been determined by our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs, on the basis of market demand from investors for Equity Shares, as determined through the Book Building Process, and is justified in view of the above qualitative and quantitative parameters. Investors should read the aforementioned information along with "Risk Factors", "Our Business", "Restated Consolidated Financial Information", "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" on pages 28, 298, 402 and 516 of the RHP, respectively, to have a more informed view. The trading price of the Equity Shares could decline due to the factors mentioned in the "Risk Factors" and you may lose all or part of your investments.

2. The interested applicants may refer to the complete 41st E-Auction process document containing terms and conditions of the E-Auction available on the e-auction platform i.e., https://baanknet.com/ or https://www.ebkray.in
   The intending bidders are required to deposit Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) amount on BAANKNET through Wallet.
3. The prospective bidders shall submit the documents at the E-auction portal in the format prescribed in the E-Auction Process Document on or before 10th November, 2026. The bid form along with detailed terms & conditions of complete E-Auction process, can be downloaded from the website https://ibbi.baanknet.com/eauction-ibbi/home.
4. Identification of the highest bidder does not guarantee the status of a successful bidder. The Liquidator, after the approval of the committee (CoC) with voting share of sixty-six per cent, retains the sole authority to declare the successful bidder. The decision of the COC shall be final and binding on all bidders.
5. Subsequent to announcement of Successful bidder after the approval of the committee (CoC) with voting share of sixty-six per cent, the Liquidator will issue a Letter of Intent (LOI) to the Successful Bidder and will seek payment of balance consideration (as per the detailed terms and conditions mentioned under E-Auction Document). Default in deposit of the balance amount by the successful bidder within the time limit as mentioned would entail forfeiture of the entire amount deposited (EMD plus any other amount paid by the Successful Bidder).
6. It is clarified that this invitation is purported to invite prospective bidders and does not create any kind of binding obligation on the part of the Liquidator or the Company to effectuate the sale. The Liquidator reserves the absolute right to accept or reject or cancel any bid or modify or extend any terms and conditions of the E-Auction, or disqualify any interested party, potential investor, or bidder, without assigning any reason whatsoever and without incurring any liability of any nature.
7. The intending bidders, prior to submitting their bid, should make their independent inquiries/due diligence at their own expenses and satisfy themselves.
8. In case of any technical glitch or system issue from the website of BAANKNET, the Liquidator shall not be held responsible. The bidder shall be solely responsible for ensuring their ability to participate in the E-Auction.
   However, in case of any query or assistance the interested buyer should approach the liquidator 48 hours before the scheduled EMD/Auction date subject to further terms and conditions of the auction document.
9. The E-Auction service provider will conduct the auction on the scheduled date & time (https://ibbi.baanknet.com/eauction-ibbi/home.)
10. The date & time of E-Auction shall be on 12th November, 2026 from 03:00 P.M. to 05:00 P.M. (with unlimited extensions of 5 Min. each)
11. For any Technical assistance please call on PSB Alliance Private Limited HELP DESK Contact No: +91-8291220220 Email: support.ebkray@psballiance.com or e-mail at cirp.kaliberapl@gmail.com or contact Ms. Isha Arora (Team Member of Liquidator) at Mob: +91 8130249927.

Risk to Investors

For details, refer to section titled "Risk Factors" on page 20 of the RHP.

1. Dependence of our Total Income on the Variable Additional Return:

   Our Variable Additional Return constitutes 32.41%, 27.54%, 30.14%, 24.25% and 16.19% of our Total Income for the three months period ended June 30, 2026, June 30, 2025 and Financial Years 2026, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Further, the realized Variable Additional Return may be different from our Variable Additional Return recognized on a year-on-year basis and the timing and receipt of Variable Additional Return are unpredictable and contribute to volatility in our cash flows.

2. Dependence of our Total Income on the Management and Advisory Fees:

   A significant portion of Total Income comes from our Management and Advisory Fees. There is a risk that it may fluctuate depending on the performance of our funds, changes in fee structure, competition and market conditions which may consequently affect our Total Income.

3. Historical growth rates may not be indicative of the future growth:

   Our business growth depends on, among other things, our ability to retain client trust, our ability to deal with changing market conditions, such as developing new investment products, maintaining and extending our distribution capabilities, and complying with new regulations. Any failure in managing our growth could affect our AUM and/or FPAUM, or damage our brand or reputation, which could result in a reversal of any growth that is achieved.

4. Risk related to valuation methodologies

   Most of the investments of our funds are illiquid and thus may have no readily ascertainable market prices. We value these investments based on our estimate, or an independent third party's estimate, of their fair value as of the date of determination, which often involves significant subjectivity.

5. Lack of directly comparable Indian listed peers

   The absence of directly comparable Indian listed peers may present challenges in terms of how investors perceive and value our Company. The lack of comparable companies in the domestic market can create uncertainty and variability in the assessment of our financial performance, growth prospects, and overall business value.

6. Risk related to the capital commitment

   Our funds are dependent on our clients honoring their capital calls for disbursements to enable our funds to make investments and cover fund expenses. However, these capital calls may not be honored due to several factors, which in turn can adversely affect the operations and performance of our funds. Any failure to timely secure capital commitment in future, if arisen, may compel us to divest assets under suboptimal conditions, adversely impacting investment returns and fund performance.

7. Risk related to the regulatory and statutory restrictions

   Our Group Companies and Promoters are subject to purview of various authorities such as SEBI, RBI and tax authorities which may result in financial penalties, additional compliances and regulatory restrictions.

8. Risk related to the negative cash flows

We have experienced negative cash flows in the past and prolonged negative cash flow could adversely affect our financial condition and business operations including delays in implementing strategic initiatives or expansion plans. The following table sets forth certain financial information for the periods indicated:

(in ₹ million)

Particulars	Three months period ended June 30,*		For the Financial Year ended*
	2026	2025	2026	2025	2024

Net Variable Additional Return (C=A-B)	264.50	451.46	1,293.85	595.98	104.04	2,258.37

Note:

(1) Variable Additional Return is the additional variable return to the Company and its Subsidiaries once the fund has achieved the hurdle rate of return for its investors based on NAV and/or Realisation, shown as other operating revenues in Restated Consolidated Financial Information. The recognition of Variable Additional Return is guided by the waterfall distribution mechanism specified in the respective fund documentation and as per Company and its Subsidiaries' policies.

(2) Total accrued is for the period from April,1 2023 till June 30, 2026.

10. Risk related to distributors or placement agents

More than 33.75% of the funds raised from domestic investors in three months period ended June 30, 2026 were raised through distributors. Mismanagement in handling our relationships with distributors or placement agents could have a negative impact on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

11. Offer-related Risk:

We will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale, aggregating up to ₹12,000 million and the proceeds from the Offer for Sale will be transferred to the Promoter Selling Shareholder.

12. The Price/Earnings ratio based on diluted EPS for Fiscal 2026 for the Company at the upper end of the Price band is as high as 41.25 as compared to the average industry peer group PE ratio of 39.89.

13. Weighted Average Return on Net Worth for Financial Year ended 2026, 2025 and 2024 is 26.57%.

BASIS FOR OFFER PRICE

The "Basis for Offer Price" on page 140 of the RHP has been updated as above and for the details of the price band. Please refer to the websites of the BRLMs: www.axiscapital.co.in, www.jefferies.com, www.motilaloswal.com and www.nuvama.com for the "Basis for Offer Price" updated with the above price band.

You may scan the QR code for accessing the website of Axis Capital Limited.

The Price Band and Offer Price will be determined by our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs, and in accordance with applicable law, on the basis of assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares offered through the Book Building Process and quantitative and qualitative factors as described below. The face value of the Equity Shares is ₹5 each and the Offer Price is [●] times the Floor Price and [●] times the Cap Price, and Floor Price is 317 times the face value and the Cap Price is 333 times the face value.

Investors should also refer to the sections 'Risk Factors', 'Our Business', 'Restated Consolidated Financial Information' and 'Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations' beginning on pages 20, 228, 304 and 393 of the RHP, respectively, to have an informed view before making an investment decision.

Qualitative Factors

Some of the qualitative factors which form the basis for the Offer Price are as follows:

1. Scaled and experienced player in the large and expanding Indian real assets and private credit market;
2. Diversified, multi-strategy platform offering a wide range of alternative investments products, with a consistent track record;
3. Diverse and longstanding client base with significant potential to scale their commitments;
4. Technology-enabled institutional platform;
5. Dedicated portfolio operating and management platform;
6. Comprehensive risk management systems; and
7. Led by a seasoned management team with extensive industry experience.

For further details, see "Our Business – Our Strengths" on page 234 of the RHP.

Quantitative factors

Certain information presented below relating to our Company is derived from the Restated Consolidated Financial Information. For details, see 'Restated Consolidated Financial Information' and 'Other Financial Information' beginning on pages 304 and 392 of the RHP, respectively.

Some of the quantitative factors which may form the basis for calculating the Offer Price are as follows:

A. Basic and diluted earnings per Equity Share of face value ₹5 each ("EPS):

Financial Year ended	Basic EPS (in ₹)	Diluted EPS (in ₹)	Weight
March 31, 2026	41.26	40.36	3
March 31, 2025	35.75	35.75	2
March 31, 2024	27.25	27.25	1
Weighted Average	37.09	36.64
Three months period ended June 30, 2026*	12.56	12.29	-
Three months period ended June 30, 2025*	8.66	8.66	-

Not annualised*

Notes:

i) Basic EPS is calculated as profit for the year or period attributable to owners of our Company divided by the number of Equity Shares outstanding during the year/period.

ii) Diluted EPS is calculated as profit for the year or period attributable to owners of our Company divided by number of Equity Shares outstanding during the year/period adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential Equity Shares

iii) Earnings per Share calculations are in accordance with the notified Indian Accounting Standard 33 'Earnings per share'

iv) Weighted average = Aggregate of year-wise weighted EPS divided by the aggregate of weights i.e. (EPS x Weight) for each year/Total of weights

v) The figures disclosed above are based on the Restated Consolidated Financial Information of our Company.

B. Price/Earning ("P/E") ratio in relation to the Price Band of the Company:

Particulars	P/E at the Floor Price (no. of times)	P/E at the Cap Price (no. of times)
Based on basic EPS for financial year ended March 31, 2026	38.41	40.35
Based on diluted EPS for financial year ended March 31, 2026	39.27	41.25

C. Industry Peer Group P/E ratio:

Based on the peer group information (excluding our Company), details of the highest, lowest and industry average P/E ratio are set forth below.

Particulars	P/E ratio
Highest (Anand Rathi Wealth Limited)	90.69
Lowest (Gaja Alternative Asset Management Limited)	20.24
Average	39.89

Notes:

i) The industry high and low has been considered from the industry peer set. The industry composite has been calculated as the arithmetic average P/E of the industry peer set disclosed in this section.

ii) P/E ratio for the peers has been computed based on the closing market price of equity shares on NSE as on October 8, 2026, divided by Diluted EPS for the year ended March 31, 2026.

iii) Anand Rathi Wealth Limited undertook a bonus issue (one bonus equity share of face value ₹5 each for every one equity share held). Record date for the corporate action was June 3, 2026. The P/E Ratio considered is after taking into consideration this bonus issue by retrospectively adjusting as if the event had occurred at the beginning of the period presented.

D. Return on Net Worth ("RoNW")

Financial Year ended	RoNW (%)	Weight
March 31, 2026	25.97	3

The Offer is being made in terms of Rule 19(2)(b) of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1957, as amended (the "SCRR"), read with Regulation 31 of the SEBI ICDR Regulations. The Offer is being made through the Book Building Process in accordance with Regulation 6(1) of the SEBI ICDR Regulations wherein not more than 50% of the Offer shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis to Qualified Institutional Buyers ("QIBs") (the "QIB Portion"), provided that our Company, in consultation with the BRLMs, may allocate up to 60% of the QIB Portion to Anchor Investors, on a discretionary basis (the "Anchor Investor Portion"), of which up to 40% shall be reserved as under: (i) up to 33.33% for domestic Mutual Funds; and (ii) up to 6.67% for Life Insurance Companies and Pension Funds, subject to valid Bids being received from domestic Mutual Funds, Life Insurance Companies and Pension Funds at or above the price at which allocation is made to Anchor Investors, in accordance with SEBI ICDR Regulations ("Anchor Investor Allocation Price"). Any under-subscription in the reserved category specified in clause (ii) above, may be allocated to domestic Mutual Funds. In the event of under-subscription or non-allocation in the Anchor Investor Portion, the balance Equity Shares shall be added to the remaining QIB Portion ("Net QIB Portion"). Further, 5% of the Net QIB Portion shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis only to Mutual Funds, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Offer Price, and the remainder of the Net QIB Portion shall be available for allocation on a proportionate basis to all QIBs (other than Anchor Investors), including Mutual Funds, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Offer Price. Further, not less than 15% of the Offer shall be available for allocation to Non-Institutional Investors ("NIIs") ("Non-Institutional Portion") of which one-third of the Non-Institutional Portion shall be available for allocation to Bidders with a Bid size of more than ₹200,000 and up to ₹1,000,000 and two-thirds of the Non-Institutional Portion shall be available for allocation to Bidders with a Bid size of more than ₹1,000,000 and under-subscription in either of these two subcategories of Non-Institutional Portion may be allocated to Bidders in the other sub-category of Non-Institutional Portion in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, subject to valid Bids being received at or above the Offer Price. Further, not less than 35% of the Offer shall be available for allocation to Retail Individual Investors ("RIIs") ("Retail Portion"), in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, subject to valid Bids being received from them at or above the Offer Price. All Bidders (except Anchor Investors) shall mandatorily participate in this Offer only through the Application Supported by Blocked Amount ("ASBA") process and shall provide details of their respective bank account (including UPI ID (defined hereinafter) in case of UPI Bidders (defined hereinafter) in which the Bid Amount will be blocked by the Self Certified Syndicate Banks ("SCSBs") or the Sponsor Bank(s), as the case may be. Anchor Investors are not permitted to participate in the Offer through the ASBA process. For details, see "Offer Procedure" beginning on page 482 of the RHP.

Bidders/Applicants should ensure that DP ID, PAN and the Client ID and UPI ID (for UPI Bidders bidding through UPI Mechanism) are correctly filled in the Bid cum Application Form. The DP ID, PAN, UPI ID and Client ID provided in the Bid cum Application Form should match with the DP ID, PAN, Client ID and UPI ID available (for UPI Bidders bidding through the UPI Mechanism) in the Depository database, otherwise, the Bid cum Application Form is liable to be rejected. Bidders/ Applicants should ensure that the beneficiary account provided in the Bid cum Application Form is active. Bidders/Applicants should note that on the basis of the PAN, DP ID, Client ID and UPI ID (for UPI Bidders bidding through the UPI mechanism) as provided in the Bid cum Application Form, the Bidder/Applicant may be deemed to have authorized the Depositories to provide to the Registrar to the Offer, any requested Demographic Details of the Bidder/Applicant as available on the records of the depositories. These Demographic Details may be used, among other things, for giving Allotment Advice or unblocking of ASBA Account or for other correspondence(s) related to the Offer. Bidders/Applicants are advised to update any changes to their Demographic Details as available in the records of the Depository Participant to ensure accuracy of records. Any delay resulting from failure to update the Demographic Details would be at the Bidders/Applicants' sole risk.

Investors must ensure that their PAN is linked with Aadhaar and are in compliance with the notification issued by Central Board of Direct Taxes notification dated February 13, 2020 and press releases dated June 25, 2021, September 17, 2021, CBDT circular no.7 of 2022, dated March 30, 2022, read with press release dated March 28, 2023 and any subsequent press releases in this regard.
